JOURNAL
OF THE
TWENTY-FIRST ANNUAL ENCAMPMENT
DEPARTMENT OF INDIANA
GRAND ARMY OF THE REPUBLIC.

The Twenty-first Annual Encampment of the Department of Indiana Grand Army of the Republic, assembled in Tomlinson Hall, Indianapolis, Wednesday morning, May 16, at 10 o'clock. The Encampment was opened according to the ritual, the Department Commander, William L. Dunlap, presiding; Comrade Allan H. Dougall, Post 271, Fort Wayne, Officer of the Day, and Comrade Joseph Bristow, Post 17, Indianapolis, Officer of the Guard. Prayer was offered by the Department Chaplain, Comrade Charles W. Stewart, Post 164, Danville.

ORDER OF BUSINESS.

The Encampment being opened, Comrade Richard M. Smock, Assistant Adjutant-General, on behalf of the Council of Administration, submitted the following Rules and Order of Business:

1. Opening of the Encampment.
2. Report of Committee on Credentials.
3. Calling Roll of Department Officers and Posts.

DUP EXCH L of C Nov 13 16

4. Appointment of Committees on Reports of Officers, Resolutions and other Committees.

5. Reports of Officers.

6. Reception and Reference of Resolutions and Communications.

7. Reports of Committees.

8. Miscellaneous Business.

9. Election of Delegates and Alternates to National Encampment.

10. Election of Department Officers as follows:

(a) Council of Administration.

(b) Chaplain.

(c) Medical Director.

(d) Junior Vice-Department Commander.

(e) Senior Vice-Department Commander.

(f) Commander.

11. Installation of Officers.

The business of the Encampment shall be conducted under the "Rules of Order" of the National Encampment so far as they are applicable.

All speeches shall be limited to five minutes, except by unanimous consent.

All resolutions offered shall be read and referred to the Committee on Resolutions without debate. And no resolution will be considered that has not been presented to the Encampment, and signed by the party presenting it, except by unanimous consent.

In nominations for Department Officers, the roll will be called by Congressional Districts, and only the name, location and Post of the Comrade shall be given.

Balloting for Delegates and Alternates to the National Encampment shall be taken in the following manner:

The Comrades from each Congressional District will assemble in District meetings on Thursday morning at 8 o'clock, in the hall, and organize by selecting a Chairman and two Tellers, whose names shall be reported to the Assistant Adjutant-General; they shall at the same time select Delegates and Alternates to the National Encampment, giving names in full, with post-office address and number of Post they are selected from.

In balloting for Department Officers in the Encampment, the same Tellers shall collect the ballots of their respective Districts, count the same, and when the Districts are called, the Chairman of such District will announce the result of such ballot for each candidate, and send the same in writing to the Assistant Adjutant-General, signed by the Chairman and Tellers. The Assistant Adjutant-General shall then tabulate the vote and announce the result for each candidate.

If there be any controversy in any District over the result of any ballot before it is announced, the Commander shall, upon the request of two Comrades, order the roll of said District called for verification.

In selecting the Council of Administration, the five candidates receiving the highest number of votes shall be declared elected. Every ballot to have five names upon it. Ballots having less than five names shall not be counted.

Representatives and Alternates to the National Encampment shall be elected in the same manner as Department Officers, and apportioned to each Congressional District according to the numerical strength of the District: One Representative and one Alternate for each seven hundred and fifty Comrades in good standing, and one additional Representative and Alternate for a major fraction of more than one-half of that number, apportioned as follows:

One Representative and one Alternate-at-Large.

First District—One Representative and one Alternate.

Second District—One Representative and one Alternate.

Third District—One Representative and one Alternate.

Fourth District—Two Representatives and two Alternates.

Fifth District—Two Representatives and two Alternates.

Sixth District—Two Representatives and two Alternates.

Seventh District—Two Representatives and two Alternates.

Eighth District—Two Representatives and two Alternates.

Ninth District—Two Representatives and two Alternates.

Tenth District—Two Representatives and two Alternates.

Eleventh District—Two Representatives and two Alternates.

Twelfth District—One Representative and one Alternate.

Thirteenth District—Two Representatives and two Alternates.

In balloting no proxies will be allowed, and no votes will be counted unless cast by Comrades present in the hall at the time the vote is taken, either by Districts or in open Encampment. After the second ballot for any office the candidate receiving the lowest number of votes shall be dropped on each successive ballot.

The place of holding the next Encampment shall be determined before adjournment on Wednesday.

On motion of Past Department James T. Johnston, the report was adopted.

COMMITTEE ON CREDENTIALS.

The Assistant Adjutant-General presented the following report for the Committee on Credentials:

INDIANAPOLIS, May 16, 1900.

To the Twenty-first Annual Encampment of the Department of Indiana, Grand Army of the Republic:

The Committee on Credentials would respectfully report that they have examined the certificates of election, as forwarded by the several

THE COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF.

The Committee to escort the Commander-in-Chief, A. D. SHAW, consisting of Comrades William H. Armstrong, J. R. Carnahan, A. D. Vanosdol, D. N. Foster and George Brown, was here announced. The Commander-in-Chief, attended by Senior Vice-Commander-in-Chief, Irvin Robbins, appeared and was received with honors. He was introduced to the Encampment by Past Commander-in-Chief, I. N. Walker. After expressing his gratification regarding the condition of the affairs of the Department of Indiana, his gratitude for the warm welcome extended to him and his appreciation of Indianapolis and the "finest monument to soldiers in the world," the Commander-in-Chief spoke substantially as follows:

I need not take long to make clear the claims of the Grand Army of the Republic to the gratitude and good will of every true lover of our country. It is a fraternal order, based upon service in the Union armies, and has for its ideals "fraternity, charity and loyalty." The heroic Logan, soldier, hero and statesman, was its leading inspirer and first Commander-in-Chief, and his memory will be ever sweet to every Comrade while life lasts. Great generals who commanded armies have taken their places alongside the privates who stood behind the guns—and in the sacred bonds of comradeship have proved that the sentiment of patriotism and duty know no distinction of rank and service in the noble conflict for Union and freedom, after sweet peace was won. I sometimes think that there is a view of our Grand Army not generally fully appreciated, and that it is the influence it has had in teaching love of country and broadening the spirit of loyalty to the Stars and Stripes. There are over nine thousand Grand Army Posts in the Nation, and for many years each has been the center of patriotism, illustrated by the action of veterans who periled their lives in defense of the flag of the epoch of Washington, and whose presence has filled the hearts of millions of children with inspiring memories of great deeds and great sacrifices for our country. Our annual National Encampments have been unprecedented pageantries of inspiring object-lessons of the times that tried the girth and grain of men, and these great parades will go down in history as worthy demonstrations of a grateful people in honor of the saviors of the Nation.

At every meeting or reception I attended in my recent visit to Southern departments, the happy evidences of a broad reconciliation were manifested in a manner to prove that the former sectional exclusiveness and irritations have mainly given way to cordial and reciprocal views of a common American citizenship. In nearly every instance the Confederate veterans have vied with Union veterans in honoring your Commander-in-Chief by their presence and war greetings, and there was no sign of discord from first to last of my extended tour. Truly, it is pleasant for former foes to dwell together in unity, and to prove to the whole world that the final settlement of our stupendous conflict by the court of war has resulted in a union of hearts and of interests as beautiful as it is glorious from every Christian and material point of view. Terrible as was the long and bloody tragedy between the South and the North, the issue left us with a full understanding of the great vital truth that a divided national sentiment was fatal to peace and harmonious development, on a safe and sound basis. A knowledge of this fact led our wisest leaders and teachers of public opinion—both in the North and the South—to early advocate the policy of concord, and to plead for prudent and wise mutual counsels regarding the unhappy past, and to seek a common ground of unity. Under God the Spanish-American war came as a fusing sentiment of popular enthusiasm, and out of the Southland eagerly came the sons of the wearers of the gray, to stand in serried ranks by the side of the sons of the wearers of the blue, marching to the tune of liberty, under the Stars and Stripes, and led by ex-Confederate and ex-Union officers of the great war! And so the closing of the greatest century in the life of man has witnessed the most blessed fruits of righteousness as the crowning glory of our new and splendid civilization.

PENSION QUESTION.

I am sure you will expect me to refer to the pension question, as an important topic at such a Grand Army function as this. I do so with a special pleasure at this time, for the reason that I believe there is a juster view being taken in the present of the pension question than there was even one year ago. This comes from the discussion that has been vigorously and faithfully pressed before the public by just friends of the saviors of the Nation. In my view, the people as a whole are right-hearted on the policy of deserving pensions, but wrong-headed and thoughtless critics have at times misled public opinion regarding the rights and needs of our aging veterans. Two choruses of criticisms have mainly been heard concerning pensions and applicants for pensions—first, the enormous present pension expenditure, and second, the cry about “pension frauds” and “pension sharks”—i. e., pension agents. Now in all fairness, it must be admitted that our government—at the command of our loyal millions—is paying out an annual sum total in pensions of colossal proportions. And yet this large amount comes from the disabilities of the many hundreds of thousands of volunteers who saved the Nation from ruin. From the first, the American pension policy has been liberal, for the reason that volunteers filled our armies, and the liberal pensions granted in all our wars have been compensations, in part, for sacrifices to health and wounds made in a cause common to all, and for the general safety and honor. When we enlisted in the sixties, we were promised a grateful Nation’s love and aid, after we returned home as victors from one of the bloodiest and worthiest wars of the world. We did not enlist for pensions, and few thought of them—in the hot rush to defend the imperiled flag; and the great sacrifice during the tragedy of tragedies of our new birth in later years made itself felt in a great multitude of instances, both with the veteran and his helpless dear ones. And so the pension roll is long simply because the roll of volunteers included over two millions of soldiers and sailors during the bloody period in question. As the aging survivors fail in health from exposure and wounds in the war, or from later misfortunes, they deserve all the pension they have been or can be granted. An hour on the firing line, in a sharp engagement, would convince any hostile critic of pensions that every needy and worthy soldier, in his old age, deserves a pension. There is another view of this question that may well be stated by me, and that is that unless those who gave the best years of their lives as volunteers in the common defense of their country, when everything hung on their well-poised bayonets, are righteously treated in their old age by being granted promised generous pensions, future American armies will likely have to come largely from the choice of the draft, and not from the willing volunteers, in a great national crisis. I am sick and tired of the unpatriotic criticism about the "pension frauds," "pension sharks," and so on. It is all unworthy of a great free people, saved to the most glorious heritage of the centuries by the service of those who are so savagely and unjustly criticised. The official records show that the pension roll is an unrivaled roll of honor. It stands proved to be the purest roll in all the circle of philanthropic institutions—either in church or state—in private or public benefactions. Under President Cleveland's administration this was demonstrated, after $500,000 was spent in a heroic hunt after proof to the contrary.

Our pension laws are the most generous and liberal of any country, and the reason for it is because our armies are made up, in the main, of volunteers. The people of this country are almost a unit in favor of pensioning every worthy and needy veteran, and the chief objections are based upon so-called "frauds," brought about by what are termed "pension sharks." A few plain words here now will be in order. With many hundreds of thousands of pensioners on the roll, it would be a miracle if there were not some fraudulent cases among them. This is understood. And it is equally true that, with so many pension agents, occasional instances of frauds arise under their manipulations. I say "occasional" advisedly, for the reason that the last report of the Attorney-General of the United States proves that there are less convictions for frauds in the pension branch than in any other department of our government.

GOOD SHOWING.

The official record of convictions issued by the Attorney-General of the United States recently shows that, while there were several thousand convictions under the internal revenue laws, a good many hundreds under the postoffice laws, and a large number under the customs laws, that the lowest number of convictions in any department was that in the pension department, and this notwithstanding there are a large number of examiners who are all the while hunting out frauds. This official brief conclusively answers the cry of which I have spoken, of "frauds, frauds" and "pension sharks" against the government.

It is our duty to stand side by side, touching elbows as of old, recognizing everyone who belongs to our order as a Comrade in the highest and noblest sense.

I have to thank the members of the Grand Army of the Department of Indiana, and also the members of the Women's Relief Corps and the Ladies of the Grand Army and other patriotic organizations, for the sweet words of condolence in the affliction which fell upon my heart, that came so suddenly and with such a blow, in February last. I think I know what it is now to have "one taken and the other left."

We have lived to see monuments raised in honor of our great services to the Nation. We have in our day seen the soldiers of the South meet us in kindly relations who fought in the armies of the North, and reconciliation broad and deep and strong has come. On the Cuban anvil were welded together the South and the North, so that now sectional lines are obliterated forever. The sons of the soldiers of the Southern armies and the sons of the soldiers of the Northern armies, led by veterans of the Northern armies and by veterans of the Southern armies, fight for the liberty of the oppressed in islands near and far, and to-day, under the glad consummation of righteousness, we have one feeling, one sentiment of duty, one Christian citizenship, and over it all the flag of Washington, the flag of Lincoln and the flag of McKinley—the flag of our Union forever.

The address of the Commander-in-Chief was listened to with the closest attention, and was frequently interrupted with applause. Comrade E. H. Hobson, of Kentucky, Past Senior Vice-Commander-in-Chief, and Department Commander Monfort, of Ohio, spoke briefly. Miss Luella Moore, Division President of the Ladies' Aid Society, of Terre Haute, and Miss Addie Wallace, of the Indianapolis Aid Society, appeared and presented bouquets, for which they were thanked by Department Commander Dunlap.

An adjournment was taken until after the parade.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The afternoon session was called to order by Department Commander Dunlap at 3:30 o'clock. He called Senior Vice-Department Commander Morton C. Rankin to the chair, and proceeded to read his address.

DEPARTMENT COMMANDER'S ADDRESS.

HEADQUARTERS DEPARTMENT OF INDIANA, }
 GRAND ARMY OF THE REPUBLIC, }
 FRANKLIN, IND., May 16, 1900. }

Comrades:

At the Twelfth Annual Encampment of the Department of Indiana, Grand Army of the Republic, held in this city April 9 and 10, 1891, an invitation was accepted to hold the next session in the city of Fort Wayne. That was the beginning of what has proved to be a very pleasant change from the former custom. Since then the sessions have been held at Fort Wayne, Evansville, Lafayette, Muncie, South Bend, Richmond, Columbus and Terre Haute. At each place no effort was spared or labor wanting to make the meetings pleasant for everyone, and now, after all these years, we have come back to hold our twenty-first session in the capital of our State. I congratulate you upon the large attendance of the Comrades, and also upon the excellent arrangements made by the Citizens' Executive Committee for our sessions and for the entertainment of all. It is a fitting tribute to the memory and services of those who, years ago, shared the privations and hardships of a soldier's life, that the capital of our grand Commonwealth should open wide her gates and bid us welcome. When the session was held here nine years ago, as a Department we had reached the high tide of our membership; since that time, year by year, our ranks have been decimated. The largest loss comes from suspensions. Many of our Comrades, either through indifference, or negligence, or the infirmities of age, allow themselves to get in arrears with their dues, and the result is they are suspended. I would like to see some plan presented that would enable the Posts to reclaim these Comrades; it would greatly increase the membership, and add interest and strength to our organization.

It must be apparent to every Comrade that as the years come and go, the effort to keep up the interest in the order must be greater. The death-rate has been larger last year than ever before. This has taken many from our rolls.

MEMBERSHIP.

During the last year three Posts have been reorganized and added to the roll. By the untiring work of your Department Officers, assisted by the Comrades, a number of Posts have been induced to pay up arrearages, keep alive their organization, and thus prevent the surrender of their charter. A detailed report of this branch of the Department work will be made by the Assistant Adjutant-General.

Throughout the Department the best of feeling prevails, and, taking everything into consideration, I believe we can congratulate ourselves upon the good comradeship that exists. As I have gone from Post to Post, and to reunions in many portions of the State, I am convinced that if Post Quartermasters would be more prompt in the collection of dues, thus preventing the Comrades from getting delinquent, it would materially add to the membership. I am also satisfied that greater interest would be taken by the Comrades if the members would inaugurate a system of visitations. It would certainly result in greater activity, and be productive of much good. I therefore recommend that Post Commanders make an effort, during the coming summer, to have their membership visit other Posts, attend reunions, and cultivate the spirit of fraternity that will cement and bind together the ties of Comradeship.

MEMORIAL DAY.

No day in the three hundred and sixty-five is more sacred to the Grand Army of the Republic than the 30th day of May. It is recognized by all patriotic, liberty-loving people as the day when we gather to do honor to the memory of those who "on land and on sea" upheld the destinies of our Nation, and who, as they sleep in their "windowless palaces of rest," by their silence remind us of the sacrifice they made to maintain and preserve a government untarnished by treason.

It is a day sacred to the membership of this order, because we stand by the graves of those who "stood by us in the hour of danger." I hope the time will soon come when all sports, games and races of every character will be laid aside, and all join in the beautiful custom of planting flags and strewing flowers upon the graves of our heroes.

Public sentiment has done much toward the accomplishment of this sacred duty. The Grand Army has been loyally supported in this work by the Woman's Relief Corps, other kindred organizations, and the loyal women of our land, as well as by the children of our public schools. In their hands, and in the hands of those who have in recent years taken up arms in defense of the flag and humanity, we are ever willing to leave this sacred trust.

OUR DEAD.

During the past year many of our Comrades who met with us one year ago have answered to the last "roll-call." The reaper, Death, has thrust in his sickle and taken from among us those whose counsel and advice we sought, and whose comradeship we learned to love and admire. Age and the infirmities of life are fast creeping upon those who still linger here, and ere long the last veteran of the Civil War will have passed to the great beyond. This Department, with her sister Departments, mourns the loss of our loved Comrade. Commander-in-Chief James A. Sexton, whose noble character and soldierly qualities had endeared him to every Comrade. Our own Department has lost one of her bravest and most illustrious sons, Major-General Henry W. Lawton, who had achieved such renowned success in the Philippine Islands. As we mourn his death, let us learn to imitate and cherish his many noble qualities of head and heart. He sleeps in that silent City of the Dead, but his memory will long live in the hearts of his Comrades.

WOMAN'S RELIEF CORPS.

This noble band of loyal and patriotic women is deserving of our highest praise for the grand work they are doing for the relief of worthy and distressed Comrades and their families. Long the recognized auxiliary of the Grand Army of the Republic, they have been the support and strong right arm of many of the weaker Posts, who, but for their loyal support, would have surrendered their charters. It is true that many of the Posts have no organization of this kind, yet my year's work and experience leads me to the conclusion that every Post would be benefited, strengthened and encouraged if there was connected with it a good, loyal and patriotic Corps.

To the Department President I am indebted for the following statistics:

Number of Corps in the Department.....	188
Number of members.....	6,767
Amount of cash expended for relief.....	$2,099.01
Other than money, value.....	3,138.13
Amount of contributions—
To the Christmas Fund.....	181.00
To the Andersonville Prison Fund.....	59.77
To National Council of Women Fund.....	23.00

This does not include the thousands of visits made to the sick and distressed, or the kind words of comfort or consolation spoken.

There are other organizations whose objects are similar, and I trust the day is not far distant when they will be united, working in harmony for the bettering of the conditions of the needy veteran, his widow, and their orphans. There is ample work for all, and as time advances the opportunity broadens. I acknowledge the indebtedness of the Department to Mrs. Maria L. Schlater, Department President of the Woman's Relief Corps, for her efficient co-operation in the work of these kindred organizations.

SONS OF VETERANS.

As the veteran retires from the active duties of life, he is content that the affairs of State and Nation may be entrusted to the members of this organization. Many of them in the past years have demonstrated that the training they received from soldier fathers has not been lost sight of. They are the natural successors to the duties and obligations of the Grand Army of the Republic. Memorial Day, with all of its memories, patriotic teaching in the public schools, and governmental affairs, are some of the legacies that will fall to this organization of noble and patriotic young men. To them and their auxiliary, the Ladies' Aid Society, the Woman's Relief Corps, and all liberty-loving American citizens, this order confidently leaves these duties and responsibilities, with the assurance that the high standard of civilization will not be lowered, nor the glory of their victories tarnished.

SCHOOL HISTORIES.

This all-important question has not only received the attention of this Department in past years, but that of the National Encampment as well. Step by step, and year by year, our excellent committee, under the leadership of its faithful chairman, has advanced, until much has been accomplished. I do not deem it necessary that I should enter into a lengthy discussion of this matter, because you will have a full report from the committee, of which Past Department Commander A. O. Marsh is Chairman, who has so zealously guarded every interest for the proper education of the children of our schools in regard to the history of the Civil War.

MILITARY INSTRUCTION AND PATRIOTIC EXERCISES IN PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

This subject has received much attention in the past, and many valuable suggestions and recommendations were made by the chairman of that committee for the past two years. After a careful consideration of the question, I decided to continue Comrade David W. Thomas as Chairman, and authorized him to select his associates, believing that, as he was identified with the public schools, he would be better prepared to select those whose views were in harmony with this patriotic work.

I invite your attention to his report, and ask that your influence and help be extended in the future, thus assuring, without doubt, that our schools will take up these questions and make them more prominent as an essential part of public education.

INDIANA SOLDIERS' AND SAILORS' ORPHANS' HOME.

This Home, located at Knightstown, Ind., is well known throughout the State, and especially to the Grand Army of the Republic and all organizations similar in character and purpose. Under the efficient management of Professor A. H. Graham and his able corps of assistants, this institution has advanced until it is the pride of every veteran of this Department.

Throughout the year it has carried an enrollment equal to its capacity, varying but little from 635. At the close of the last fiscal year, October 31, 1899, there were on the rolls 639—373 boys and 266 girls.

The most perfect harmony and hearty co-operation exists among all directly engaged in the work of caring for and educating these wards of the State; a government that is "with the consent of the governed" prevails in all its departments. It is like an immense home, in which all the members contribute to the comfort, happiness and prosperity of all. It is a source of gratification, especially, to know that the educational advantages afforded are of the best. The schools are up to the best standard. In addition to the scholastic training, the various industries are taught in a thorough manner.

The idea of being self-supporting is kept constantly before the children, and efficiency in all the child does is therefore required. There can be no object of greater importance or worthier of the best efforts of the Grand Army of the Republic and Woman's Relief Corps than the promotion of the interests of this great Home and school for the children of our Comrades. Let us see to it that its work shall not be crippled for want of support. I invite your attention to the report of Comrade Benjamin Starr, Chairman of the Visiting Committee of the Grand Army of the Republic, who will make a more detailed report.

PENSIONS.

This important subject is one that interests every Comrade of the Department, whether he is a pensioner or not; perhaps no other question has received so much consideration or been more widely discussed. It has been brought prominently before every National and Department Encampment for years. After the Thirty-second National Encampment, Commander-in-Chief James A. Sexton appointed a committee to make a thorough investigation of the methods in the Pension Department and report to the Thirty-third National Encampment. After a careful consideration of the methods of the Pension Bureau, and of the many rulings and constructions placed upon the laws on that subject by the Secretary of the Interior, this committee made its report, and recommended the adoption of the following resolutions:

"Philadelphia, Pa., September 6, 1899.

"Commander-in-Chief and Comrades—Your Committee on Pensions respectfully presents this supplemental report, pursuant to the instructions of the Encampment:

"We respectfully direct attention to Section 471 of the Revised Statutes of the United States, which reads as follows: 'The Commissioner of Pensions shall perform, under the direction of the Secretary of the Interior, such duties in the execution of the various pension and bounty-land laws as may be prescribed by the President.'

"Resolved, This Encampment respectfully represents to the President of the United States its earnest conviction that Rule No. 225, now in practical effect, in the adjudication of claims for pensions, under Section 2 of the Act of June 27, 1890, in the Pension Bureau, works grave injustice to worthy ex-soldiers and sailors, and we express the hope that you may find it consistent with your duties, as an administrative officer, to abrogate this rule and re-establish the principle as defined in Rule No. 164. Under the operation of Rule No. 164, formulated and put into effect soon after the passage of this act, unquestionably responsive to public sentiment, and based upon sound legal propositions—in a word, the simple expression of the letter and spirit of the law—four hundred thousand names were added to the pension rolls of the Republic, and to which no objection was heard for years after its promulgation.

"Resolved, This Encampment respectfully represents that the practice in the Pension Bureau in barring widow claimants who have an income of $96 a year, from a pension, is not warranted by the terms of the law, and we warmly endorse the recommendation of the Commissioners of Pensions to successive Secretaries of the Interior that the limitation be increased to $250 per year.

"Resolved, That the Commander-in-Chief appoint a committee of five Comrades to present to the President a certified copy of the action of this National Encampment, with an expression of our earnest desire for justice only to our disabled Comrades and the widows and orphans of our dead, under the letter and spirit of the law.

"Resolved, That this committee is hereby authorized and directed, in the event that it is determined that relief may not be afforded by the administrative officers of the Government, to present to the Congress a request for the amendment of the law in such form as will make certain the true intent of the statute, as we now believe it should be construed as herein represented."

The report of the committee and resolutions were unanimously adopted.

In this connection, I desire to call your attention to the effort now being made to discontinue the Board of Review, made up from the heads of the Departments, in the Pension Office, and to establish a new board, or Court of Appeals, to which all pensioners can appeal their cases from the decision of the Commissioner. This measure, if adopted, would insure the veterans a speedy disposition of their claims by an unbiased court.

The effort of the National Committee to have that unjust ruling that has been in existence for years, barring widows from a pension whose yearly income was $96 or more, set aside, and the limit increased to $250, should, in my judgment, command our most careful consideration and earnest support.

There are other practices in existence that should receive an expression from this Encampment. One is the discrimination in favor of the widows of officers. For one, I am in favor of and want to go on record as asking that the widows of private soldiers be given the same rating that is given to the widows of commissioned officers, and that they receive the same treatment from a magnanimous Government.

The practice of granting private pensions should also receive your attention. The records show that many private pension bills are introduced in both branches of Congress at every session, and many of them are passed to the exclusion of worthy veterans, who are patiently waiting for a ruling upon claims of long standing. Comrades, this, in my judgment, is fraught with evil, and should not exist. With these brief suggestions, I leave this subject for your mature deliberation.

RECOMMENDATIONS.

I desire to call your attention to the report that will be presented by the Assistant Quartermaster-General in regard to the assets. You will observe that this Department is now the owner of two (2) vacant lots, situated in the city of Indianapolis, and has been since June 23, 1896. They came into the possession of the Department by reason of the death of the owner, who had mortgaged them to secure a loan of $2,000. They are non-productive, and I would recommend that the Council of Administration take such steps as in their judgment will speedily convert them into cash, so that the money may be invested and some revenue derived therefrom. And in this connection I desire to say that, so far as the finances of the Department are concerned, they are not second to any one in the National Encampment. Our expenditures are carefully guarded, and we are keeping within the revenues of the Department. You are to be congratulated on this good showing.

STATE SOLDIERS' HOME.

Some weeks ago, in company with members of my staff, I paid a visit to this institution. I found everything in good condition.

The affairs of the Home are carefully managed, and everything is done for the care, comfort and happiness of the members. The Home is crowded, and many applications are on file awaiting opportunities for admission. The trustees are greatly in need of funds with which properly to equip the Home. Colonel Stormont, the new Commandant, is now in charge, and every member seems well pleased with him. I do not think I can give you a better idea of the Home, its condition and needs, than to quote from a letter received from General J. R. Carnahan, President of the Board of Trustees, in which he says:

“First—We need to double the present capacity of our General Hospital. By reason of the growing infirmities of our old Comrades, we have been compelled to take the women out of the female ward of the General Hospital and use it for men alone, and we are now overcrowded in the hospital with broken-down, sick and decrepit men. We have been compelled to make a hospital out of the widows’ home, and that is now filled with old women, ranging from sixty to ninety, that require constant medical attendance; and beside this we are compelled to attend to many of the sick in the cottages, by reason of the fact that we have not sufficient hospital accommodation.

“Second—Our cottages are crowded full now, and we need more cottages; and I therefore wish that you would urge upon the members of the Encampment earnest work with their County Commissioners in counties where they have not yet built cottages.

“Third—We need an additional building built by the State for widows.

“Fourth—We need an appropriation by the State for improving the grounds at the Home. Other institutions of the State have been given this, but nothing has been given to the Soldiers’ Home by the State for the improvement of its own property.

“Fifth—We now have, in round numbers, 700 members of the Soldiers’ Home, and the work that has formerly been attended to by one man as the Adjutant and Quartermaster has become so great that the time has come when these two offices should be separated and placed under the charge of two competent men, instead of one, as under the law when first passed.

“Sixth—We need some additional cottages for employes of the Home, as our old Comrades in the Home are now becoming too old to do constant work, such as that of firemen, engineers, etc., that requires day and night work, and we must have a place where we can put young men and let the old soldiers rest. The Board has recently established a trained nurse system in the Home, the better to insure the care and comfort to the Comrades and their wives and widows that have been gathered into the Home.

"We are furnishing to the Comrades at the Home a better quality of fare at the table than in any other Home in the country—good food, plenty of it, well cooked, and at regular hours. The Board has recently appointed Comrade H. H. Woods as an assistant to the Adjutant, and he has charge of the food, its inspection, and a general oversight and control over the commissary, the kitchens and dining-rooms, and sees to it that everything is of the best quality."

It is plain to me, Comrades, that if we expect to care for the many veterans, their wives and the widows of soldiers, who are daily seeking admission to this excellent Home, a united effort must be put forth to secure a sufficient number of cottages to accommodate the demands.

The General Assembly should be waited upon at its next session, and such appropriations secured as will meet the requirements of the Board of Trustees. It would be a shame and disgrace to the State of Indiana, with all her wealth and influence, to let our worthy veterans, who are unable to longer care for themselves, be compelled to go to the "poor-houses." I hope that every member of this Encampment, when he returns home, will take up this matter individually and through the Post organizations, and work unceasingly until the Home is provided with all buildings necessary to accommodate every veteran who seeks admission.

NATIONAL ENCAMPMENT.

The National Encampment held at Philadelphia, Pa., was largely attended by the Comrades of this Department. The annual parade was one of the features of the Encampment. The Comrades of this Department, led by the Indiana Soldiers' and Sailors' Orphans' Home Band, deserve credit for their excellent soldierly appearance and bearing. No other Department made any better showing. I want to avail myself of this opportunity to thank each and every one who attended the Encampment, and for the interest shown in the work of the order.

INDIANA IN THE SPANISH-AMERICAN WAR.

During the Spanish-American War, Indiana bore an important part, having furnished seven thousand three hundred troops, consisting of five regiments of infantry, two batteries of artillery, two companies of colored troops, and many recruits in the regular army. Of these organizations, none left the States, except the 160th Indiana Infantry, which did patrol service in Havana, Cuba, being the first troops to land there (December, 1898), and were returned to the States in May, 1899. Also the 27th Battery (Indiana) did service in Porto Rico in August, 1898, but the sudden ending of the war made their return to the State necessary, and they, with all the remaining troops, were discharged from the service of the Government, and returned to their homes, full of honor.

But the insurrection of the natives of the Philippines, arising in February, 1899, made it necessary to raise regular and volunteer troops to subdue that revolt, and many who had done service in Cuba and Porto Rico, with hundreds of others who were filled with patriotism, enlisted to do duty and uphold the flag in those distant islands.

All of the volunteers are intelligent, brave and loyal, making the best of soldiers, having inherited the martial spirit of their sires. The teaching of their fathers and the spirit of liberty makes them worthy sons.

One of the most illustrious of these sons of our State was Major-General Henry W. Lawton, who lost his life in action on December 19, 1899, near Manilla. He first served in the Civil War as a private in the 9th Indiana, in the three months' service. After that he served in Company A, 30th Indiana, going out with that regiment September, 1861, as First Lieutenant, was promoted to Captain in 1862, and to Colonel in 1865, and was mustered out of the service in 1866. After a few years of private life, he re-entered the army as a Lieutenant, and for more than thirty years worked his way upward until the end.

He was a member of Sion S. Bass Post No. 40, at Fort Wayne, Indiana, a worthy Comrade, a noble man, an ideal soldier, and the Nation's hero. He fell a victim of the teachings of our unworthy citizens to the misguided Filipinos.

Let us, as the Comrades of that great struggle of the Civil War, rejoice in the courage of our sons, in the unity of all our people, and in the principles of our Government, and feel that the teachings of our noble order are now bearing fruit that will never perish.

NANCY HANKS MEMORIAL ASSOCIATION.

During the summer of 1897, Governor Mount received from President McKinley, a letter addressed to the latter by some tourist, stating that the grave of Nancy Hanks Lincoln, at Lincoln City, in Spencer county, was neglected, and that if something was not done to permanently mark the spot, it would soon be lost sight of. Thereupon the Governor called a conference of the officers of the Veteran Organizations, and as the result, an organization was made under the laws of the State, incorporating the Nancy Hanks Memorial Association. Of this organization the Governor ex-officio is president, and the Department Commander is a member of the directors. Small subscriptions were received, but the Spanish war coming on, no further action was taken at that time. Early this year, the Culver Construction Company, which is rebuilding the Lincoln Monument at Springfield, Illinois, wrote Governor Mount offering to build a monument. This caused the matter to be taken up afresh. A few days ago, Governor Mount, your Commander, and members of the Association, visited Lincoln City, saw the County Commissioners, agreed with them for the purchase of the beautiful site. Since that time, subscriptions aggregating about $1,200, have been received, which insures the construction of a suitable monument over the grave of Abraham Lincoln's mother, and emphasizing the fact that a dozen years of that great man's life was spent in Southern Indiana. Monuments are silent but pretended teachers of that which is greatest and best. That this organization may participate in the noble work of constructing and caring for the Nancy Hanks Lincoln Monument, I urge that the Department Commander, and the Assistant Adjutant-General, be instructed by this body to represent the Grand Army of the Republic, year after year, in the deliberations of the Association.

In conclusion, Comrades, I desire to thank each and all of you for the kind and courteous treatment you have extended to me during the past year. The success of this year is due to the interest which you have shown in the noble principles of our order. The year's work has been one of pleasure to me, although illness has prevented me from being present at many reunions and camp fires that I very much wished to attend. To the Comrades who made sacrifice to themselves and their interests to serve upon my staff during the past year, I return my thanks, and bespeak for them a kind remembrance in the memory of the Comrades of the Department.

The Department Commander, by reason of the fact that his work is mostly in the field, is compelled to depend largely on the assistance of the Assistant Adjutant-General and Assistant Quartermaster-General for the execution of the routine work of the office. I am under many obligations to Comrade R. M. Smock for his able and efficient manner in conducting the work of the office, and the success of the last year is largely due to his knowledge of the work to be done and the careful manner in handling the finances of the Department.

The lapse of time has fully demonstrated the wisdom of the last Encampment in the consolidation of the offices of Assistant Adjutant-General and the Assistant Quartermaster-General, as evidenced by the report that will be submitted to this Encampment, and that no mistake was made in so doing.

To my chief of staff and chief mustering officer, and in fact to my entire official family, is due much of the credit for whatever I have been able to accomplish as your Department Commander. To them, and to you, Comrades, one and all, I feel duly grateful, and shall ever cherish the memory of this year's work and associations as one of the most pleasurable and profitable of my life.

Respectfully submitted in F., C. and L.,

W. L. DUNLAP,
Department Commander.

When the Department Commander had completed the reading of his address, the Senior Vice-Department Commander Rankin referred it to the following comrades as a committee:

James R. Carnahan, Post 369, Indianapolis; J. W. Headington, Post 154, Portland; T. E. Howard, Post 8, South Bend; J. H. Jordan, Post 77, Martinsville; A. B. Crampton, Post 31, Delphi.

At this point of the proceedings, Past Commander-in-Chief I. N. Walker, Post 17, moved that the reports of all the elective and appointive officers be printed without reading. The motion was seconded and unanimously adopted.

SENIOR VICE-DEPARTMENT COMMANDER'S REPORT.

TERRE HAUTE, IND., May 14, 1900.

William L. Dunlap, Department Commander, and Comrades:

I have the honor to submit my report for the past year as Senior Vice-Department Commander. Having been chosen by my Comrades at Terre Haute and unanimously elected by the Department as your Senior Vice, I want to thank you for the honor conferred, and would say that I have tried to perform the duties of the office as best I could. I attended the National Encampment at Philadelphia, and Indiana's showing in numbers was creditable, and for soldierly bearing stood at the head of the list. I made special effort to make the Twentieth Annual Encampment a success, both in numbers of attendance and providing and caring for the Comrades, that they would remember with pleasure their visit to Terre Haute. I attended a number of reunions and urged the upbuilding of our organization.

On last Fourth of July the several Posts of our county, with the sacred Relief Corps, joined in having a basket picnic, with a general invitation to all old soldiers and the public generally to join us. A number of good speakers, with music and singing the old war songs, constituted the program. We had a very large attendance, in spite of the other attractions on that day.

I would recommend the same to the Comrades in the other counties, as all old soldiers will attend, and it will help to bring them into the G. A. R., as I believe every old soldier ought to join the Grand Army of the Republic, not alone for its social comradeship, but to keep it a power for good in the country in the future, as it has in the past, in the teaching of loyalty and good government, not alone to our own people, but to the thousands that yearly come here to make this their home—that the old flag is the emblem of law and order, and not anarchy.

Respectfully submitted in F., C. and L.,

M. C. RANKIN,

Senior Vice-Commander.

JUNIOR VICE-DEPARTMENT COMMANDER'S REPORT.

KOKOMO, IND., May 14, 1900.

W. L. Dunlap, Department Commander:

The official duties of the Junior Vice-Commander imposed by the regulations are few, and his position does not call for extensive labors.

My relations with the officers and Comrades of this department during the past year have been very pleasant. I have installed the officers of several Posts, and have visited a number of other Posts, and have at all times been courteously received by my Comrades.

I have devoted much time in endeavoring to induce suspended and dropped members to again connect themselves with Posts, and am glad to announce considerable success. This requires individual effort, and if all would so interest themselves, our order would soon resume its large membership. I find also a large number of worthy Comrades who have never united with the G. A. R. This seems out of place, as all should fraternize with us. Personal solicitation will accomplish much in securing their membership, for the Post is our natural home and club, and sociability there our great satisfaction.

I recommend songs and speeches, socials and joint meeting with the Woman's Relief Corps and the Sons of Veterans, as attractions to awaken interest and induce general attendance.

I am convinced that Post inspections should be held by others than members of the same Post to obtain the best results.

I was unfortunate in being sick, which prevented my attendance at the last National Encampment.

We are glad to live to see our country united under our starry flag, North and South, and to see Old Glory floating in triumph and honor, not only on this continent, but in the West Indies and the islands of the far Pacific; and our prestige and the esteem of all nations is fitting and grand as the lives of the soldiers of 1861 are fast drawing to a close.

But our mission is not yet fulfilled. Let the flag float over every schoolhouse, be treasured in every household, and the memory of our Comrades and the cause for which we fought be held sacred by this and all succeeding generations, until time shall be no more and we meet in a happy reunion on the other side of the Dark River.

Respectfully submitted in F., C. and L.,

SOL. A. PENNINGTON,

Junior Vice-Department Commander.

MEDICAL DIRECTOR'S REPORT.

In compliance with the instructions of the Twentieth Annual Encampment, I submit the roll-call of the delegates at the National Encampment. The following Comrades were present at every session:

William L. Dunlap,	Charles H. Smith,
M. C. Rankin,	Smiley N. Chambers,
R. M. Smock,	Levi L. Gilpin,
Ivan N. Walker,	David A. Coulter,
Henry M. Caylor,	Henry A. Root,
James S. Dodge,	George Musson,
George Brown,	Frank S. Carlton,
Uriah Coulson,	Zachariah Jones,

Joel R. Spahr,
Daniel W. Wilson,
Hanson D. Moore,
Giles D. Walker,
Henry C. Gemmill,

Asbury S. McCormick,
William E. McLean,
Charles C. Schreeder,
James Kenroy.

William W. Dudley, Past Department Commander, was present at all of the sessions except one.

The following delegates were absent, to-wit: William C. Lawrence, Henry H. Woods, Josiah Stanley and William J. Hillgoss. Their places were filled by the regularly elected alternates, as follows: William E. McLean, Charles C. Schreeder, James Kenroy and Henry C. Gemmill.

Only four of the Past Department Commanders were present.

The last Department Encampment passed resolutions in regard to our Comrade, Major-General Henry W. Lawton, who was then at Manila, Philippine Islands. I had the resolutions engrossed, and on the 23d day of June, 1899, transmitted the same to him, with the following letter:

"Indianapolis, Ind., June 23, 1899.

"Major-General Henry W. Lawton, United States Army, Manila, Philippine Islands:

"My Dear General—I have the honor to transmit, under separate cover, engrossed copy of resolutions passed by the Department Encampment, Grand Army of the Republic, at Terre Haute, May last, which I beg that you will accept as an expression of the love, esteem and admiration of the Comrades of this Department.

"I trust that your campaign may be successful in every respect, your army victorious, and that ere long you may be permitted to return to your native State and meet with your Comrades in their annual gatherings.

"Kindly acknowledge receipt, and ever believe me,

"Your friend and Comrade in F., C. and L.,

"R. M. SMOCK,

"Assistant Adjutant-General."

Afterwards I received the following reply:

"Headquarters First Division Eighth Army Corps,

"Manila, Philippine Islands, August 8, 1899.

"R. M. Smock, Assistant Adjutant-General, Department of Indiana, G. A. R.:

"My Dear Sir and Comrade—I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your favor of the 23d of June, together with a copy of a resolution passed by the Department Encampment, Grand Army of the Republic, at Terre Haute, in May last. It is impossible for me to express to you my deep appreciation of this great honor. Coming, as it has, without any previous intimation that anything of the kind had occurred or was contemplated, it was a complete surprise, and I was greatly overcome by it.

"Although I have been a soldier for thirty-eight years, thirty-three of which having been spent in the regular service, my apprenticeship, and the formulation of my military education, the experience which taught me the rules and axioms of war, the principles which I have applied in all my successful experience since, were acquired in the four years' service with the volunteers in the Civil War.

"It is to them we owe the safety of our institutions; it is the volunteer who has responded faithfully, promptly and effectively to all calls when liberty has been threatened; no better men, no braver soldiers, have ever marched under the flag of any Nation than those who gathered at the call of President Lincoln, to maintain the integrity of our Union.

"Of all the honors that have been conferred upon me, of all that has been said, and all that has come to me through my professional work, nothing is so flattering, so gratifying, or that I so highly appreciate, as this assurance of the confidence of my friends and Comrades.

"I sincerely thank you, and through you the Comrades of Indiana, for this mark of their esteem and consideration, and I desire to assure them that, if it were possible for me to further exert myself to earn or maintain their good opinion, the knowledge of this confidence and appreciation on their part would urge me to the effort.

"Sincerely and fraternally yours,

"H. W. LAWTON,

"Major-General U. S. Volunteers."

The work of the Department has been conducted upon business principles, and with a view for the best interests of the entire order. All reports due from the Department to National Headquarters have been promptly made, and at no time have our reports been rejected, much less criticised, but upon the other hand, they have been complimented for their accuracy. As evidence of the estimation in which the Department is held by the National organization, I take the liberty of quoting from a letter of Thomas J. Stewart, Adjutant-General of the Grand Army of the Republic, in which he says:

"In acknowledging the receipt at this office of the reports of the Assistant Adjutant-General and Assistant Quartermaster-General of the Department of Indiana, I take great pleasure in commending the completeness of the reports, and the promptness with which they were forwarded. The reports are very complete, and evidence a careful and painstaking administration of affairs in the Department of Indiana."

During the year quite a number of Posts have had the misfortune to lose their Post property and charters by fire, and, wherever application was made, duplicate charters were furnished free of expense.

You will observe that the loss of the Department by Posts disbanding has been quite large. In a measure, that is due to the fact that the membership was small and widely scattered, frequently not a sufficient number meeting to make a quorum. I believe, from my experience in the Department work, that it would add strength to the Posts and numbers to the organization if many of them were consolidated, and it would materially lessen the expenses. I therefore recommend that, where it is practicable to do so, the smaller Posts effect a consolidation, as provided in the Rules and Regulations. If this cannot be done to advantage, I would then suggest that Post meetings be held in the day time, in order that the old veterans may attend.

During the year ending April 30, 1900, I have issued nine General Orders and forty-two dispensations for special musters. All correspondence has been given prompt attention. In addition to my regular duties, I have done from forty to fifty dollars' worth of work as notary in pension matters for the Comrades and the widows of Comrades, for which no charge was made. I have also had the Proceedings of the National and Department Encampments bound, four years in each volume, and placed one in the State Library and retained the other.

To you, Commander, I take this opportunity to publicly express my appreciation of you as a man and Comrade, possessed of those noble traits of character that make the typical volunteer soldier, and with a heart full of love and affection for the comradeship, our relations could not be other than pleasant. I have done the best I knew to help and assist you in your work, going with and for you whenever it was thought best for the good of the order, and as we close our official relations, I only ask what I believe I shall receive—your approval of my efforts.

To all Department Officers and the Comradeship of this grand Department, I acknowledge my indebtedness for your uniform kindness and courtesy, and I invoke for all heaven's brightest smiles.

Respectfully submitted in F., C. and L.,

R. M. SMOCK,
Assistant Adjutant General.

Total		$6,395 31

I heartily concur in the recommendation of the Department Commander that steps be taken at once to dispose of lots 1 and 2, above described, as each year's taxes adds to the amount invested.

The last Department Encampment authorized the Department Commander to expend the sum of three hundred dollars in visiting the Posts and attending reunions. It is gratifying to be able to report that only $112.40 of this amount was used.

In conclusion, I beg to say that the affairs of the Department have been judiciously administered, and every effort made to collect in per capita tax, and to reduce the expense, consistent with good business judgment and the standing of the Department. How well I have succeeded I leave for the Department to judge.

Again expressing my high appreciation of your kindness and forbearance during the past year, I am

Fraternally yours,

R. M. SMOCK,
Assistant Quartermaster-General.

REPORT OF THE AUDITING COMMITTEE.

INDIANAPOLIS, IND., May 16, 1900.

To the Department Commander and Comrades:

Your committee appointed to audit the books of the Assistant Adjutant-General and the Assistant Quartermaster-General report that we have carefully examined the books, receipts and disbursements, and find they are kept in a painstaking and business manner. We have also verified the amount of money in bank and on hand.

Your committee also find that the amount of cash on hand April 30, 1900, is $1,827.68, and also find that the receipts for the year were $268.70 less than the receipts for the previous year. It was very evident to the Department Commauder and the Executive Officers the necessity of curtailing expenses as much as possible, and while there have been some extra expenses this year over last year, such as the increased cost of the Department to the Philadelphia Encampment over that to Cincinnati, and also for filing-cases in the office of the Assistant Adjutant-General, which latter are permanent improvements, yet, including these extra expenses, we find that the gross expenses of the Department for the year just closed have been $110.59 less than the previous year, showing that rigid economy has been practiced.

In view of the fact that our membership must by the very nature of things decrease more rapidly each year, it is especially gratifying to know that our expenses, by rigid economy, are being reduced in proportion to our decreasing receipts, and we therefore commend the wisdom of the Department in consolidating the duties of the Assistant Adjutant-General and the Assistant Quartermaster-General, to be performed by one Comrade, and heartily recommend a continuance of this wise policy.

JUDGE ADVOCATE'S REPORT.

R. M. Smock, Assistant Adjutant-General, Department of Indiana, G. A. R.:

DEAR SIR AND COMRADE—I have the honor to submit herewith my report as Judge Advocate for the year ending April 30, 1900. I desire through you to return to the Department Commander my sincere thanks for the honor conferred in tendering me this appointment.

During the year I have been called upon to render few opinions, the condition of the Department being such that no controversies of a serious nature have arisen. The questions referred to me were those in regard to the construction of the Rules and Regulations where there seemed to be an honest difference of opinion. It is very gratifying to know that there is such unanimity of feeling among the Comrades of the Department. This speaks well for the manner in which the affairs of the Department are conducted.

I wish to acknowledge my indebtedness to Comrade R. M. Smock, the Assistant Adjutant-General, for courtesies shown. His experience and knowledge of the Laws, Rules and Regulations, together with his extended acquaintance, has been of inestimable value to me, he having answered many questions that have been submitted, thus relieving me of the work of preparing an opinion.

As has been recommended by my predecessors in this office, I believe that it would be a benefit to every Post if they would procure and keep on file in the Post room the latest edition of the "Blue Book" and Rules and Regulations. Any questions that might arise could then be quickly and easily disposed of in accordance with the Rules and Regulations of the order.

In closing my term as one of the Department Officers, I wish to return my grateful thanks to all the Comrades for their uniform kindness and courtesy during the past year.

Respectfully submitted in F., C. and L.,

J. M. STOREY,

Judge Advocate.

CHIEF MUSTERING OFFICER'S REPORT.

GREENSBURG, IND., May 14, 1900.

*R. M. Smock, Assistant Adjutant-General, Department of Indiana,
G. A. R.:*

DEAR SIR AND COMRADE—In obedience to General Order No. 9, I have the honor, through you to the Commander and Department Encampment, to make a brief report of my official duties during my term of office.

Upon the resignation of Comrade M. D. Tackett as Chief Mustering Officer, the Commander did me the honor to fill the unexpired term. My duties have been very light and of a most pleasing character.

I have not been called upon or assigned the very pleasant duty of mustering a single Post during my term of office, nor do I know of one to have been mustered in the State during the year that is so speedily drawing to a close.

I know of no reason, other than the material to make G. A. R. recruits grows less as the years go by. Soon there will be none to muster or to be mustered.

At our meetings each year we are reminded more forcibly of the fact, as we with sad hearts note the vacant chairs, the gray hairs, the slow steps and the stooped forms, that the time is near at hand when we will all have answered the last roll-call.

Aside from the writing of a few letters and visiting a few of the neighboring Posts, at which time I always took the opportunity to exhort all my Comrades to remain loyal to each other as they had been to their country in the dark days from 1861 to 1865.

In concluding this report I wish to thank the Department Commander, the Assistant Adjutant-General and all the Comrades for the courtesies shown me during my term of office.

All of which I respectfully submit in F., C. and L.

D. C. ELDER,
Chief Mustering Officer.

REPORT OF COUNCIL OF ADMINISTRATION.

The Council of Administration convened at Department Headquarters at the State House, in the city of Indianapolis, at 4 o'clock P. M., Tuesday, May 15th, in pursuance of the notice given in General Orders. Present: William L. Dunlap, Department Commander; Morton C. Rankin, Senior Vice-Department Commander; Sol. A. Pennington, Junior Vice-Department Commander; Charles M. Gravis, Medical Director; Charles W. Stewart, Chaplain; R. M. Smock, As-

Assistant Adjutant-General and Assistant Quartermaster-General; Charles M. Sailors, Department Inspector; J. M. Storey, Judge Advocate; Dyer C. Elder, Chief Mustering Officer, and Benjamin Starr, William E. Shilling, Henry A. Root, James D. Carmody, of the Council of Administration.

The committee appointed to audit the books of the Assistant Adjutant-General and the Assistant Quartermaster-General submitted their report, which is copied after the report of the Assistant Quartermaster-General.

On a motion of Comrade Elder, it was voted to continue the per capita tax the same as last year, namely, twenty cents per annum, payable ten cents with each semi-annual report, upon all members reported in good standing.

On motion of Comrade Starr, the Assistant Quartermaster-General was directed to procure the services of Comrade Z. A. Smith to report the proceedings of the Encampment, and to prepare the same for the printer, and to pay therefor the sum of forty dollars.

It was ordered that the bond of the Assistant Quartermaster-General remain the same as last year, $5,000, and on motion of Comrade Rankin, it was unanimously voted that the consolidation of the work of the Assistant Adjutant-General and the Assistant Quartermaster-General continue the same as heretofore, and that the compensation remain the same as it now is, $1,500 per annum, out of which he is to pay all necessary clerk hire, and that the salary of the Judge Advocate and the Department Inspector be fixed at the sum of ten dollars each, and that their expenses to the Department Encampment be paid by the Department.

On motion of Comrade Starr, a member of the Council of Administration, it was voted that the sum of $300, or such amount as may be necessary, be set apart for the use of the Department Commander for the ensuing year in visiting the Posts of the Department and reunions.

On motion of Comrade Rankin, the Senior Vice-Department Commander, the Assistant Quartermaster-General was ordered to pay the actual expenses of the Council of Administration in attendance upon this Encampment.

Comrade Root, a member of the Council of Administration, moved that the Assistant Quartermaster-General be authorized to dispose of saddles, bridles and blankets now owned by the Department, and such other property as was not a part of the assets, which was unanimously adopted.

Comrade Rankin, the Senior Vice-Department Commander, moved that the two lots now owned by the Department be sold, and on motion of Comrade Starr, a member of the Council of Administration, it was ordered that Comrades I. N. Walker, Irvin Robbins and William

A. Ketcham be appointed a special committee to dispose of said lots at private sale within thirty days, and if at the expiration of that time they are not sold, then, upon proper notice, they be offered for sale at public auction within sixty days, upon the following terms: One-fifth cash in hand, and the remainder in five equal installments, the deferred payments being secured by note and mortgage, with interest at the rate of 6 per cent. The motion was unanimously adopted.

On motion of Comrade Irvin Robbins the report was approved and adopted.

Several resolutions were read and referred to the Committee on Resolutions, all of which will be found under the head of that committee's report in subsequent pages.

The special order of the session was the fixing of the place for holding the next Encampment. Comrade Frank Swigart, Post 14, Logansport presented the invitation of the citizens of Logansport that the Encampment of 1901 be held in that city, where he promised a hearty welcome would await the Grand Army. He said that in Logansport would be found the best soldiers' monument in the State aside from the State monument. No other invitation being received, the Encampment unanimously accepted the invitation of Logansport.

The Encampment adjourned until 9 A. M. Thursday.

SECOND DAY'S SESSION.

The Encampment was called to order Thursday morning at 9 o'clock by the Department Commander. The Chaplain offered prayer. The regular business was the reports of committees.

INDIANA SOLDIERS' AND SAILORS' ORPHANS' HOME COMMITTEE.

Department Commander and Comrades:

Your Board of Visitors to the Indiana Soldiers' and Sailors' Orphans' Home, consisting of the following Comrades: William F. Stott, Franklin; Wesley D. Sebring, Portland; Benjamin Starr, Richmond; B. B. Campbell, Anderson; J. C. Gordon, Argos; Timothy E. Howard, South Bend; J. O. Pedigo, Lebanon; organized by appointing Benjamin Starr President and B. B. Campbell Secretary.

We visited the Home on the graduation day in June, and in the name and on behalf of this Department presented to each of the graduating class of twenty-six pupils a medal suitably inscribed. We have kept ourselves informed from time to time regarding the condition of the Home, and are pleased to report that the former order and good business judgment still continue with the management.

Your Board would respectfully call the attention of the Department to the great need of the Home for an increased supply of good water and some adequate means for storage of the same for culinary and bathing purposes. The only storage your committee finds is a wooden tank in the fourth story of the Administration Building, with a capacity of 300 barrels. The supply is not only insufficient, but the location of it is a menace to the building.

We would also report that the fence on the public highway in front of the Home grounds is simply out of keeping with the beautiful grounds and imposing buildings. It is an old board fence, beyond repair from age. The appropriation of $200 by the last Legislature for the purpose of repairing the fence could only be wasted by attempting to use it as repair, and was not drawn by the Board of Trustees for the purpose.

We would recommend the appointment by the incoming Department Commander of a committee of three Comrades, who will meet and confer with the committee appointed by the Governor to visit the institutions prior to the meeting of the Legislature, to urge upon that committee the recommendation of an appropriation for the erection of a stand-pipe of sufficient capacity to furnish an abundance of good water, and further, for the erection of an iron fence in front of the Home.

Prof. A. H. Graham, Superintendent, at our request, furnished

MORTON MONUMENT COMMITTEE'S REPORT.

INDIANAPOLIS, IND., May 16, 1900.

Department Commander and Comrades:

Your committee appointed to devise a plan for a monument to the memory of the late Oliver P. Morton, and to provide ways and means for raising the funds necessary to erect the same, beg leave to make the following report:

Your committee reports that no meeting has been held during the past year for the purpose of considering the matter of erecting such monument, for the reason that it was thought that it would be impossible to raise the money necessary to carry on the work at a time when the people were being asked for large contributions for like patriotic purposes, as a result of the gallant and heroic conduct of our soldiers and sailors in the late Spanish-American war, and which has entirely engrossed the public mind up to this time.

Your committee recommends that a like committee be appointed for the ensuing year, with instructions to carefully investigate the conditions, and if in its opinion the enterprise can be prosecuted successfully, to proceed at once with the work in accordance with the spirit of the original resolution of this Department.

Your committee refers to former reports for information as to cost, design and location therein set out.

W. S. HAGGARD, Chairman.

The foregoing report and recommendations were adopted.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON DEPARTMENT COMMANDER'S ADDRESS.

INDIANAPOLIS, May 17, 1900.

To the Twenty-first Encampment, Department of Indiana, G. A. R.:

We, your committee appointed to report upon the address of the Department Commander, beg to report:

We note with pleasure the continued success of the Department of Indiana, not in the increase of membership only, for that must soon grow less, owing to the increased age and the results that must come to the man who has given the best years of young manhood to the severe service in active warfare from 1861 to 1865. We most heartily commend the recommendation of the Department Commander for frequent visitations by Posts; we also believe that the Post Quartermaster can aid very materially in preserving and holding the membership, in the manner suggested by the Commander. We recommend that a page in memory of the dead be set aside on the records of the Assistant Adjutant-General.

INDIANA SOLDIERS' AND SAILORS' ORPHANS' HOME.

This institution speaks for itself and "blows its own horn," (?) and we endorse and approve every word and note. The Department of Indiana is proud of its ward, the I. S. and S. O. H., and of the children, the wards of the Home.

We congratulate the Commander on the settlement of the pension question in accordance with the recommendation of the G. A. R.

The whole question of the assets of this Department has been adjusted by the Council of Administration, and on this subject your committee finds it unnecessary to make any report.

The words of your Department Commander in commendation of the Woman's Relief Corps of the Department of Indiana merit the approval and endorsement of this Encampment. No nobler or more unobtrusive good work can be done than is quietly done day by day in every hamlet of the State by this patriotic band of loyal women. May God bless them is the prayer of every veteran.

As the history of all wars in which we have been engaged clearly demonstrates that the hope and defense of the country depends upon the citizen soldier, we recommend military instruction and drill in the public schools.

That part of the address of the Department Commander in relation to the Spanish-American war has peculiar interest to us at this time. One year ago, at Terre Haute, the State Encampment directed the congratulations of this Department to be sent to our heroic soldiers in the Philippines, and to that great leader, Henry W. Lawton, the pride of Indiana. To-day we mourn his untimely death, but his glory is a part of the history of the Nation, as it is of our own great State, which he honored and loved so well. In him Indiana has added another hero to American history.

NANCY HANKS MONUMENT.

In accordance with the recommendation of the Department Commander, we recommend that the Department Commander and the Assistant Adjutant-General be designated as the representatives of this Department in the association for the erection of the monument.

Be it Resolved, That this Encampment endorse and approve the actions and conduct of the Department Commander, W. L. Dunlap, commend his fairness and earnest efforts in the interest of the welfare of the G. A. R. of Indiana, and recommend that the Senior Vice-Commander appoint a committee of four to procure and present to him the usual badge of his office.

Respectfully submitted,

JAMES R. CARNAHAN.

The following committee was appointed by the Senior Vice-Department Commander to procure a testimonial for Department Commander: George Brown, Post 17; Joseph M. Storey, Post 127; James R. Carnahan, Post 369, and R. M. Smock, Assistant Quartermaster General, Post 17.

ON ELECTIVE OFFICERS' REPORTS.

INDIANAPOLIS, IND., May 16, 1900.

Department Commander and Comrades:

We, your committee to whom was referred the reports of the Senior and Junior Vice-Commander, Chaplain and Medical Director, beg leave to say that we have examined the same, and find them complete in every respect, and that they are worthy of adoption by this Encampment.

We take great pleasure in reporting that the report made by the Department Chaplain shows that the interest by the Grand Army, Woman's Relief Corps, Sons of Veterans and other patriotic organizations in Memorial Day has not abated, but that on each recurring Memorial greater interest is shown in doing honor to the memory of those who have passed away.

We commend the officers for their faithful and painstaking reports, and for the excellent service they have rendered to the Department.

M. D. TACKETT.

H. C. MCMAKEN.

Which report was adopted by the Encampment.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON ASSISTANT ADJUTANT-GENERAL AND ASSISTANT QUARTERMASTER-GENERAL'S REPORT.

INDIANAPOLIS, IND., May 16, 1900.

To the Department Commander:

Your committee to whom was referred the reports of the Assistant Adjutant-General and the Assistant Quartermaster-General desire to say that we have carefully investigated said reports, and also the report of the Auditing Committee, which has been adopted by this Encampment, and find them in all particulars to be correct and accurate.

So carefully has been the management of the funds of the Department that, while the receipts have been much less than those of the preceding year, the fund on hand at this time is larger than that of one year ago.

We recommend, in the light of the excellent reports of the Assistant Adjutant-General and the Assistant Quartermaster-General, together with that of the Auditing Committee, that the consolidation of the two offices be continued, as it is purely in the interest of economy.

H. B. SHIVELY.
PIERSON D. HARRIS.
J. P. BRADFIELD.
J. C. GOCHENOUR.
J. A. HATCH.

The report of the committee was unanimously adopted.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON STATE SOLDIERS' HOME.

W. L. Dunlap, Department Commander:

Your Committee on the Indiana State Soldiers' Home beg leave to submit to you, and through you to the Twenty-second Annual Encampment, Grand Army of the Republic, Department of Indiana, the following report:

We acknowledge our appreciation of the honor conferred in our selection as members of this committee.

We made our first and only official visit to the Home on April 4th, and met with the Board of Trustees. As Chairman of the committee, I had planned to have this meeting earlier in the year, but could not arrange when it would be convenient with the Board until above date.

This committee has no jurisdiction over the management of this Home. We felt that it would be important to meet with the Board of Trustees while in session, before taking any action to ascertain the needs of the Home. This meeting was a profitable one, and the committee has a better understanding of the general conditions of the Home.

If the Department of Indiana should see fit to continue a like committee, I would recommend that they have two meetings with the Board of Trustees during the year, in order to create a stronger influence and a lively interest in the welfare of the Home.

As a committee, we feel that we have accomplished very little during the year. When opportunity offered, I have availed myself of the privilege to attend camp-fires and district meetings to speak in the interest of the Home, and urged counties to make appropriations that have not already built cottages. Thirty-three counties are represented, each with a cottage.

In looking back over the work the last five years, we note with pride the wonderful progress. From the wooded hills have grown cottages and buildings; beautiful grounds, assuming a comfortable and home-like appearance. On inspection of the Home, we find that sanitary conditions have been carefully guarded. In the hospital the nursing and caring for the sick has been systematically and efficiently done. Deaths have in most cases been due to constitutional diseases.

The members of the Home all seem to be very grateful for what the loyal citizens of Indiana have done, and they are not unmindful of the true friendship they have found in the Grand Army of the Republic.

The Board of Trustees was fortunate in securing G. R. Stormont as Commandant for the Home.

Mrs. Ingersol, the Matron, who has been an officer since the Home was established, is a woman of rare executive ability, of keen sympathies, and commands with skill her forces in the Home.

The committee commend the valuable assistance rendered by all other officers in the Home.

The question of increasing the capacity of the Home is one that has given your committee very great concern. Under the existing statutes of the State, we have found it virtually impossible to secure county appropriations, as formerly contemplated in the creation of the Home. Many of the counties of the State, not represented with county cottages, have a proportionate representation at the Home, yet this fact has not enabled your committee to secure the construction of additional county buildings.

The plain truth is, the present crowded condition of the Home has become a serious problem, and, with more than one hundred applications of our Comrades now on file, many of whom should be cared for at once, makes necessary prompt action on the part of the Encampment, and the co-operation of every Grand Army Post and Comrade in this Department.

Your committee speaks advisedly in pleading for the best efforts and careful consideration by this Department as to ways and means to bring at an early day the necessary relief to our needy Comrades in securing additional buildings at the Home. The committee knows there is wisdom sufficient in this Department to meet this urgent need, and with that courage and fortitude that characterized the Indiana soldiery during the War of the Rebellion, it will be met promptly and to the credit of this Department and our Comrades throughout the State.

Your committee is not certain as to methods best calculated to achieve the desired result, but it is convinced that it is a clear case of "helping ourselves." We therefore respectfully recommend to this Encampment the appointment of a committee, to be composed of not less than one member from the several Grand Army districts of the State, which committee is to be known in the work of the Department as the "Grand Army Memorial Committee," whose duty it shall be to make suitable arrangements and take such steps as shall be necessary to organize a "State Soldiers' Home Memorial Association," the object and purpose of the Association being to raise funds for the erection of a "Grand Army Memorial Barracks" at the Lafayette Home.

Your committee, under the urgent necessity now existing for additional room at the Home, believes such an organization can be successfully instituted, and that with proper effort and energetic management upon the part of such committee, loyally supported by this Department and properly aided by the Grand Army Posts of the State and our comradeship generally, that from twenty to thirty thousand dollars can be raised as a Memorial Fund the ensuing fiscal year of this Department.

One of the plans to accomplish this result, and which has met with favor by your committee, is the issuing of suitable and attractive "Memorial Certificates" of membership to all persons desiring to become members of the society, at a fee of not less than one dollar. With this small fee, the committee confidently believes that more than twenty thousand Comrades and patriotic citizens of the State can be enlisted through the aid and assistance of our Grand Army Posts, to become members of the society by taking one of these certificates at the moderate fee suggested.

Your committee estimates that with this sum of money judiciously applied in the construction of such a barracks contemplated, accommodations can be made for from 200 to 300 Comrades, and the barracks maintained at less than one-half for heat, light and incidental expenses to the State as compared with the same amount of money invested in the cottage system.

Your committee would not confine the membership in this Memorial Association to the Grand Army of the Republic and honorably discharged ex-Union soldiers, but would include all patriotic citizens and friends of our comradeship eligible to membership in the Association.

With a membership of from fifteen to twenty thousand in an organization of the character suggested, your committee confidently believe the foundation will be laid for a memorial building at the Home which will in time become the pride of our surviving comradeship and every citizen of the State who becomes a member of the Association.

All of which your committee earnestly desires, and respectfully submits these suggestions for the consideration of the Department.

H. M. CAYLOR.

THOMAS B. WOOD.

WILLIAM J. HILLIGOSS.

Comrade William J. Hilligoss, Post 78, Muncie, offered the following resolutions to carry into effect the recommendation offered by the Committee on Indiana State Soldiers' Home, which were referred to the Committee on Resolutions:

Resolved, First, That the Department Commander is hereby authorized and empowered by this Encampment to appoint a standing committee of thirteen members and Comrades in good standing in the Department, one from each of the several Congressional districts of the State, said committee to be known and recognized in the Department as the "Grand Army Memorial Committee."

Second. It shall be the duty of the said Memorial Committee, and they are hereby authorized and empowered, to make such arrangements, at an early date, as in their wisdom may enable them to organize our Comrades and their friends into an association to be known as "The Indiana Memorial Association."

Third. It shall be the aim and sole purpose of the said association to procure funds for the construction of a building at the State Soldiers' Home, to be known as the "Indiana State Soldiers' Home Memorial Barracks." Said barracks to be used and occupied for the care of our worthy and needy Comrades who are helpless and dependent, and who are now deprived of the benefits of the Home because of the lack of room and suitable accommodations.

Fourth. The committee shall proceed with the organization of said association, upon plans best calculated in their judgment to insure success, and issue certificates of membership, which certificates shall be under the seal of the Department and signed by the Department Commander and duly attested by the Assistant Adjutant-General of the Department.

Fifth. That a membership fee of not less than $1 shall be collected for each certificate issued, and that all money collected shall be accepted and maintained by the Department as a memorial fund, and shall be used for no other purpose other than that provided in these resolutions.

Sixth. The Council of Administration is hereby authorized to appropriate a sufficient sum, not to exceed $500, from the moneys of the Department, to enable the committee in securing printed matter, certificates and such necessary supplies as may be needed to organize the said association: Provided, That no moneys shall be paid out of the Department fund except on properly executed vouchers and approved by the Commander.

Seventh. The Memorial Committee shall not receive any compensation for their services, excepting for actual traveling expenses in their several districts, which in no case shall be allowed to exceed 15 per cent. of the moneys received from membership fees, the same to be allowed and retained by such committeemen in their settlements with the Assistant Quartermaster-General.

Eighth. The Assistant Quartermaster-General shall keep an account of all said certificates issued, and keep a record of the receipts and expenditures and the names of all members of the association in suitable records, which are to be known as the "Memorial Records" of the Department.

Ninth. That this Department earnestly recommend prompt action on the part of the Memorial Committee in the organization of said association, and that we urge upon our comradeship and the Grand Army Posts throughout the State an active co-operation by securing certificates of membership in the "Grand Army Memorial Association," and urging their friends to do so, that the Department may be enabled to construct during the year 1900 the memorial barracks at the Lafayette Home for the accommodation of needy Comrades, as provided in these resolutions.

The Committee on Resolutions, to which the foregoing resolutions were referred, reported them back amended as follows:

Your committee recommend that the first part of said resolution be amended as follows: Strike out all after the word "Resolved" and insert the following: "First. That the Department Commander appoint a standing committee of six members, being Comrades in good standing, of which the Commander shall be ex-officio Chairman thereof, and said committee to be known and recognized in the Department as the Grand Army Memorial Committee." And when so amended, your committee recommend that the resolution do pass.

After discussion by Comrades Carnahan, Johnston, Barlow, McDonald and others, the resolutions, as amended by the committee, were adopted.

COMMITTEE ON SCHOOL HISTORIES.

William L. Dunlap, Department Commander, G. A. R.:

Your Committee on School Histories present as their report to the Twenty-first Annual Encampment the following:

For the reasons indicated in the report of this committee to the last Encampment, no change has been made in the history used in the public schools during your term. It is gratifying to be able to say that amendments already made as a result of the agitation begun by this Department leave very little to be criticised in the history in use. In view of this fact, it may well be doubted whether a continuance of this committee is necessary. The Committee on School Histories of the National Encampment recommended to that body, at its last session, the adoption of a plan for the purpose of securing patriotic teaching and observances by every available means in the public schools of the country. The plan proposed, and which was adopted by the National Encampment, is outlined in the following extract from the report of the committee:

"If stalwart patriotism is to become and to be a ruling passion, which may be relied upon as the future security of the Republic, it must be taught to the young into whose keeping the great interests of the Nation must soon pass. Recognizing these truths, your committee make the following recommendations: That each Department Commander be requested to select from each Post in his Department a Comrade as an aide on patriotic instruction; that he have one officer on his personal staff to be known as Chief Aide on Patriotic Instruction; that this officer report to the National Committee on School Histories and Patriotic Instruction the work as it progresses in his Department; that the aide selected from the several Posts be required to encourage the schools to devote some part of a day to the celebration of the birthdays of Lincoln and Washington; that he invite the public schools of his neighborhood to participate in Memorial Day exercises; that he confer with school authorities and endeavor through them to secure the use of the best obtainable histories in the schools and the exclusion of such as are unfit, and the use of flags in the school rooms and over the school buildings; that the Woman's Relief Corps and Sons of Veterans be requested to organize in a similar manner for the purpose of co-operating with the Grand Army of the Republic in securing the general adoption of a systematic plan for teaching patriotism in the public schools of the country. We present this plan of organization, believing that by exercising care in the selection of earnest, patriotic men as aides, widely distributed as the Posts of our organization, these aides being brought into personal contact with the schools and school officers of their several localities, can accomplish greater results along these lines than can be accomplished through any other agency."

We recommend that the incoming Department Commander organize this Department on the plan outlined in the foregoing extract, and that this committee be discontinued.

COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTIONS.

Past Department Commander Johnston, for the Committee on Resolutions, reported as follows:

The following resolution, presented by Senior Vice-Commander-in-Chief Irvin Robbins, was adopted:

Resolved, That our Senators and Representatives in Congress be requested to secure by appropriate legislation the authority of the Quartermaster-General of the United States to place a marble slab, suitably inscribed, at the grave of every honorably discharged soldier of the armies of the United States in any war, whenever satisfactory information is furnished that officer; said headstones to be similar to those furnished for graves of the soldiers of 1861-65.

The Committee recommended the passage of the following resolution :

WHEREAS, The future prosperity and harmony of this Department requires that justice and deliberation should characterize all our future action; therefore, be it

Resolved, That we recommend to the incoming Council of Administration that they so amend the rules and order of business as to require that all resolutions shall be read and referred to the Committee on Resolutions without debate on the first day of the Encampment, except when the same is offered by unanimous consent.

On the communication of Sol Meredith Post No. 55, urging the Encampment to ask the National Encampment to ask Congress to secure the passage of House Bill No. 2205, the Committee recommend that inasmuch as the nature of House Bill No. 2205 is not set forth, that the communication be referred back to the Post that it may prepare a resolution expressing their views, accompanied by a copy of the bill.

On the resolution proposing a committee of three to nominate a Council of Administration, the committee recommend that it lie on the table, for the reason that the rules adopted set forth the method of election.

The communication of Comrade R. E. Pattison, Post 30, of Kokomo, to the Adjutant-General of the National Encampment, asking Congress to urge the passage of a liberal service pension law, the committee recommend that it be referred back to the Comrade, that he may prepare such resolutions as he would have the Encampment consider.

On the petition of Comrade H. G. Lamkin, Post 82, of Aurora, that he, having been reinstated in his Post, be reinstated in the Department Encampment, the committee recommend reference to the incoming Judge-

Advocate with instructions to report the same and inform Comrade Lamkin of the substance of his report.

The communication of the National Reunion Monument Association of Washington D. C., was recommended by the committee to be referred to the incoming Department Commander.

On the resolution of Comrade John B. Wirt, Post 539, providing that the union jack be carried at the head of encampment parades, the Committee reported ought not to pass, and the report was adopted.

On the resolution recommending that steps be taken to have the Sons of Veterans hold their encampments at the same time and place as that of the G. A. R. is held, was approved by the Committee.

The report of the Committee was adopted in each instance by the Encampment and its recommendations ordered to be carried into effect.

The following resolution, offered by Comrade W. M. Cochran, Post 369, was adopted under a suspension of the rules:

WHEREAS, Our brave and patriotic boys of the volunteer service now in the Philippines are subjected to untold suffering from diseases of the mouth, gums and teeth, due largely to climatic conditions of the tropics; and

WHEREAS, There is no provision for the proper treatment of such cases by the Medical Department of the army; and

WHEREAS, We realize the wisdom of such provision in the employment of a well-trained and surgically qualified Dental Corps to give relief from such suffering, as well as assist surgeons in operating upon jaws and face; and

WHEREAS, We believe tooth conservation, consequent good mastication and relief from that enervating malady, toothache, is essential for the preservation of the martial spirit and effectiveness so characteristic of American troops; therefore, be it

Resolved, That we, the Indiana Department, Grand Army of the Republic, in annual convention assembled, do hereby advocate and endorse the bill now pending in Congress which provides for the appointment of a Dental Corps, and earnestly urge that Senators and Representatives of Indiana use their utmost efforts in obtaining its passage.

The following resolutions, offered by Comrade Frank W. Willis, Post 52, was offered as a supplementary report by the committee, and were adopted by a rising vote :

WHEREAS, The Twenty-first Annual Encampment, G. A. R., Department of Indiana, has been one of the most successful ever held in the State; therefore, be it Resolved, That a vote of thanks is hereby extended to the patriotic citizens of this the beautiful capital city of the State for the genuine hospitality extended. To the Citizens' Committee for their untiring zeal in carefully anticipating every necessity of the Comrades to insure their comfort and pleasure, and to all who individually or collectively aided in promoting the interests of the Encampment.

Resolved, That as Comrades of the G. A. R. we will ever cherish in grateful remembrance the good people of Indianapolis who have spared no expense to make our meeting a benediction of pleasant memories. We also tender our thanks to Comrade A. H. Dougall, Officer of the Day, and Joseph Bristow, Officer of the Guard, and the guards for the efficient manner in which they have discharged their respective duties.

MISCELLANEOUS MATTERS.

The following telegram was received by the Department Commander :

TOPEKA, KAN., May 16, 1900.

W. I. Dunlap, Department Commander of Indiana, Indianapolis:

The Department of Kansas sends greeting; so many Indiana soldiers in Kansas, we wonder how you can hold an Encampment. Peace and prosperity attend you.

W. W. MARTIN,
Department Commander.

To the above the Department Commander sent the following response :

INDIANAPOLIS, May 16, 1900.

W. W. Martin, Department Commander G. A. R., Topeka, Kan.:

The Department of Indiana sends greeting. We have enough Indiana soldiers left to hold one of the largest Encampments ever held. Prosperity is ours.

A telegram conveying the fraternal greetings was also received from Department Commander Scott, of the Department of Missouri, to which a fitting reply was sent by the Assistant Adjutant-General, by order of the Encampment.

Comrades Wm. M. Cochran, Post 369, J. E. Haskell, Post 17, and A. R. Seward, Post 209, submitted the following report:

To the Twenty-first Annual Encampment, U. A. R., Department of Indiana:

We, your committee selected in pursuance of a resolution adopted by the Citizens' Executive Committee to award the prize to the Post having the largest number of Comrades in line on parade, and the Post having in line the largest per cent. of its membership, beg leave to make the following report:

Morton Post No. 1, of the city of Terre Haute, is entitled to the prize for having the greatest number in line, and Williams Post No. 78, of the city of Muncie, is entitled to the prize for having the largest per cent. of membership.

ELECTION OF REPRESENTATIVES.

The election of Representatives to the National Encampment being the next order of business, Comrade William A. Ketcham, Post 17, on behalf of the Seventh District put Comrade George Brown, Post 17, in nomination for Representative-at-large. The nomination was seconded in different parts of the hall. No other nominations being made, on motion, the rules were suspended and the Assistant Adjutant-General was instructed to cast the vote of the Encampment for George Brown, which he did, and the Comrade was declared elected.

Nominations for Alternate-at-large being called for, Comrade A. B. Crampton, Post 31, put Comrade James A. Mount, of Post 7, in nomination. The nomination was generally seconded, and no other nominations being made, he was elected under suspension of the rules.

Miller, 525; Theodore Wilkes, 527. Thereupon Comrades Wilkes, Miller, Root, Starr and Shilling were declared elected.

The election of Department Chaplain being next in order, Comrades B. F. Shepherd, Post 476, and H. E. Butler, Post 114, were put in nomination. The name of Comrade Shepherd was withdrawn and by order of the Encampment, the Assistant Adjutant-General cast the vote of the Encampment for Comrade H. E. Butler, Post 114, Warsaw, and he was declared elected.

The election of Medical Director being next in order, Comrades J. M. Jones, Post 574; Stephen J. Young, Post 1; H. E. Davenport, Post 103, and J. E. Sterrett, Post 14, were put in nomination. Comrade Jones withdrew his name, saying that he had twice been honored by an election. The names of Comrades Young and Davenport were also withdrawn, leaving Comrade Sterrett the only candidate. The rules were suspended and the Assistant Adjutant-General cast the vote of the Encampment for Comrade Sterrett, Post 14, Logansport, and he was declared elected.

The Department Commander announced that the election of Junior Vice-Department Commander was next in order. On call of the districts, Comrades James W. Hamrick, Post 164, Danville, and John C. Gordon, Post 132, Argos, were put in nomination. A ballot being taken resulted as follows:

Whole number of votes cast.....	664
Necessary to a choice.....	333
James W. Hamrick received.....	219
John C. Gordon received.....	445

Comrade John C. Gordon, Post 132, Argos, having received a majority of all the votes cast, was declared elected.

The election of Senior Vice-Department Commander being in order, Comrades Arthur R. Seward, Post 209; John W. Scott, Post 281, and R. S. Robertson, Post 271, were put in nomination. Two ballots were taken without an election. On the third ballot, the name of Comrade Robertson was dropped. The third ballot resulted as follows:

Whole number of votes.....	695
Necessary to a choice.....	348
John W. Scott received.....	250
Arthur R. Seward received.....	445

Thereupon Arthur R. Seward, Post 209, Indianapolis, having received a majority of all the votes cast, was declared elected.

ELECTION OF DEPARTMENT COMMANDER.

The next in order was the election of Department Commander. Senior Vice-Commander Morton C. Rankin presiding, ordered a call of districts for nominations. The following Comrades were put in nomination, with many seconds: David E. Beem, Post 93, Spencer; B. M. Hutchins, Post 13, Columbus; Milton Garrigus, Post 30, Kokomo; A. R. Tucker, Post 133, Noblesville, and G. D. Walker, Post 329, Clinton. The vote on the first ballot by districts was as follows:

David E. Beem received.....	421

Comrade David E. Beem, Post 93, Spencer, having received a majority of the votes, was declared elected.

INSTALLATION OF OFFICERS.

The installation of officers being now in order, Department Commander W. L. Dunlap appointed Past Department Commander J. R. Carnahan installing officer, and Comrade Allan H. Dougall, of Post 271, officer of the day. The officers elected were duly installed. The new Department Commander, David E. Beem, on assuming the office, named Richard M. Smock as his Assistant Adjutant-General and Assistant Quartermaster-General, who was then duly installed. After a few remarks, in which he thanked the Department for the honor accorded him, and pledged his best efforts to the good of the cause, Department Commander Beem, at 1:30 P. M., called upon Department Chaplain Butler to pronounce the benediction, and the Encampment adjourned.

R. M. SMOCK,
Assistant Adjutant-General.

GENERAL ORDERS.

HEADQUARTERS DEPARTMENT OF INDIANA,
GRAND ARMY OF THE REPUBLIC,
FRANKLIN, IND., May 23, 1899.

GENERAL ORDERS,
No. 1.

I. The comrades of this Department having elected me to the exalted position of Commander, I hereby assume the duties of the office, greatly appreciating the distinguished honor conferred and at the same time realizing the responsibility they have entrusted to my care. It shall be my earnest endeavor, with the help and assistance of my comrades, to advance and promote the interest of this grand and patriotic organization, and I only ask, what I believe every comrade of this Department is willing to give, a hearty co-operation in this noble work. Post officers and members are urged to put forth every effort to increase their membership and to reclaim those who have allowed themselves to be suspended. By doing a systematic work of this kind the membership will certainly be strengthened and increased.

II. The following staff appointment is announced:

Assistant Adjutant-General and Assistant Quartermaster-General,
Comrade R. M. Smock, Post No. 17, Indianapolis.

He will be obeyed and respected accordingly. All official communications should be addressed to him at Room 25, State House, Indianapolis, Ind., and all personal letters intended for the Department Commander will be addressed to me at Franklin, Ind.

Franklin M. Warford, Post No. 207, Cicero.
Fred T. Kemble, Post No. 8, South Bend.

X. The Encampment was a decided success, and the attendance, reports of officers and the interest manifested indicated very clearly that harmony and good feeling prevailed throughout the membership. The Executive Committee and citizens of Terre Haute, by their complete and thorough organization, contributed very largely to the comfort and pleasure of their guests, as well as to the success of the Encampment.

XI. The retiring officers wish to tender their thanks to Mr. W. W. Richardson, District Passenger Agent of the "Pennsylvania" and "Vandalia" lines, and their appreciation for the complete arrangement made by him for the accommodation and comfort of the comrades who went on the "Headquarters train" over said lines.

XII. Post Commanders will at once consult their membership and secure the promise of one member to serve as an Aide upon the staff of the Department Commander. The object of this appointment is to secure the services of some one who will assist the Post officers in building up an interest in their Posts and increasing the membership. Much good can be accomplished by the proper selection. Upon notice of their acceptance the Assistant Adjutant-General will issue commissions to them.

XIII. The excellent report made by the Assistant Quartermaster General shows that the financial affairs of this Department have been managed judiciously and are in first-class condition. Although the receipts from all sources last year were less than the preceding year, yet the cash balance on hand is $184.12 more.

XIV. Blanks for the semi-annual reports of the Adjutants and Quartermasters have been sent to all Post Commanders, who are required by the Rules and Regulations to see that they are properly made out after the last meeting of the Post in June, and with the per capita tax (ten cents for each member in good standing) forwarded to the Assistant Adjutant-General in the enclosed envelope. Let each Post Commander take a personal pride in seeing that his reports are the first to be filed.

XV. The blanks for Post Chaplains, on which to make their report of "Memorial Day" exercises, have been forwarded, and they are requested to make a full and complete report and forward the same to the Assistant Adjutant-General at once. Already many of these reports have been received, and all indicate that much interest was taken in this sacred service—perhaps more than at any previous time.

XVI. Your Commander desires that the committees heretofore named will immediately organize where necessary and map out the work for the year, to the end that the object for which they have been appointed may be accomplished and the order benefited.

XVII. The Thirty-third National Encampment will be held in the city of Philadelphia, Pa., September 4-9, 1899. Every Post in this Department is urged to begin now in making their arrangements to attend this session. The city of Philadelphia has many attractions for visitors. Notable among them are "Old Independence Hall," where the Declaration of Independence was signed; the famous "Old Liberty Bell," the "United States Mint," the large shipyards on the Delaware river, the celebrated "Fairmount Park" and many other attractions that will be of unusual interest, and all who go will certainly meet with a hearty welcome from the good people of that city. Your Commander is desirous of leaving Indianapolis with a well-equipped and well-filled Headquarters train. Railroad rates and official route will be announced hereafter.

XVIII. The Commander desires to visit as many "reunions" and "camp fires" during the year as possible, except between August 25 and September 25, and requests that comrades, in arranging for such meetings, will communicate with R. M. Smock, Assistant Adjutant-General, who will confer with the Commander and arrange for his attendance.

XIX. Comrades are all requested to procure and wear the badge or buttonaire of the order. They can be obtained of the Post Quartermaster, and Posts are urged to see that all necessary supplies are provided without delay.

By command of

WILLIAM L. DUNLAP,

Department Commander.

R. M. SMOCK,

Assistant Adjutant-General.

Aides-de-Camp are appointed for the purpose of aiding Post and Department officers in creating and maintaining an interest in the organization. They should visit Post meetings whenever possible, and upon request assist the officers in making their semi-annual reports. They should also procure and wear the official badge of their office. Upon notice of their acceptance, commissions will be issued.

II. The Woman's Relief Corps, auxiliary to the Grand Army of the Republic, will hold their district conventions during the fall months, and Post Commanders are requested to assist in making these meetings a success and to arrange for a joint camp-fire at night, to which all veterans and their families should be invited. Much good may be accomplished for the order in this way. The Department Commander desires to visit as many of the district conventions as will be consistent with his other duties

III. The Thirty-third National Encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic will convene in the Grand Opera House, Broad street and Montgomery avenue, in the city of Philadelphia, Wednesday, September 6, at 10 A. M. All delegates and Past Department Commanders are urged to be in attendance. Under a resolution adopted by the last Department Encampment, the roll will be called at each session, and the result reported to the next Department Encampment.

IV. Department Headquarters will be located at the Continental Hotel, Rooms 50 and 52, where all Comrades will receive a cordial welcome.

Comrade John R. Owens will have charge of the Register and the distribution of "Indiana" badges, and all Indiana soldiers are requested to call at Room No. 50, Continental Hotel, register their names and procure their badge.

V. This Department has secured for free sleeping quarters the "Northwestern Market Hall," corner of Twenty-sixth street and Girard avenue. All Comrades desiring to avail themselves of such accommodations will take their blankets with them. Posts going as a body are requested to notify Comrade W. S. Moorehead, Independence Hall, Philadelphia, over what route, and the time they will arrive, so that the committee can meet and escort them to their quarters.

VI. Those desiring to secure hotel accommodations will write to P. H. Fratz, Chairman, and those wishing to go to boarding house or private houses will address James H. Eckersley, Chairman of that Committee. All communications for them should be directed to Independence Hall, Philadelphia, Pa., at once, so that ample provision may be made for their comfort. All representatives should endeavor to secure accommodations as convenient to the Continental Hotel as possible, so that headquarters can be easily reached for all meetings that may be called.

VII. Past Department Commanders and delegates will meet in Room No. 52, Continental Hotel, Tuesday evening, September 5th, promptly at 8 o'clock, to receive the delegate badge and for the transaction of such business pertaining to the Encampment as may be required. Let everyone report promptly at the hour designated. If any of the delegates cannot attend, they are requested to communicate that fact to R. M. Smock, Assistant Adjutant-General, at once, so that the proper alternate may be notified.

VIII. The annual parade will take place Tuesday, September 5, 1899, at 10 A. M. This Department will be in charge of Thomas B. Wood, Senior Aide-de-Camp. The Commander desires that every Comrade who can will join in the parade, and, if possible, in uniform, in order that this Department may maintain the excellent standard it has always had of being well represented. The parade will pass old "Independence Hall," the sight of which will be an inspiration to every veteran.

IX. The railroad rates from Indianapolis are as follows:

(a.) Round trip, over the same line, without any stop-over, $14.55.

(b.) Round trip, over the same line, with one stop-over going and one returning, east of Pittsburg and Erie, Pa., Huntington and Parkersburg, W. Va., Buffalo, Suspension Bridge and Salamanca, N. Y., $17.50.

(c.) Round trip, going over one road and returning over another, with stop-over privileges in each direction, $19.50, and corresponding rates for each class of tickets, from all points in the State. Persons desiring to go by diverse routes must make it known when tickets are purchased. Tickets good going September 1st to 4th, inclusive, good to return up to September 12th, which may be extended to September 30th, inclusive, by depositing tickets with Joint Agent at Philadelphia.

The different routes from Indianapolis, and the time of the departure of trains over the several lines, is set forth in the following paragraphs, furnished by the passenger agents of the respective railroads for the information of the Comrades:

BIG FOUR AND C. & O.

The Big Four and C. & O. will run a special Grand Army train, under the personal charge of Comrade H. M. Bronson, Assistant General Passenger Agent of the Big Four, and Aide-de-Camp on the staff of the Commander-in-Chief. This train, composed of the finest standard Wagner sleepers and Big Four high-back seat coaches, will leave Terre Haute, 12:20 noon, Saturday, September 2d, Greencastle 1:20 p. m., Danville 1:50 p. m., arrive Indianapolis 2:25 p. m. Leave Covington 12:23 noon, Crawfordsville 1:15 p. m., arrive Indianapolis 2:42 p. m. Leave Sheldon 11:27 a. m., Lafayette 12:52 noon, arrive Indianapolis 2:35 p. m. Leave Indianapolis 2:45 p. m., Franklin 2:25 p. m., Fairland 3:15 p. m., Shelbyville 3:25 p. m., Greensburg 4:02 p. m., arrive Cincinnati 6 p. m. (supper). Leave 6:30 p. m., arrive Washington 12 noon, and Philadelphia 3 p. m., Sunday September 3d, without change.

This train will also connect at Terre Haute with E. & T. H. train leaving Evansville 7:20 a. m., at Greencastle with Monon train leaving Louisville 7:36 a. m., at Indianapolis with L. E. & W. train leaving Michigan City 8:20 a. m., at Greensburg with Michigan Division train leaving Elkhart 8:48 a. m., which train connects at Anderson with Big Four Indianapolis Division train leaving Muncie 1:10 p. m.

The route of the special G. A. R. train is via the picturesque C. & O. along the Ohio, Kanawha and Greenbrier rivers, through the Allegheny and Blue Ridge mountains, the beautiful and historic Shenandoah Valley, and the cities of Washington, D. C., and Baltimore, Md.

Regular trains via this same route leave Indianapolis 3:45 a. m. and 6:20 p. m., daily, and 7 a. m. daily, except Sunday, reaching Philadelphia in about twenty-four hours.

The Big Four will also sell Grand Army tickets via Buffalo, Niagara Falls and the Lehigh Valley, which, like the C. & O., is one of the scenic routes of the country. Trains via this route leave Indianapolis 4:25 a. m., 6:25 p. m. daily, and 10:50 a. m. daily, except Sunday, reaching Philadelphia in about twenty-four hours.

Sleeping-car rates via either Washington or Buffalo, $5 per double berth, $10 per section.

For tickets, rates, sleeping-car berths and any desired information, call on or address Comrade H. M. Bronson, Assistant General Passenger Agent Big Four, No. 1 East Washington street, Indianapolis.

C., H. & D. AND B. & O.

The C., H. & D. R. R., in connection with the Baltimore & Ohio R. R., has four trains between Indianapolis and Philadelphia, with time as follows:

Leave Indianapolis 3:55 a. m., 8:25 a. m., 2:45 p. m., 4:45 p. m.

Arrive Philadelphia 5:35 a. m., 10:15 a. m., 4:35 p. m., 8:19 p. m., passing through Cincinnati, the Queen City, Parkersburg, W. Va., Oakland, Cumberland, Harper's Ferry, Washington and Baltimore, and via this line there is an additional privilege of returning via Pittsburg, Wheeling and Columbus without extra charge.

Through sleepers and coaches will be run as business demands on any of the trains enumerated above, and for details, sleeping-car reservations, etc., call on or address R. P. Algeo, City Ticket Agent.

ALL THE PENNSYLVANIA SHORT LINES LEAD TO PHILADELPHIA,

And will sell special excursion tickets September 1st, 2d, 3d and 4th.

Three forms of tickets will be sold at special reduced fares, which will be as cheap over the Pennsylvania Route as over any other line. One cent per mile will be the rate from all points on the Pennsylvania Lines. Tickets sold at this exceptionally low fare will be good for continuous passage in both directions.

Tickets via Baltimore and Washington will be sold at the lowest one-way rate, and will be good for stop-over at Baltimore and at the National Capital, and also valid for an additional stop-over in each direction east of Pittsburg.

Tickets via diverse route, going over one direct route and returning another, will also be sold at the single fare rate plus $2. These tickets will also be good for stop-over at Baltimore and Washington in addition to one stop-over in each direction east of Pittsburg.

The return limit on all excursion tickets will be September 12th, which may be extended to September 30th, inclusive, by depositing tickets with the Joint Agent at Philadelphia.

From Indiana cities and towns, the Pennsylvania and Vandalia Short Lines extend direct to Philadelphia. The train service from Indianapolis, Terre Haute, Greencastle, Fort Wayne, Logansport, Kokomo, Marion, Anderson, Union City, Vincennes, Martinsville, Seymour, Columbus, Richmond and other stations is of the well-known and of the reliable Pennsylvania pattern, insuring comfortable traveling. All trains arrive in the Pennsylvania's Broad Street Station, centrally located in the very heart of the Quaker City. Applications for sleeping-car accommodations should be filed early. Inquire of any ticket agent Pennsylvania and Vandalia Lines for beautifully illustrated folder containing comprehensive map of the city of Philadelphia.

From Indianapolis the Headquarters Special Grand Army Train of through coaches and sleeping-cars will leave Indianapolis at 2:30 p. m., Sunday, September 3d, and the fare at one cent per mile, each way, the distance being 727 miles, makes the lowest rate from Indianapolis, viz., $14.55 for the round trip. From Indianapolis there are five daily trains, as follows: 3:35 and 8:25 a. m.; 2:30. 5 and 7:10 p. m. Price of double berth in sleeping-car, $5.

Trains connecting with the official train leave Terre Haute 1:47 p. m., Greencastle 1:34 p. m., Logansport 1:10 p. m., Kokomo 1:45 p. m., Elwood 2:16 p. m., Anderson 2:40 p. m., New Castle 3:07 p. m., Jeffersonville 8:22 a. m., Seymour 9:42 a. m., Columbus 10:20 a. m., Franklin 10:50 a. m., Greenfield 3:04 p. m., Knightstown 3:23 p. m., Cambridge City 3:50 p. m., Bunker Hill 2:11 p. m., Marion 2:50 p. m., Hartford City 3:22 p. m., Ridgeville 4:04 p. m., Union City 4:26 p. m., Richmond 4:20 p. m., arrive Columbus, Ohio, 7:35 p. m. Leave Columbus 7:50 p. m.

The Pennsylvania Route leads through interesting farming communities and pretty cities and towns in the Hoosier and Buckeye States. On nearing Pittsburg, it skirts the banks of the Ohio river before entering the Union Station in the center of that city. From Pittsburg the route passes scenes of industrial activity which have been likened unto the heart-throbs of America's manufacturing. Vast iron and coke interests spread out in pleasing panorama as the trains glide onward toward the romantic Allegheny mountains. The tragic scenes of the flood-swept Conemaugh Valley have left their imprint in that historic vale. Traces of the memorable deluge are noticeable at and near the rebuilt city of Johnstown. At Cresson the Allegh-nies are crossed in the highest point above sea level. Horse Shoe Curve, a marvel of mechanical engineering, is rounded on the eastern slope of the Alleghenies. The "Blue Juniata" river is followed through regions of enchanting grandeur. Just west of Harrisburg the Susquehanna river is crossed on one of the longest and most substantial railroad bridges in the world. The country between that city and Philadelphia embraces some of the finest agricultural sections in America.

Philadelphia is reached by daylight by all trains over the Pennsylvania Route from points west of Pittsburg. This gives visitors an opportunity to select quarters and get located before night sets in, and will be appreciated by persons who have experienced annoyance by being obliged to look up accommodations in a strange city during the night. For particulars as to rates, sleeping-car accommodations, call on or address any ticket agent Pennsylvania and Vandalia Lines.

X. The Department Commander has selected the "Pennsylvania and Vandalia Lines" as the Official Route, and, with the Department President of the Woman's Relief Corps and members of their official staffs, will leave Indianapolis on Sunday, September 3, 1899, at 2:30 o'clock p. m., and will run through, without change of cars, arriving in Philadelphia at 12 o'clock noon the next day. All Comrades and their friends who desire to go over this road are cordially invited to join the Headquarters train. This train will be in charge of W. W. Richardson, District Passenger Agent of "Pennsylvania and Vandalia Lines," who will accompany the train and look after the comfort of the passengers, and will consist of the finest Pullman sleepers and Pennsylvania standard high-back seat coaches.

Sleeping-car rates from Indianapolis to Philadelphia will be $5 per berth, or $10 a section, which will accommodate four persons, and all who desire sleeping-car accommodations should write to W. W. Richardson, District Passenger Agent of said road, at No. 48 West Washington street, Indianapolis, not later than August 20, 1899, in order that provision may be made for them.

XI. Everything points to a largely attended Encampment. The local committees are sparing neither time nor expense in preparing to give the visitors a royal reception, in addition to the many attractions at Philadelphia. Side trips have been arranged by all railroads to many places of interest, viz., New York City, Baltimore, Washington, Gettysburg, Atlantic City, Cape May, Long Branch, Old Point Comfort, and many other historic places. For particulars and rates, write any of the above-named agents.

XII. Department officers can materially aid the Commander if they will report to Room 52, Continental Hotel, upon their arrival.

Aides-de-Camp will report for duty to Thomas B. Wood, Senior Aide-de-Camp, at the Continental Hotel upon their arrival in Philadelphia.

XIII. While in attendance upon the National Encampment by the Department officers, Headquarters will be closed.

XIV. General Orders No. 10 from National Headquarters, are transmitted herewith.

By command of

WILLIAM I. DUNLAP,

Department Commander.

R. M. SMOCK,

Assistant Adjutant-General.

HEADQUARTERS DEPARTMENT OF INDIANA,
GRAND ARMY OF THE REPUBLIC,
OFFICE OF ASSISTANT ADJUTANT-GENERAL,
ROOM 25, STATE HOUSE,
INDIANAPOLIS, IND., October 18, 1899.

GENERAL ORDERS,
No. 4.

I. The following additional Aides-de-Camp upon the staff of the Department Commander are hereby announced, and will be obeyed and respected accordingly:

Post No. 17, William B. Harris.	Post No. 150, Jesse G. Johnson.
" 59, John O. Frame.	" 214, Rosman I. White.
" 77, W. A. Nash.	" 277, Joseph Walsh.
" 103, Wesley T. Hadley.

II. The thirty-third session of the National Encampment, held in the city of Philadelphia, Pa., was largely attended by the Comrades of this Department, and the Commander avails himself of this opportunity to express to the membership his appreciation for their attendance and for the large number that took part in the parade, thus contributing our full share to its success. The Representatives were in attendance and took an active part in the discussion of important measures that came before the Encampment. Among the important were: Amending the Rules and Regulations and providing that hereafter, when a vacancy occurs in the office of Commander-in-Chief or Department Commander, the Vice-Commanders shall succeed to the vacancy in the order of their rank, without further action.

III. The Rules and Regulations were also amended changing the basis of representation in the National Encampment so as to allow one delegate for each 750 members, instead of one for each 1,000.

This will give this Department additional Representatives. The Rules and Regulations, with the amendments, are now being printed. Posts should have their Quartermaster send for a sufficient number to supply the members. They are sold at five cents each.

IV. The resolutions presented by the Department of Tennessee, looking to the admission into membership of those conscripted into the Confederate Army and who afterwards deserted and served in the Federal Army, was defeated.

V. The attempt to amend the Rules and Regulations so as to admit to membership those who served after April 9th, and prior to August 25, 1865, and also those who served in the Military Telegraph Corps, was also voted down.

VI. The report of the Committee on Pensions was read by the Chairman, and received the strictest attention. It was an exhaustive statement of the laws bearing upon that important question, giving in detail the various rulings, and pointing out the defects and objectionable clauses complained of. It was a dignified and manly statement of the questions involved, and elicited the warmest approval. After the report was read it was recommitted to the committee, with instructions to prepare and present to the Encampment such recommendations as in the judgment of the committee were necessary to carry into effect the letter and spirit of the law.

Thereupon the following resolutions were reported and adopted:

"Your Committee on Pensions respectfully presents supplemental report, pursuant to the instructions of the Encampment:

"We respectfully direct attention to Section 471 of the Revised Statutes of the United States, which reads as follows: 'The Commissioner of Pensions shall perform, under the direction of the Secretary of the Interior, such duties in the execution of pension and bounty laws as may be prescribed by the President;' therefore,

"Resolved, That this Encampment respectfully represents to the President its earnest conviction that Rule 225, now in practical effect in the adjudication of claims for pensions under Section 2 of the act of June 27, 1890, in the Pension Bureau, works grave injustice to worthy ex-soldiers and ex-sailors, and we express the hope that you will find it consistent with your duties as an executive officer to abrogate this rule and re-establish the principle as defined in Rule 164. Under the operation of Rule 164, formulated and put into effect soon after the passage of this act, unquestionably responsive to public sentiment and based upon sound legal propositions—in a word, the simple expressions of the letter and spirit of the law—400,000 names were added to the pension roll of the Republic, and to which no objection was heard for years after its promulgation.

“Resolved, That this Encampment respectfully represents that the practice in the Pension Bureau in barring widow claimants who have an income of $96 a year is not warranted by the terms of the law, and we warmly endorse the recommendation of the Commissioner of Pensions to successive Secretaries of the Interior that the limitation be increased to $250 a year.

“Resolved, That the Commander-in-Chief appoint a committee of five Comrades to present to the President a certified copy of the action of this National Encampment, with an expression of our earnest desire for justice only to our disabled Comrades and the widows and orphans of our dead under the letter and spirit of the law.

“Resolved, That this committee is hereby authorized and directed in the event that if it is determined that relief may not be accorded by the administrative officers of the Government, to present to Congress a request for the amendment of the law in such form as to make certain the true intent of the statute as we believe can be construed as herein presented.”

VII. The Department Commander selected the Pennsylvania and Vandalia Lines as the “official route” to the National Encampment, and desires to express to W. W. Richardson, District Passenger Agent of said Lines, his appreciation for the thorough and complete arrangements made for the Headquarters train. Splendid time was made, and the contract was carried out to his satisfaction in every particular.

VIII. Comrade Albert D. Shaw, of Watertown, N. Y., was elected Commander-in-Chief, and Chicago, Ill., selected as the place for holding the next annual Encampment.

IX. This Department was especially honored by the selection of Comrade Irvin Robbins as Senior Vice-Commander-in-Chief.

X. The Rules and Regulations require the annual inspection of Posts to be made between September 1st and December 31st. Enclosed will be found the necessary blank for that purpose. Upon receipt of the same, Post Commanders will detail a suitable Comrade for Assistant Inspector, who will, without delay, proceed to the execution of that duty, and make report thereof to R. M. Smock, Assistant Adjutant-General, Room 25, State House. This inspection is made imperative by the Rules and Regulations, and Post Commanders will be held responsible for its execution.

XI. Your Commander recently attended the reunion of the “Blue and Gray” at Evansville, Ind., and the pleasant and cordial greetings between those of each army were such that much good feeling was aroused, and will tend in the future to bring more closely together as citizens of a united country the membership of the two great organizations there represented. The exercises were of the most patriotic character, and it is believed the influence will lead to great good in uniting in closer bonds of friendship those of the North and South.

XII. Many of the district conventions and reunions have been held during the past months, and so many of them occurring at the same date has prevented your Commander from attending as many as he would have liked to. If the Comrades will take an interest in these reunions, they will certainly be productive of great good to the organization.

XIII. The discharge of Andrew J. Williams, a private of Company I, 120th Regiment Indiana Volunteer Infantry, was found and left at this office, where the Comrade can get it.

XIV. Attention of Posts is again called to the fact that many of them have not sent for a copy of the proceedings of the Thirty-second National Encampment. All that is necessary is to send eleven (11) cents to pay the postage, and they will be promptly mailed.

XV. With this Order will be found National Orders Nos. 11, 1 and 2.

By command of

WILLIAM L. DUNLAP,

Department Commander.

R. M. SMOCK,

Assistant Adjutant-General.

HEADQUARTERS DEPARTMENT OF INDIANA,
GRAND ARMY OF THE REPUBLIC,
OFFICE OF ASSISTANT ADJUTANT-GENERAL,
ROOM 25, STATE HOUSE,
INDIANAPOLIS, IND., November 25, 1899.

GENERAL ORDERS,
No. 5.

I. The resignation of Comrade Marine D. Tackett as Chief Mustering Officer of this Department having been accepted, the Commander desires to express to Comrade Tackett his appreciation of his efficient services.

Comrade Dyer C. Elder, of Post No. 5, Greensburg, is hereby appointed to fill the vacancy, and will be obeyed and respected accordingly.

II. With this order will be found the consolidated blank reports of the Adjutant and Quartermaster for the six months ending December 31, 1899. Post Officers should get together at or immediately after the last meeting in December, make out and transmit these reports, with the per capita tax (ten cents for each member in good standing), to R. M. Smock, Assistant Adjutant-General, in the enclosed addressed envelope. Post Quartermasters will send either postoffice money order or draft, payable to R. M. Smock, Assistant Quartermaster-General. Do not send personal checks.

III. Attention is again called to the fact that all members are in good standing in their respective Posts until they have been suspended by a vote of the Post, after having received sixty days' notice in writing, signed by the Quartermaster. The figures in red ink indicate the number upon which per capita tax was paid last report, and must not be changed; to this number should be added all gains, if any, and from the aggregate deduct all losses during the term.

IV. The annual election of Post Officers and Representatives to the Department Encampment takes place at the first regular meeting in December. It is of the utmost importance to the welfare and prosperity of the order that only those be selected to fill these places who have the interest of the order at heart, and who will give enough of their time to make it a success. It is hoped that the members throughout the Department will give this matter their careful consideration.

V. Each Post will be entitled to one Representative for every fifty members, or for a fraction of more than one-half of that number, based upon the report of June 30, 1899. Also a like number of Alternates. Posts with a less membership than fifty are only entitled to one Representative and one Alternate. As all past and present Post Commanders in good standing are members of the Encampment, and entitled to seats therein, your Commander suggests that they be not elected Representatives; by doing so, you deprive your Post of that much representation.

VI. Blank certificates of election are transmitted herewith in duplicate. Adjutants will see that all names are plainly and correctly written, and that all Past Post Commanders' names are reported in the order of their service, one copy to be retained by the Post, and the other forwarded to Department Headquarters immediately after the election.

VII. Posts failing to make their reports or pay the per capita tax are not entitled to representation in the Department or National Encampments.

VIII. Blanks for the mortuary reports are enclosed. It is made the duty of the Post Adjutant to make this report after the last day of December, giving names in full of all members who have died during the year 1899 who were in good standing, giving their age, rank.

Company, Regiment, and date of death. A failure to make this report leaves the "Roll of Honor" incomplete.

IX. Post Chaplains are only required to make reports annually, immediately after Memorial Day. Blanks will be forwarded at the proper time.

X. The installation of Post Officers will occur at the first regular meeting in January, 1900, or at a special meeting called for that purpose. It is earnestly recommended that the custom of having this service public and jointly with the Woman's Relief Corps and Sons of Veterans (where there is a camp) be continued. It is certainly one of the most opportune times offered to create an interest and build up the Post. Make a special effort to secure the attendance of all veterans who are not members of the Post, and their families, and also those who have been "suspended" or "dropped." Put forth every exertion to make them feel that they are welcome. Where the installation is public, "no part of the opening or closing services shall be used."

XI. The newly elected Post Commander is authorized to select the installing officer, who should be one of the Department Officers, or a Past Post Commander in good standing. The Commander, however, recommends that where it is practicable, one of the Department Officers be chosen. If desired, the Assistant Adjutant-General will issue a special order, detailing the Comrade selected to perform that duty.

XII. The Thirty-first National Encampment adopted a new Service Book, making a change in the "installation service." Post Quartermasters should order a sufficient number in time for their installation. They are sold at thirty cents each. It is also recommended that the new Post Officers at once procure their official badges.

XIII. Under the Rules and Regulations, installation services cannot take place until the inspection has been made, and the semi-annual reports and per capita tax transmitted to Headquarters. The installing officer will inquire whether the Post has been inspected, and if it has not, he will defer the installation, and proceed to inspect the Post, after which he will install the officers. Post Quartermasters are required by Chapter 5, Article 7, to give bond for the faithful discharge of their duties. This must be done before they can be installed. Requisition should be made for the necessary blanks in time for their execution.

XIV. Post Surgeons will make their reports for the year ending December 31, 1899, as they are now made annually. Blanks for the same are enclosed. They should be forwarded to Department Headquarters, where they will be collected and transmitted to the Medical Director. In case the Post Surgeon is absent, the Adjutant will see that the report is made out.

XV. Attention is called to circular letter from National Headquarters in regard to reclaiming those that have allowed themselves to become "suspended." It must be apparent to everyone that if we expect to keep up our membership an earnest effort will have to be made to get back into our ranks those who were formerly members. Your Commander has given this question careful thought and consideration, and is of the opinion that it would be for the best interests of the Posts if all such could be induced to renew their membership, even if the fee charged is a very small one, or just enough to reimburse the Post for the per capita tax paid on the Comrade before he was suspended. It would certainly be better for the Post to have even a small fee, and the additional membership, than to be without either. Is not this important subject worthy of the best efforts of every member of our beloved order? As the years come and go, we are confronted with the fact that age and infirmity is fast creeping upon us, and it requires a great effort to keep up the interest. Yet at the same time, the demands for assistance by reason of these infirmities multiply and increase, and it behooves every member to give his best effort in that direction. It is certainly true that, as we grow older, the ties of comradeship between those who on "land and on sea" defended the old flag grow stronger, and in our declining years let every member of this order make an effort to close up the broken ranks and march to more grand and glorious results. The influence of the Grand Army of the Republic has been a power for good in the interest of the veteran and his dependent ones.

XVI. In carrying into effect the suggestion made in the preceding paragraph, it is the wish of the Department Commander that Department Officers, and each Aide upon his staff, as well as those upon the staff of the Commander-in-Chief, will take charge of this work, visit the Posts in their respective neighborhoods, talk with the members individually and collectively, make such suggestion as in their judgment will bring about the desired result. The annual election and installation of officers presents an excellent time to present this all-important subject.

XVII. Only a small number of Posts have reported their inspection. As this is important, Post Commanders will see that the Rules and Regulations are promptly complied with, and that all reports due are forwarded at once.

XVIII. National and Department countersigns are enclosed herewith, and will be transmitted by the Post Commander to all Comrades in good standing, and will go in effect January 1, 1900.

XIX. Enclosed with this order will be found circular letter and General Orders No. 3 from National Headquarters.

By command of

WILLIAM I. DUNLAP,

Department Commander.

R. M. SMOCK,

Assistant Adjutant-General.

HEADQUARTERS DEPARTMENT OF INDIANA,
GRAND ARMY OF THE REPUBLIC,
OFFICE OF ASSISTANT ADJUTANT-GENERAL,
ROOM 25, STATE HOUSE,
INDIANAPOLIS, IND., January 27, 1900.

GENERAL ORDERS,
No. 6.

I. A number of the Posts have failed to send in all of their reports. They have been due since the first day of January, and the delay in reporting is delaying the reports of the Department to National Headquarters. It is the duty of the Post Commanders to see that these reports are promptly forwarded, and their attention is respectfully invited to this subject. Be prompt, in order that this Department can report when the same are due, and maintain its good standing with National Headquarters.

II. It is desired that the public schools hold appropriate services on the 12th day of February, being the anniversary of the birth of our beloved Abraham Lincoln. The Commander urgently requests that Post Commanders and officers will at once take up this question with the school authorities, and arrange for such public exercises as may be deemed appropriate. He respectfully suggests that a suitable Comrade be selected to read Lincoln's Gettysburg Address, which is very brief, and will impress itself upon the minds of the children, and be appropriate for the occasion.

III. The State of Illinois is about to revise and correct its history of the troops and organizations in the war of 1861-1866. If there are any Comrades in the Department who served in the Regiments from that State, they are requested to notify J. N. Reece, Adjutant-General, Springfield, Ill., of any corrections that should be made.

IV. Many suggestions have been made that through the General Orders Post Officers be requested to commit to memory the "Rituai," to the end that more interest may be taken in the work, and a better impression left on the minds of visitors, and especially recruits. Your Commander heartily commends this suggestion, and recommends that Posts arrange for a "muster-in service," as often as convenient, that the interest may be revived and the officers become proficient in the work.

V. The Thirty-fourth National Encampment will be held in the city of Chicago, Ill., August 27 to September 1, 1900. The Headquarters of this Department will be established at the Sherman House. Any Comrade desiring accommodations at that hotel should write at an early date to J. Irving Pearce, proprietor, and make such arrangements as will be satisfactory to them.

VI. The Twenty-first Annual Encampment of this Department will be held in this city. May 16th and 17th. Headquarters of the Grand Army of the Republic and the Woman's Relief Corps will be at the Hotel English. Rates, $2 per day, without bath; $2.50 to $3 with bath, according to location. The location of this hotel is a desirable one, being centrally located on "Monument Circle." All Comrades desiring to stop at this hotel should address "Hotel English," and make all necessary arrangements. Additional information will be given in future orders.

VII. In 1895 the General Assembly, by joint resolution, directed the Custodian of the State House to set apart a suitable room for the permanent use of the Grand Army of the Republic, in which may be preserved the invaluable records of our order. The resolution received the approval of Governor Matthews, and shortly thereafter Room 25 was assigned to the organization for its use. This room has been fitted up with suitable cases and shelving at the expense of the Department. At the last session of the General Assembly an effort was made to take the room for other less important purposes, and but for the prompt protest of the Comrades, in and out of the General Assembly, would have succeeded. The membership all over the State are interested in this question, and you are each urged to see your Senators and Representatives and forestall any action of this kind that may be attempted at the next session. Now is the time for active work on this line.

VIII. John S. Roberts Post No. 589, located at the State Soldiers' Home, has changed the name to that of Jasper Packard.

IX. Post No. 521 has changed its location from Brooklyn to Centerton.

X. With this order will be found General Orders No. 4, from National Headquarters.

XI. It becomes the sad duty of your Commander to announce the death of two Comrades from this Department, who have become endeared to every Comrade by their loyalty to their country and faithful discharge of every duty assigned to them. Major-General Henry W. Lawton, member of Sion S. Bass Post No. 40, Fort Wayne, was killed December 19, 1899, while in line of duty in the Philippine Islands. Comrade Lawton enlisted April 24, 1861, as a private soldier in the Ninth Regiment, Indiana Volunteer Infantry, in the war of the Rebellion, and by his untiring zeal and devotion to duty rose to the rank of Major-General in the United States service. The other Comrade whose loss we all mourn was General Jasper Packard, who was a member of W. L. Sanderson Post No. 191, New Albany. He joined the service as First Lieutenant, Company D, Forty-eighth Regiment, Indiana Volunteer Infantry, November 25, 1861, and after several promotions, was mustered out in 1865 as Colonel of the 128th Indiana and Brevet Brigadier-General. He had only last July assumed the duties of Commandant of the State Soldiers' Home at Lafayette, and had in the few short months earned, as he justly deserved, the love and respect of every officer and member of that Home.

INDIANAPOLIS, IND., March 27, 1900.

GENERAL ORDERS,
No. 7.

I. As previously announced, the twenty-first annual session of the Department of Indiana, Grand Army of the Republic, will convene at Tomlinson Hall, in this city, on Wednesday, May 16, 1900, at 10 o'clock a. m. All delegates are urged to be in their places at that time. Additional information will be given in future orders.

II. The Central Passenger Association has authorized the rate of one cent per mile, each way, short-line distance from all points and on all lines in this State. Tickets good going on May 14th, 15th and 16th, and returning up to and including May 19th. This liberal rate should secure a large attendance of the Comrades and their friends.

III. The Citizens' Executive Committee have organized, with Hon. D. M. Parry as Chairman and Comrade Peter Zinn as Secretary. All necessary sub-committees have been appointed for the successful prosecution of the work in arranging for the proper entertainment of the Encampment.

IV. Hotel rates announced are as follows: English Hotel, $2 to $3 per day; Bates House, $2.50 to $3.50 per day; Grand Hotel, $2.50 to $3.50 per day; Denison, $2.50 to $3.50; Spencer House, $2 to $3; Occidental, $1.50 to $2. Those wishing accommodations engaged for them should write to E. K. Criley, Chairman of the Committee on Hotels, who will cheerfully make suitable arrangements for them.

V. The books and accounts of the Assistant Quartermaster-General will be closed April 30th. Posts desiring supplies must order them before that date. After that, no supplies will be issued until the Auditing Committee have made their report.

VI. The proceedings, findings and sentence of the Post court-martial in the case of Strader DeVault, of Stone River Post No. 65, is approved, and the said Strader DeVault is hereby dishonorably discharged and dismissed from the Grand Army of the Republic.

VII. Enclosed will be found General Orders No. 5, from National Headquarters. Also speech delivered by the Commander-in-Chief upon the pension question, and circular relating to monuments and markers on the Gettysburg battle-field.

GENERAL ORDERS,
No. 8.

I. In General Orders issued by that grand and patriotic Comrade of ours, General John A. Logan, Memorial Day was established, and on each occasion, as we assemble to do honor to the memory of those who have passed from us, how our thoughts journey backward to the days when they, in the pride and strength of their young manhood, stood "shoulder to shoulder" with us in the defense of the old flag, for the preservation and integrity of the Union. As flowers are emblematic of the Resurrection in the life to come, how appropriate that we, the survivors of that great conflict, together with that patriotic organization, the "Woman's Relief Corps," and all liberty-loving citizens, should meet on this day, set apart for sacred purpose, plant the flag, and strew flowers on the graves wherein lie all that is mortal of our loved ones. Every green mound that covers the remains of a Union soldier or sailor should receive its tribute of love and respect.

II. Each year our ranks grow thinner, and the line of little mounds grows longer; each Memorial Day more flags and flowers are required to decorate, and fewer hands to respond. Realizing this fact, let all patriotic citizens, and especially the Woman's Relief Corps, Sons of Veterans, Ladies' Aid Society and all school children be invited and urged to join us in this service. By so doing, we teach lessons of patriotism, and show to the world that he who "dies for his country and his country's flag has not died in vain." In compliance with the action of the Thirtieth National Encampment, Post Commanders, and those in charge of the Memorial exercises, will direct the reading of President Lincoln's Gettysburg address, as appears in General Orders No. 6, from National Headquarters, herewith enclosed.

III. All Posts are requested to attend divine worship on the Sunday preceding Memorial Day, in a body, and to invite their "auxiliary," the Woman's Relief Corps, to join them.

By command of

WILLIAM L. DUNLAP,

Department Commander.

R. M. SMOCK,

Assistant Adjutant-General.

HEADQUARTERS DEPARTMENT OF INDIANA,
GRAND ARMY OF THE REPUBLIC,
OFFICE OF ASSISTANT ADJUTANT-GENERAL,
ROOM 25, STATE HOUSE,
INDIANAPOLIS, IND., April 25, 1900.

GENERAL ORDERS,
No. 9.

I. As heretofore promulgated in General Orders, the Twenty-first Annual Encampment will convene in Tomlinson Hall in this city on Wednesday, May 16th, at 10 o'clock. Commander-in-Chief A. D. Shaw and members of his staff will visit the Encampment. The citizens of Indianapolis extend to every veteran and his family a cordial invitation to visit the city, and assure all a hearty welcome.

II. The railroad rate, as authorized by the Central Passenger Association, is one cent per mile each way, short-line distance, from all points, and over all lines in the State of Indiana. Tickets good going on May 14th, 15th and 16th, and returning up to and including the 19th. The purchasers of tickets will be required to use them on the day they are stamped by the selling agent.

III. All desiring to attend the Encampment are requested to call on their local ticket agent and ascertain if excursion tickets have been provided; if they have not, you will inform this office immediately, and the matter will be taken up with the proper officer and suitable provision made.

IV. The hotel rates were announced in previous order. All persons desiring arrangements either in hotels or private houses will address E. K. Criley, English Hotel, Chairman of the Committee on Hotels and Accommodations.

V. The Committee on Credentials will consist of the following Comrades, with the Assistant Adjutant-General as Chairman: M. C. Rankin, C. M. Gravis, C. M. Sailors, John R. Owens, W. E. Shilling, J. D. Carmody and Dyer C. Elder. They will be in session at the Department Headquarters, Room 25 State House, all day Tuesday, May 15th, for the purpose of issuing badges to the delegates. All Comrades who are entitled to seats in the Encampment are requested to report in person to this Committee upon their arrival. A compliance with this request will materially aid the Committee, and provide each delegate with his badge before the convening of the Encampment. All other Department Officers and members of the Commander's staff will report at the Headquarters for such duty as may be assigned them.

VI. The Council of Administration will meet at the office of the Assistant Adjutant-General at 4 o'clock Tuesday, May 15th, for the transaction of such business as may come before it. Every member is expected to be in attendance.

VII. Every delegate must apply in person for his badge. Alternates will not be entitled to badges unless the delegate they represent is absent. No proxies will be recognized. Past Post Commanders are not entitled to be represented by alternate.

VIII. The annual parade will be in charge of Comrade James R. Carnahan. Chairman of the Committee on Parade and Review, and promises to be one of more than usual interest. Your Commander requests all who can to join in this parade, and thus contribute to its success. All Comrades are urged to appear in the Grand Army uniform. The formation will be as follows: First, Jasper Packard Post, from State Soldiers' Home. Second, all other Posts in the order of their number, except those from Indianapolis, who will take their place at the left of the column, in their numerical order. All Posts appearing as organizations are requested to bring their banners. Post Commanders will see that all orders issued by the Chief Marshal are strictly complied with.

IX. On Wednesday evening camp fires will be held at Tomlinson Hall, Roberts Park and Fletcher Place Churches. Prominent speakers will be in attendance, excellent music furnished. All are invited to attend.

X. The Encampment will be governed, so far as applicable, by the "Rules" of the National Encampment. The Council of Administration will present the order of business, and, in order to avoid delays, all resolutions and communications must be reduced to writing and signed by the party presenting the same.

XI. The proceedings of the Thirty-third National Encampment are ready for distribution, and Post Commanders will call, or designate some one to call, for the copy that is provided for their Post.

XII. Comrade Allan H. Dougall, of Post No. 271, has been detailed as Officer of the Day, and Comrade Joseph Bristow, of Post No. 17, as Officer of the Guard, to serve during the sessions of the Encampment, and will be obeyed and respected accordingly. They will report to the Assistant Adjutant-General for instructions. The Guards detailed for duty during the Encampment will report to the Officer of the Day at Room 25 State House, Wednesday morning, at 8 o'clock, in uniform.

XIII. The Aides upon the staff of the Commander-in-Chief are requested to be in attendance in uniform, and assist in making his visit with us a pleasant one.

XIV. The following Department Officers will provide written reports, and have them ready for submission to the Encampment:

Senior Vice-Department Commander.
Junior Vice-Department Commander.
Medical Director.
Department Chaplain.
Department Inspector.
Judge Advocate.
Chief Mustering Officer.

XV. The last National Encampment adopted the resolutions to "change the ratio of membership for representatives to the National Encampment, from the present basis of one representative for each 1,000 members to one for each 750 members, and one for a major fraction over that number." According to this change, this Department will be entitled to one representative and one alternate at large, and one representative and one alternate from each of the First, Second, Third and Twelfth Districts; all others Districts will be entitled to two representatives and two alternates.

XVI. Immediately after Memorial Day, Post Chaplains will fill out the enclosed report of the exercises, retain one copy, and send the other to these Headquarters, where they will be collected and transmitted to the Department Chaplain.

XVII. As this is the last General Order that will be issued during the present administration, the Department Commander and Assistant Adjutant-General take this opportunity to thank the Comrades of the Department for their kindness during the past year.

XVIII. With this order will be found General Orders Nos. 6 and 7, from National Headquarters.

OF THE
TWENTY-SECOND ANNUAL ENCAMPMENT
GRAND ARMY OF THE REPUBLIC.

After an eloquent address of welcome on behalf of the city by Comrade D. B. McConnell, and a fitting response by the Department Commander, the Twenty-second Annual Encampment of the Department of Indiana Grand Army of the Republic, assembled in the Rink, Logansport, Wednesday morning, May 15, at 10 o'clock. The Encampment was opened according to the ritual, the Department Commander, David E. Beem, presiding; Comrade John E. Irwin, Post 14, Logansport, Officer of the Day, and Comrade James C. Chidister, Post 14, Logansport, Officer of the Guard. Department Chaplain H. E. Butler, Post 114, Warsaw, offered prayer.

ORDER OF BUSINESS.

The Encampment being opened, Comrade Richard M. Smock, Assistant Adjutant-General, on behalf of the Council of Administration, submitted the following Rules and Order of Business:

1. Opening of the Encampment.
2. Report of Committee on Credentials.
3. Calling Roll of Department Officers and Posts.

OUR EXCH L of C Nov 13 18

4. Commander's Address.
5. Appointment of Committees on Reports of Officers, Resolutions, and other Committees.
6. Reception and Reference of Resolutions and Communications.
7. Reports of Officers.
8. Reports of Committees.
9. Miscellaneous Business.
10. Election of Delegates and Alternates to National Encampment.
11. Election of Department Officers as follows:
 - (a) Council of Administration.
 - (b) Chaplain.
 - (c) Medical Director.
 - (d) Junior Vice-Department Commander.
 - (e) Senior Vice-Department Commander.
 - (f) Commander.
12. Installation of Officers.

The business of the Encampment shall be conducted under the "Rules of Order" of the National Encampment so far as they are applicable.

All speeches shall be limited to five minutes except by unanimous consent.

All resolutions offered shall be read and referred to the Committee on Resolutions without debate, on the first day of the Encampment. And no resolution will be considered that has not been presented to the Encampment, and signed by the party presenting it, except by unanimous consent.

In nominations for Department Officers the roll will be called by Congressional Districts, and only the name, location and Post of the Comrade shall be given.

Balloting for Delegates and Alternates to the National Encampment shall be taken in the following manner:

The Comrades from each Congressional District will assemble in District meetings on Thursday morning at 8 o'clock, in the hall, and organize by selecting a Chairman and two Tellers, whose names shall be reported to the Assistant Adjutant-General; they shall at the same time select Delegates and Alternates to the National Encampment, giving names in full, with postoffice address and number of Post they are selected from.

In balloting for Department Officers in the Encampment, the same Tellers shall collect the ballots of their respective Districts, count the same, and when the Districts are called, the Chairman of such District will announce the result of such ballot for each candidate, and send the same in writing to the Assistant Adjutant-General.

signed by the Chairman and Tellers. The Assistant Adjutant-General shall then tabulate the vote and announce the result for each candidate.

If there be any controversy in any District over the result of any ballot before it is announced, the Commander shall, upon the request of two Comrades, order the roll of said District called for verification.

In selecting the Council of Administration, the five candidates receiving the highest number of votes shall be declared elected. Every ballot to have five names upon it. Ballots having less than five names shall not be counted.

Representatives and Alternates to the National Encampment shall be elected in the same manner as Department Officers, and apportioned to each Congressional District according to the numerical strength of the District: One Representative and one Alternate for each seven hundred and fifty Comrades in good standing, and one additional Representative and Alternate for a major fraction of more than one-half of that number, apportioned as follows:

One Representative and one Alternate-at-Large.

First District—One Representative and one Alternate.

Eleventh District—One Representative and one Alternate.

Twelfth District—One Representative and one Alternate.

First District—

Second District—

Seventh District—

} Jointly one Representative and one Alternate.

Eleventh District—

Twelfth District—

} Jointly one Representative and one Alternate.

In balloting no proxies will be allowed, and no votes will be counted unless cast by Comrades present in the hall at the time the vote is taken, either by Districts or in open Encampment. After the second ballot for any office, the candidate receiving the lowest number of votes shall be dropped on each successive ballot.

The place of holding the next Encampment shall be determined before adjournment on Wednesday.

On motion of Past Department Commander D. N. Foster, the report was adopted.

COMMITTEE ON CREDENTIALS.

LOGANSFORT, IND., May 15, 1901.

To the Twenty-second Annual Encampment of the Department of Indiana, Grand Army of the Republic:

The Committee on Credentials would respectfully report that they have examined the certificates of election, as forwarded by the several Posts of the Department, and find the following to be a correct and complete roll of the Department.

DEPARTMENT COMMANDER'S ADDRESS.

The Department Commander called Senior Vice-Department Commander, Arthur R. Seward to the chair and proceeded to read his address:

HEADQUARTERS DEPARTMENT OF INDIANA,
GRAND ARMY OF THE REPUBLIC,
SPENCER, IND., May 15, 1901.

Comrades:

After the expiration of another year the Department of Indiana, Grand Army of the Republic, again meets in Annual Encampment. Our first duty is to offer thanks to Almighty God for the care and protection He has had over us as individuals and as a nation redeemed from rebellion. We meet under favorable circumstances. Notwithstanding death has been busy in our ranks, the attendance of Comrades at this our twenty-second annual Encampment is very large and is gratifying to ourselves and to our friends. It shows that the fires of patriotism, kindled to a blaze by the breath of secession in 1861 in the hearts of the soldiers of the Union, continues to glow in the breasts of those who survive with unabated warmth. We meet at a time when the material prosperity of our country exceeds that of any other nation on earth. We meet at a time when the luster and glory of our flag and the influence of our beneficent institutions are recognized throughout the world as never before. We meet at a time when the complete unification of our country appears to be more firmly established than ever, and when we can contemplate with supreme satisfaction the future of the government we saved from destruction. The cordial greeting of the thousands of citizens of all ages who have assembled to pay their generous tribute of respect and honor to us as surviving soldiers of the Republic, is truly gratifying to us. It is a pleasing evidence that a grateful people appreciates the services and sacrifices made in behalf of the Union during the years of peril and of strife. The magnificent reception and splendid hospitality of the patriotic citizens of this place demonstrate that we have made no mistake in pitching our tents and lighting our camp fires in this beautiful and progressive city. The generous and ample preparations made for our entertainment, and the evidences of welcome on every hand, give promise of not only a profitable but a pleasant sojourn here. We have met to transact such business as may properly come before us, to renew the friendships of the past, to cultivate true comradeship and to rejoice on account of the peace, happiness and prosperity of the country we love. Let us then enter upon the work of this Encampment with zest and a determination to make it memorable on account of the good accomplished and the pleasure enjoyed.

One year ago I was favored by your suffrages with the position of Commander of this Department. I felt then and do now feel profoundly grateful for the honor thus conferred upon me. To be placed at the head of this grand column of the surviving Union soldiers of our beloved State of Indiana, is an honor which may well fill the measure of any soldier's ambition. I esteemed it such, and felt that my deep gratitude could only be expressed by a faithful discharge of the duties connected with the office. Sensible of my weakness, I have endeavored to do this with all the earnestness and ability I possessed, sometimes at the sacrifice of personal comfort and interests. Except when prevented by sickness or other unavoidable hindrance, I have responded as well as I could to every call made upon me. Although it has been a year of anxiety and concern relating to the welfare of the Department, it has been a year of many pleasant experiences and delightful comradeship. It has not been practicable to visit a very large number of Posts, yet I have attended reunions, camp fires and Post meetings in nearly all parts of the State. I have everywhere received the fraternal greetings and generous hospitality of the Comrades, the memory of which will sweeten my declining years. The business affairs of the Department are happily in excellent condition, and require no unusual attention. Nevertheless, there are many matters which concern us deeply, to a few of which I now proceed to invite your thoughtful consideration.

MEMBERSHIP.

It is now more than forty years since the opening gun of the rebellion was fired, and thirty-six years have rolled by since the echoes of the last died away over the hills and valleys of the South. Of the mighty men of valor and patriotism who went forth at the call of our beloved Lincoln to lead our armies to victory, nearly all have passed away. A careful investigation shows that of the original colonels of the one hundred and fifty-six Indiana Regiments appointed by Governor Morton, sixteen only survive. The average age of the soldiers of the Civil War is over sixty years. It is not strange, therefore, that the membership of this Department should have steadily declined for several years. Notwithstanding this decline, however, the situation has some encouraging features. The membership last year was 16,615; gained during the year since, 1,706; total, if no losses, 18,321. Losses by death, 419. Losses from other causes, 1,691. Total losses, 2,110. Membership at the present time, 16,211.

We have, therefore, lost in membership during the year only fifteen members except from deaths. Considering the age, infirmity and poverty of so many of our Comrades, this is a creditable showing.

The number of Posts in good standing last year was 455; there have been organized six new Posts, and eighteen have disbanded, leaving at this time 443 Posts in good standing, a loss of 12. It is a pleasant fact to state that only three Posts, and they small ones, have failed to make proper reports and pay the per capita tax, which shows a promptness unprecedented in the history of the Department. All honor to the gray-haired veterans of this Department, who thus manifest their fidelity to the Grand Army of the Republic and are so nobly standing by their colors.

DEATHS.

It is an impressive fact that although our numbers are growing less and less each year, the death-roll increases. Four hundred and nineteen have been mustered out here, and pitched their tents on the eternal camping grounds. Every day in the year and more, the solemn procession of old soldiers with muffled drum and the dear old flag draped in mourning, follows a Comrade to the grave. Each one was entitled to the honor due to heroism, and each received the tribute of a tear from sorrowing Comrades. Among those who have answered the summons during the last year were many who were known, loved and honored throughout the Department. Brave in war, patriotic in peace, faithful in comradeship, each deserves extended notice, did space permit.

Within a month and a day of each other, there were added two names to the roll of our honored dead which brought grief to every Comrade's heart. Benjamin Harrison died on the 13th day of March, and William L. Dunlap on the 14th day of April last. The first achieved distinction for skill and valor as a volunteer officer during the war. He emphasized his patriotism and service by becoming a member of the Grand Army of the Republic. He was honored with the highest position in the gift of the greatest Nation on earth. His name is a synonym of integrity, transcendent ability and exalted statesmanship. His death was an irreparable loss to the Grand Army of the Republic, to the Nation and to the world. The second had distinguished himself by faithful services in the army, on many battlefields. He had been honored by his Comrades with the position of Commander of this Department, the duties of which he performed with great fidelity. Respected and honored by Comrades and citizens, he was laid to rest in his native town, the last sad rites being performed around his open grave by the Comrades of his Post, assisted by the Department Commander.

“The boast of heraldry, the pomp of power,
And all that beauty, all that wealth e'er gave,
Await the inevitable hour,
The paths of glory lead but to the grave.”

MEMORIAL DAY.

A third of a century ago the renowned volunteer soldier, our Comrade John A. Logan, then Commander-in-Chief of the Grand Army of the Republic, designated May 30th as a day sacred to the memory of our dead Comrades, and on which to decorate each soldier's grave with flowers, and to plant over it the flag under which he fought. He builded wiser than he knew. At first the solemn duty was performed in some localities only, usually by a limited number of Comrades. Gradually it came to be understood that the custom had not only a sentiment behind it, but that it possessed a tremendous potency in the line of patriotic teaching. The laying of a flower and the raising of a flag on the grave of a hero is more impressive than the oration of a Henry or a Webster. Not only so, but the custom has been a great educator along the lines of fine sentiment and culture. Other orders have taken up the custom. It has turned attention toward the resting places of the dead, and has reclaimed thousands of neglected cemeteries throughout the land to become places of beauty and tasteful adornment. The general observance of the day is all that can be desired, save the deplorable desecration of it in many places by games and amusements proper only on other days and occasions. Each year seems to add increased interest to the beautiful custom among all classes of citizens, and in every town, village, and even country place, the day is devoted to the memory of the noble dead whose sacrifices and heroism added new splendor to liberty and to the flag of the Union. Throughout the Department last Memorial Day was observed more generally, perhaps, than ever before.

SONS OF VETERANS.

I fear that the Sons of Veterans, as an organization, has not received the support and encouragement it deserves from Comrades of the Grand Army of the Republic. From the nature of our order, it will soon cease to exist. Our principles and teachings, however, should be immortal. Who are more likely to perpetuate our teachings and carry on our work than our worthy sons? It should be a source of pleasure to know that our sons have recognized this and have organized to accomplish the work. They do not ask to become members of the Grand Army of the Republic, to be any part of it, or to have any of its honors. They do desire, however, to have the substantial endorsement and regard of the father for the son; and as the work of the two organizations is kindred and mutual, they believe that each can be helpful to the other and that the younger can carry on the work after the older shall have become extinct. These are certainly worthy sentiments and motives. The Sons of Veterans deserve our best efforts and heartiest support.

WOMAN'S RELIEF CORPS.

When God caused a deep sleep to fall upon Adam and by that mysterious process which has always been the wonder and admiration of man, evolved woman from one of his ribs, it seems that the necessity for woman's help had its inception in the thought of the Infinite. It is a fact, however, that the idea never had its perfect development until the organization of the Woman's Relief Corps, Auxiliary to the Grand Army of the Republic. During the days of trial, hardship, suffering and battle, the soldiers of the Union had the sympathy, the prayers, and the active help of the loyal women of the land. To the honor and glory of the women, be it said they suffered with a heroism equal to the heroism of the battle-field. The loyal women of that day were equally patriotic and equally devoted to the cause of the Union, and they are now equally entitled to honor and credit with the men who bore arms. To aid and assist worthy soldiers in distress, to help care for his widow and orphans, to sympathize with and encourage the Grand Army of the Republic, to honor the cause for which he fought, to teach patriotism—these are the high and splendid purposes of the Woman's Relief Corps. We welcome their kindly efforts in our behalf, and we appreciate the sympathy and patriotic support of all loyal women.

The Department of Indiana, W. R. C., is in a flourishing condition. Under the wise administration of its President, Mrs. Laura S. Burr, with the help of so many devoted women, the zeal and efficiency of the organization are fully kept up to the high standard heretofore maintained.

THE INDIANA STATE SOLDIERS' HOME.

The erection and maintenance of a Home near Lafayette, for the benefit of needy soldiers, their wives and widows of deceased soldiers, is an honor to the State. It has been accomplished by the efforts and influence of the Grand Army of the Republic. On October 1, 1900, as appears by the report of the Board of Trustees, there were in the Home 642 persons, of whom 380 were veterans, 262 women; among the latter, 74 widows. The beneficence of this institution will be fully appreciated when it is remembered that nearly all of these aged veterans, and the wives and widows of such, who are now supported in comfort there, would otherwise be paupers in our poor-houses and asylums. I have taken occasion to visit the Home within the last few months, and have observed with pleasure the excellent organization and management of the institution. Under the able and judicious administration of the present Commandant, Comrade Stormont, and his assistants, the affairs of the Home are in excellent condition. While the inmates are provided abundantly with the necessaries and comforts of life, economy rather than extravagance seems to be the rule. The Home continues to be crowded, however, and the Board of Trustees made a strong appeal for the much needed appropriations. Although, in the opinion of the Board, supported by a very forcible statement of facts, there was urgent need for an enlarged hospital, for a widows' home, and other improvements, requiring not less than $74,000, the Legislature in its wisdom only responded with an appropriation of $32,000. When it is considered that these needy veterans and dependents can be supported here cheaper than in county poor-houses; when it is further considered that the worthy but unfortunate soldiers have a special claim upon the public, I think our honorable legislators would have done themselves credit by a little more liberality in their behalf.

THE INDIANA SOLDIERS' AND SAILORS' ORPHANS' HOME.

This institution, which is, and of right ought to be, the pride of every old soldier in the State, is maintaining its high standard as an institution of learning. It is emphatically a school as well as a home.

The children of our dead and unfortunate Comrades are here educated and trained, and thus fitted both for self-support, and to assume the duties of honorable citizenship—made ready for an even race in life with their more fortunate companions, the sons and daughters of veterans.

The moral and the religious tone of the institution is evident to all who visit the Home.

The annual report of the Superintendent shows the following important facts at the close of the fiscal year, October 31, 1900:

	Male.	Female.	Total.
Number enrolled October 31, 1899.....	373	266	639
Number admitted during year.....	70	45	115
Number discharged during year.....	63	50	113
Number remaining October 31, 1900.....	380	261	641

The number engaged in the various industrial trades, which represents the number over 13 years old, is 110 boys and 63 girls, making a total of 173.

The absolute cleanliness of the place, location, regularity of habits, etc., give the Home the highest health record among institutions throughout the land. It was my privilege to visit the institution during the year, and my information is based on personal observation and investigation.

PENSIONS.

When we consider the fact that nearly every Union soldier suffered injury from disease or wounds by reason of the exacting character of his services on the march, in the camp and on the battlefield, it is not strange that much thought and attention has been given to the question of pensions, by the soldiers and by patriotic citizens as well. That a reasonable pension for disabilities incurred while in the line of duty as a soldier is a compensation fairly earned and not a gratuity, goes without the saying. Notwithstanding the general acceptance of this proposition, however, the history of pension legislation for the last twenty-five years has been a history of continuous and persistent struggle on the part of the Grand Army of the Republic to secure justice to our Comrades along these lines. So profound has been the conviction that it is the sacred duty of the government to suitably care for those whose ability to care for themselves has been impaired by hard and faithful service, that the contest has always been waged with great earnestness and sometimes with bitterness. At nearly every Department and National Encampment this matter has been under consideration, and many able and patriotic Comrades have devoted their valuable time and serious thought to this question. Committees have been appointed to present our claims to the Congress of the United States and to the Pension Department. These committees have discharged their duty with great fidelity and zeal. It can be truthfully said, and it should be remembered by every old soldier, whether he is a member of the Order or not, that it is to the strenuous organized efforts of the Grand Army of the Republic that we are indebted for nearly all the favorable legislation we now have on the subject of pensions. On account of these determined efforts, the gratitude and sense of justice of the Nation toward its defenders have been expressed in the enactment of laws which in the main are just, generous and ample. But when this had been accomplished, and when the friends of equal and exact justice to the soldiers began to feel that at last the victory for right had been won, a new and serious condition arose. For, although legislation which seemed ample had been placed on the statute books, serious injustice had been done in the interpretation and in the administration of these laws.

So much uncertainty has appeared, and so many arbitrary and obstructive rules have been adopted, that great unrest and dissatisfaction exists among the pensioners and their friends. I sometimes think that those charged with the administration of public affairs have a narrow conception of the importance of this great question and do not fully realize the earnestness of the old soldiers in regard to it. The veterans of the civil war have been as conspicuous in their support of the government in time of peace as they were loyal in time of rebellion. They risked their lives for the Union when it was in peril, and they have faithfully stood by every administration which they believed to be in the right since the war. But it is not safe for those in authority to assume that there is no limit to forbearance. Congressmen, Senators, Cabinet Officers, Presidents and all in authority should know that the men who in time of war struck so many valiant blows for the Union and for the right, can in time of peace, if the necessity arise, in the way that freemen express their choice, strike effective blows for their own rights. The men who marched forth at the call of Lincoln to defend the flag of the Union, and who proved their valor on the battlefields of the South, are not the men to ask more than what is just and right for themselves, and as men of spirit and courage, they will be satisfied with nothing less. We should continue to agitate this subject until every wrong has been righted, until every irregularity in the administration of the pension laws has been corrected and every unreasonable rule in the Pension Office has been abrogated. We have a right to demand that the Pension Office shall be under the control of those who are at least not unfriendly to the soldier and who are not constantly seeking to minimize his allowance. We should continue to make ourselves heard until a Pension Court of Appeals shall have been established, so that there may be an opportunity for the judicial determination of all controverted questions arising under the pension laws.

DEPARTMENT AFFAIRS.

The financial condition of the Department and the general work of the year can be fully learned from the reports of the Assistant Adjutant-General, and other members of the staff and committee, which will be submitted in due time. To all of these I invite your careful consideration. They disclose a satisfactory condition. I may say for your gratification that peace, harmony and excellent comradeship have prevailed throughout the borders of the Department, and probably at no period have the cardinal teachings of our Order—Fraternity, Charity and Loyalty—been more fully exemplified than during the last year.

In this connection I would be ungrateful not to mention the faithful assistance given me in my official duties by all the Department officers. I tender my profound thanks to all. The same may be said of the Comrades throughout the Department. The kindness, the hospitality, the forbearance, the comradeship everywhere extended, have touched my heart deeply.

STATE SOLDIERS' AND SAILORS' MONUMENT.

It is with great pleasure that I am able to announce that the monument erected at Indianapolis in honor of the soldiers and sailors of Indiana is nearing completion and will be ready for dedication at an early day. Whether considered as a work of art, or as the testimonial of a grateful people to the patriotism and valor of those who bore arms in defense of the Union, the structure is one of which the people of the State and of the Nation may be justly proud.

It is the desire of Governor Durbin and all patriotic citizens that the dedication shall be in keeping with the imposing character of the monument and the glorious cause it represents. While the people of the State have been generous in providing funds for the completion of this great work, the Grand Army of the Republic has had much to do in its inception and progress. It is, therefore, fitting that this Department should be suitably represented on the occasion of its dedication. To this end I recommend that the present Encampment appoint a committee of, say, nine members, whose duty it shall be to represent the Department in all matters pertaining to the dedication of the monument, in connection with the Governor of the State and such other committees as may properly be appointed to accomplish the purpose.

NATIONAL ENCAMPMENT.

The National Encampment for the year 1900, was held in the great city of Chicago. In point of attendance, enthusiasm and manifestation of genuine comradeship, it was not behind its predecessors. As Commander of the Department of Indiana, I was proud of the showing there made by our Comrades. The attendance was large, the interest was good, the parade was fine, and our Department held up its banner proudly. I urge your attendance at the next National Encampment to meet in the beautiful city of Cleveland, Ohio. Comrades, when the bugle sounds for our State and National Encampments, let us fall into line, touch elbows as of old, and again drink from the same canteen.

A FINAL WORD.

Comrades of the Department of Indiana, a year ago you saluted me as your Commander, and I am now about to take my leave of you as such, but thank God, I am not saying farewell to the Grand Army of the Republic. I shall salute my successor, and try to be as loyal to him as you have been to me. Henceforth my place will be in the ranks, and whether the march be long or short, there I expect to die.

As surviving Union soldiers, the past of our lives is secure. The war of the Union is not a memory only. It is true, it was crowded with pleasant associations and glorious deeds, but what is far better, it has been crowned with results of untold good to liberty, humanity and Christian civilization. The legions of Cæsar added luster to the Roman Eagles; the Invincibles of Cromwell made a great name in English history; the Old Guard of Napoleon never surrendered, but died at Waterloo; and the Continental Army rallied around Washington during seven years of immortal contest against tyranny. All these are written high on the roll of fame, but not above that splendid volunteer army which put down the greatest rebellion in history, which lifted high the banner of a redeemed Republic, purified, strengthened and destined to lead all the nations of the earth in power, and glory and human freedom.

And now we turn our faces serenely to the future. The roar of cannon, the rattle of musketry, and the shouts of battle, once so familiar, have died away on our ears forever, and we are beginning to hear voices from the other shore, whither so many of our Comrades have gone on and pitched their eternal tents. May the God of battles lead us all safely to their Encampment!

DAVID E. BEEM,
Department Commander.

When the Department Commander had completed the reading of his address, Senior Vice-Department Commander Seward referred it to the following comrades as a committee:

William A. Ketcham, Post 17; C. J. Limpus, Post 18; Robert W. Harrison, Post 42; Thomas E. Boyd, Post 133; William B. Hess, Post 260.

At this point of the proceedings, Comrade Ben Starr, Post 55, moved that the reports of all the elective and appointive officers be printed without reading. The motion was seconded and unanimously adopted.

SENIOR VICE-DEPARTMENT COMMANDER'S REPORT.

INDIANAPOLIS, IND., May 15, 1901.

R. M. Smock, Assistant Adjutant-General:

DEAR SIR AND COMRADE—I have the honor to herewith submit my report for the year ending this date as Senior Vice-Commander of this Department. I want to express to the Comrades of the Department my high appreciation of the honor conferred upon me in selecting me to this honorable office. The duties have not been laborious, because of the fact that the Department Commander has been very active and earnest in his work during the past year. It has been my pleasure to visit a number of Posts, and especially those in the district in which I live, and I have always been received with a soldier's welcome by the Comrades and the Posts that I have attended. When the opportunity has presented itself I have talked in the interests of our beloved Order and encouraged those who were in the Order to be more faithful to their duties, and to those who were not in I have advised them to join some Post, so that in the declining years of the members we might stand together in the interests of the Veteran and his dependent ones. It is very gratifying to know that the affairs of the Department have been so ably and successfully conducted that all reports due from Posts and Department Officers have been promptly made, and at this time there are only three Posts that have not made their reports, showing that a greater interest has been manifested during the past year than possibly in many years past.

I can only say, in conclusion, that I desire to thank your Commander and the other officers and Comrades for their kindness during the year that we have served together. I trust that every member of the Order will use his utmost efforts to bring back into our ranks those who have permitted themselves to be suspended or dropped, so that, as time passes on, we may still be a united and efficient organization, teaching patriotism, love of country, honor and respect to the Flag, and caring for the needs of those who are unfortunate and needy.

Respectfully submitted in F., C. and L.,

A. R. SEWARD,

Senior Vice-Department Commander.

JUNIOR VICE-DEPARTMENT COMMANDER'S REPORT.

ARGOS, IND., May 15, 1901.

R. M. Smock, Assistant Adjutant-General:

DEAR SIR AND COMRADE—I have the pleasure of herewith submitting my report for the past year:

Having been chosen by my Comrades at Indianapolis as your Junior Vice-Department Commander, I want to thank you for the honor conferred. I have tried to perform the duties of the office as best I could. I have installed Post Officers, visited Posts and attended soldiers' reunions. I have been accorded a Comrade's greeting wherever I have been, and, so far as my observation goes, the Order is flourishing. The membership in my own Post has been increased more than one-half the past year. With my Post I attended the National Encampment at Chicago, and as one of the Reception Committee at Headquarters I did what I could to help make everything pleasant. I felt proud of Indiana's G. A. R. in that great parade.

I am glad to note, as the years go by, the old Union soldier is more respected by all classes of citizens.

I desire to tender my sincere thanks to Department Commander Beem and Assistant Adjutant-General Smock for the many courtesies extended me during my official connection with the Grand Army.

Comrades, again I want to thank you for the honors conferred on me, and may God bless you all!

Respectfully submitted in F., C. and L.,

JOHN C. GORDON,

Junior Vice-Department Commander.

At this point the roll of districts was called for the presentation of resolutions, which were read and referred. The resolutions and matters relative to a change in the ritual so as to provide for an honorary rank in the Grand Army of the Republic, presented by Comrade A. M. Weston, Post 148, Newcastle, were referred to a special committee composed of the following comrades:

Thomas E. Boyd, Post 133, A. M. Weston, Post 148, Past Department Commander, Daniel Ryan, Post 20, D. B. McConnell, Post 14, C. B. Broderick, Post 198, B. B. Campbell, Post 244.

Following the precedent heretofore established, and carrying out the instructions of the Council of Administration, the affairs of the Department have been conducted with the strictest economy consistent with the welfare of the Order. I have promptly made and forwarded all reports required by the Rules and Regulations to National Headquarters.

It is gratifying to be able to say that Post reports at this time are in better condition and more nearly complete, than ever before. The fact remains, however, that this has only been attained by persistent work in urging officers to make out and forward the returns due from them. The neglect of duty in this respect by some of the Post officers greatly retards and renders unnecessarily difficult the work at Department Headquarters, and considerably increases the expense. In many instances from three to five letters have been written before the information sought was obtained. It would be gratifying indeed if all Post officers would promptly answer correspondence from Headquarters.

There has been issued during the year ten General Orders, and thirty-seven dispensations for special muster. Many Posts have shown a marked increase in interest and membership and I believe that a united effort on the part of Post officers would result in many gains. It is certainly true that as age advances, the ties of comradeship increase, the nearer we approach the end of our existence as an Order, the stronger the desire to stand together for the advancement of the interests of the veterans and their dependent ones.

Many Posts have reported the loss of their Charter and hall furniture by fire, and few, if any, have carried insurance. I would recommend that Post officers look after this question, and place a small amount of insurance upon their property, and thus protect themselves against loss.

In compliance with the action of the last Encampment, a committee consisting of Comrades Robert S. Foster, James R. Carnahan, and William H. Armstrong, was appointed to prepare a concise history of this Department from the year 1866, when it was first organized, until 1879, when it was reorganized, as during that period no records were preserved. This committee will submit a report, which will be made part of the proceedings of this Encampment, so that hereafter we shall have a correct and complete history of this Department from its first organization in 1866.

I feel confident that much good could be done by the Aides appointed upon the staff of the Department Commander. I regret, however, to say that out of the entire number recommended by Post Commanders for appointment, only thirty-one notified Headquarters of their acceptance. If all who had been recommended for appointment had accepted, and made systematic visitation of the Posts in their locality, it would have inspired the Comrades to activity that would have resulted in great good to the Order.

To you, Commander, I desire to express my high appreciation of your confidence and esteem. I have at all times endeavored to serve you and the Department to the best of my ability. Our relations have been of the most pleasant character, and I shall always cherish them. To all Officers and Comrades of the Department, I wish to express my sincere thanks for their kindness during the past year. I bespeak for my successor the same consideration shown me, and trust that this Department may continue to be one of the best in the National Encampment.

Respectfully submitted in F., C. and L.,

R. M. SMOCK,

Assistant Adjutant-General.

At the meeting of the Council of Administration, one year ago, a committee consisting of Comrades Ivan N. Walker, Irvin Robbins and William A. Ketcham, was appointed to dispose of the lots 1 and 2 in Bell's subdivision of Johnson's heirs' addition to the city of Indianapolis. This committee has been diligent in its efforts to dispose of this property, at an advantage to the Department. They will report to you the result of their work.

I desire to add that they certainly deserve the thanks of the Department for the efficient manner in which they have performed the duty entrusted to them.

The Department now has in cash the sum of $2,716.52, and I therefore recommend that the incoming Department Commander and Council of Administration be authorized to make a loan of $1,200 on first mortgage security at the best rate of interest they can obtain.

To you, Commander, and all Officers and Comrades of the Department, I again express my appreciation of your kindness and consideration during the work of the past year.

Respectfully submitted in F., C. and L.,

R. M. SMOCK,
Assistant Quartermaster-General.

INDIANAPOLIS, IND., May 6, 1901.

To the Department Commander:

Your committee appointed to audit the books of the Assistant Adjutant-General and the Assistant Quartermaster-General report that we have carefully examined the books, receipts and disbursements, and find they are carefully kept in a businesslike manner. We found the amount of cash in the bank and on hand May 1, $2,716.52.

In view of the fact that our ranks are daily growing thinner, it is gratifying to your committee to be able to report that by careful management on the part of the administration our expenses have been kept within the limits of our decreasing receipts.

Respectfully submitted in F., C. and L.,

J. O. PEDIGO,

J. W. TINGLE,

B. B. CAMPBELL,

Auditing Committee.

On motion the report was approved and adopted.

JUDGE ADVOCATE'S REPORT.

BEDFORD, IND., May 15, 1901.

*R. M. Smock. Assistant Adjutant-General. Department of Indiana,
G. A. R.:*

DEAR SIR AND COMRADE—I have the honor to submit herewith my report as Judge Advocate for the year ending April 30, 1901. I desire, through you, to return to our worthy Comrade and Department Commander, David E. Beem, my sincere thanks for the honor conferred in tendering me this appointment.

During the year I have been called upon to render very few opinions, the condition of the Department being such that no controversies of a serious nature have arisen. The questions referred to me were those in regard to the construction of the Rules and Regulations, where there seemed to be an honest difference of opinion. And it is very gratifying to know that there is such unanimity of feeling and good-fellowship among the Comrades of the Department, and that Fraternity and Charity among them has so extensively prevailed, and loyalty to the Order and its principles has been the flower worn by all. This speaks well for the manner in which the affairs of the Department are conducted.

I wish to acknowledge my indebtedness and gratitude to Comrade R. M. Smock, the Assistant Adjutant-General, for courtesies and kindness shown. His long experience and his knowledge of the Laws, Rules and Regulations, together with his extensive acquaintance in the Department, has been of great value to me, he having answered many questions that have been submitted, thus relieving me of the work of preparing opinions at a time when I was unable so to do by reason of a sickness that has continued for the past three months, rendering me unable to be present at the present Encampment, which I very much regret. I would recommend that each Post in the Department procure and keep on file in the Post room the latest edition of "The Blue Book" and Rules and Regulations. Questions that might arise could then be quickly disposed of in accordance with the Rules and Regulations of the Order.

In closing my term as one of the Department Officers, I wish to return my thanks to all the Comrades for uniform courtesies and kindnesses extended me during the year past.

Respectfully submitted in F., C. and L.,

JOHN D. ALEXANDER,
Judge Advocate.

been acquired through a loan made to Sidney H. Johnson, beg leave to report the sale of the lots to John F. O'Donnell for the sum of $1,800.00, of which amount $1,100.00 was paid in cash and the balance in notes with mortgage, due on or before one, two and three years, at 5 per cent. interest, the interest payable semi-annually, which money, together with the notes and mortgage, was deposited with the Assistant Quartermaster-General.

While this amount does not make the Department whole—as the loan was for $2,000.00—yet the committee deem it a fortunate sale, as the city is now taking steps to pave the streets adjoining this property, which would have necessitated the payment of about $800 additional for improvements, without expectation of adequate return in the near future, if the sale had not been effected.

THE GRAND ARMY OF THE REPUBLIC IN INDIANA.

A committee consisting of Past Department Commanders Robert S. Foster and James R. Carnahan, and Comrade William H. Armstrong, previously appointed to prepare a history of the organization of the Grand Army of the Republic in Indiana, submitted the following REPORT :

INDIANAPOLIS, IND., April 16, 1901.

David E. Beem, Commander Department of Indiana, G. A. R.:

COMRADE—We, the committee appointed by you to prepare a sketch of the birth and early history of the Grand Army of the Republic in the State of Indiana, beg leave to make the following report:

The period embraced in this sketch, as we understand our instructions and the wish of this Department, as expressed by the motion of Past Commander-in-Chief Ivan N. Walker, which was adopted by the Department Encampment of Indiana of May 16 and 17, 1900, begins with the first work of the organization of the Grand Army of the Republic in the summer of 1866, and through the first year of its existence, and ending with the term of Louis Humphrey as Department Commander. Your committee is of the opinion that a short sketch should also be given of the later reorganization, or, more properly speaking, the second organization of this Department.

As a historical fact, to the Union soldiers of Indiana is due the credit of breathing the first breath of life into the great soldier organization that was in 1866 christened "The Grand Army of the Republic," and the actual birthplace of the infant society was in the city of Indianapolis. Four men, two of them yet living, are responsible for the birth of this body of associated and affiliated Union veterans of the Civil War—Dr. B. F. Stephenson, late a Major and Surgeon of Volunteers, of Illinois; Governor Oliver P. Morton, General R. S. Foster and Major Oliver M. Wilson, of Indiana. The author of the first Ritual and the first Constitution, afterward known as Rules and Regulations, was Surgeon B. F. Stephenson, and, as will be seen from the facts herein set forth, with the writing of these two documents his work in the original organization practically ceased. The intention of Dr. Stephenson was to bring about an organization of the Union veterans, but the special object or purpose to be attained thereby does not seem to have been very clearly defined in his mind. The material furnished by his Ritual and Constitution was magnificent, but with this material he was unable either to plan and lay the foundation or rear the superstructure; it was a quarry of splendid but undeveloped stone, for which he needed the master workmen and skillful builders to take it from the mine, to work out the plans and adapt them to great and good uses. He found the master mind in Oliver P. Morton, the builder in General R. S. Foster and his no less efficient assistant, Major Oliver M. Wilson.

How was this great structure builded, wherein was found the incentive? Two purposes brought about the enthusiasm and the determination in the mind of Morton to put the work of Stephenson into actual living form and shape. One motive was political and the other was to unite the energies and work of the Union veterans in a channel that would conduce to their ultimate welfare personally. It was to be a union of interests politically and for their benefit in future legislation. The year of 1866 began with a great political contest, to be waged by the men who had opposed the Union cause on one side, and on the other the men who, like Morton, though not himself an actual soldier, had been a strong tower of strength to Abraham Lincoln and the national arms, and the steadfast and devoted friend of the soldier "in blue" from 1861 to 1865. Morton had by some means learned of Dr. Stephenson and of his desire to bring about a soldier organization and of his failure to attain his desires. It was at first thought that this proposed organization could not be made effective in Indiana. At the request of Governor Morton, General Foster went to Springfield, Ill., to see and consult with Dr. Stephenson. This was in the month of July, 1866. General Foster's account of his interview with Dr. Stephenson is as follows:

"I called upon Major Stephenson in Springfield, and he took me to his office; he there told me of a Ritual he had written for an ex-Union soldiers' organization, and read portions of it to me, from manuscript, explaining the object and plan of the Order. I thought it was just what we wanted in Indiana, and so told him. He said he had trouble in getting the 'boys' there to take hold of it; that it was a good thing; that he would be glad to have me bring it to Indiana and organize it in our State. He manifested great anxiety and zeal in getting it introduced, and expressed himself as very anxious that we should introduce it in Indiana. He administered to me the obligation of the Ritual for this purpose and gave me the Constitution and Ritual. He gave me the manuscript of both the Ritual and the Constitution. I brought them to Indiana and at once communicated with Major Wilson and fixed a time and place to meet a few chosen comrades, to whom I administered the same obligation that I had taken from Major Stephenson from a strip of paper. These comrades became the nucleus for a Department organization—my first charter members. No Commission or Warrant was given to me by any one claiming to be authority in the Order; such an assumption to commission me was never claimed or exercised by Stephenson; I was left to do as I thought best; but after consulting with my comrades here—upon giving them the obligation—I was made, by their unanimous vote, Department Commander, under the form of the Constitution I had brought from Major Stephenson, and at once commenced the organization of our State. The comrades chosen by me to receive the first muster in the Order in Indiana were Major Oliver M. Wilson, General Dan Macauley, Colonel William H. Schlater, Colonel Cyrus J. Dobbs, Major J. N. Scott, Captain Eli Ritter and two or three others whose names are now forgotten. Our names were enrolled upon our Charter, and this was displayed at our Headquarters as our authority to organize the Grand Army of the Republic.

"Upon being chosen Department Commander I first gave attention to details of the organization in selecting trusty comrades to visit different parts of the State. In this city (Indianapolis) the organization was rapid. General Dan Macauley organized his Post August 11, 1866, and on August 22, 1866, his Post, then about 1,000 strong, turned out to receive and welcome Governor Oglesby and Colonel Ingersoll, of Illinois." Subsequent to the 11th of August musters were being rapidly made in many portions of Indiana during August and September, 1866. On August 17, 1866, an editorial in the Daily Gazette of Indianapolis called attention to the Grand Army of the Republic and indorsed its organization. It became necessary at the start, early in August, 1866, to procure the printing of the Constitution, Ritual, Charter, blanks, etc. This printing was placed in the hands of Captain Charles W. Brouse, then a member of the firm of Downey & Brouse, printers. Captain Brouse supervised in person this printing, especially the Ritual, by comrades, members of the Order. Captain Brouse has been able to find among the entries of his books of that day certain entries of work done for the Grand Army of the Republic, Department of Indiana, as well as for Posts, and has furnished this committee the appended statement of printing done for Department Headquarters and Posts in 1866, which statement is referred to and made a part of this paper. It will be observed that on August 22, 1866, Downey & Brouse delivered 3,000 Constitutions, 500 Certificates (Charters) and 1,000 Secret Work to Headquarters. This Secret Work was the Ritual, and this entry shows that they were additional to what had already been printed and furnished Department Headquarters, as the number printed of the Ritual corresponded with the number printed of the Constitution. Captain Brouse thinks he received the first order for this printing in the early part of July, but is unable to find the job-book or blotter upon which orders were entered. He remembers that Major Wilson required his personal supervision, as the work was secret. He communicated with Major Wilson only concerning the printing, and received his orders from him for Department Headquarters. He remembers, also, Major Wilson's desire at one time to hasten the printing that he might comply with a request from Illinois for a supply of Constitutions, Rituals and blanks. Previous to the date of this last delivery to Headquarters of the Rituals and Constitutions, General Foster issued his first General Order No. 1, announcing his staff, as follows:

"Headquarters Department of Indiana,
 "Grand Army of the Republic,
 "Adjutant-General's Office,
 "Indianapolis, Ind., August 20, 1866.

"General Orders
 "No. 1.

"The following named officers are hereby announced on duty at these Headquarters:

"Col. W. H. Schlater, Aide-de-Camp and Chief of Staff.
 "Maj. O. M. Wilson, Adjutant-General.

"By order of

"R. S. FOSTER,

"(Official.)

"Commander Department of Indiana.

"Assistant Adjutant-General."

Up to this time authority had been delegated to Aides in writing, under which they were organizing Posts throughout the State. The same officers had been acting and were everywhere recognized, but it was not considered necessary to make a formal announcement of the staff until this time. There was doubtless a purpose in withholding the announcement until such time as would show an organization of sufficient magnitude in Indiana to justify the order. When it was found that the soldiers in Indiana were enthusiastic over the organization, and after a good many thousands had been enrolled in Posts, and after a vast amount of printing had been done, General Foster sent Major Wilson to Springfield to consult with Major Stephenson as to what then was and would be expected of us in pushing the Order to such strength and beyond the limits of Indiana, for one of General Foster's Aides had stepped over into Michigan and organized one or more Posts in that State. "Tell him," said Foster, "we've drawn an elephant." Major Wilson went to Springfield at once, and of his interview with Major Stephenson says: "I found him feeling disappointed in what he claimed the failure of his own boys to 'take hold of it,' stating to me: 'They don't seem to appreciate such a thing.' He gave as a reason that they didn't want to have anything to do with any organization that seemed to forecast restraint upon their actions and to require them to observe forms and methods; that the free and easy 'hurrah' style of soldiers suited them best, and that these meetings the 'boys' would attend. He felt a corresponding degree of pleasure when told of our success. He said, further, that somehow the right kind of men could not be interested there, or with him, but that as we were in a big fight in Indiana—meaning our campaign—we could get the boys to take hold of it, because we had a Morton in the fight. During all the interviews with Dr. Stephenson he never once alluded to any Grand Army organization in Illinois, or anywhere else; he left the impression by his words and acts that there was no such organization as a Department, especially in his State. I was not introduced to any comrades as Grand Army men; he never spoke of any Post organizations; the whole tenor of his conversation was in lamentation that he could not get the boys to take hold of it; that he had tired of it and did not make it succeed. He became enthusiastic over the work and read portions of it to me. He asked my opinion of the Constitution and Ritual. I told him my only objection to any of it was in the name; it was a too cumbersome one, and sounded like a play word for children; that I thought if he could get one to reflect the character of the organization and at the same time reflect the character of the men who compose it, the boys would probably more cheerfully be drawn to it, but that 'Grand Army of the Republic' sounded like buncombe.

"He frankly said the same objection had been made by others, but that he could think of no other name. I remember I wanted him to feel that it was not his work that seemed to lack appreciation by the 'boys,' but that it might be the name. I met other soldiers there at that time, among them Generals Mather and Webber. My recollection now is that they concurred with me as to the name of the organization, saying that it was the name chosen by the 'old man,' meaning Dr. Stephenson, of whom they spoke with much love, and that he was disappointed in not having his 'Grand Army' 'seized on by the boys'; that he had put a good deal of time and labor on it, and, therefore, they encouraged him in every way they could, but they doubted if the 'old man' would make it a success now or was the right one to start it. 'The boys here,' said General Mather, 'don't seem to take to it; they don't want any play soldier in theirs.' General Webber said: 'You Hoosiers are the very boys to take hold of it; you've got a big fight in your State, and if anybody can put it on its feet, Sandy Foster can,' meaning General R. S. Foster."

At the time of the organization of the Grand Army of the Republic, in July, 1866, no "authority" for such organization was given or received from any person, officer or body of men assuming to represent or to be the Grand Army of the Republic. No petition or request to be permitted to organize went to any person or persons. There was absolutely no "authority" or constituted body to whom application could be made. The only warrant for General Foster was the request of Dr. Stephenson to take the Ritual and Constitution, which he gathered up in manuscript from his coat pockets, from his office desk and from his residence, and placed in General Foster's hands, "and organize it in Indiana." At no time from the time that the first little band of comrades received and took upon themselves the obligation of the Grand Army, read from the original manuscript, which General Foster had received from Dr. Stephenson—this in July, 1866—until the first formation of the National Encampment in Indianapolis, November 22, 1866, did General Foster or any Post or the Indiana Department report to Dr. Stephenson or any other person or persons outside of the Department of the Indiana Grand Army of the Republic. There was no badge of the Grand Army of the Republic devised or made to designate the membership until it was devised by Major Oliver M. Wilson and Captain A. O. Behm, of Indiana, and adopted by the Department of Indiana and then was manufactured at Lafayette, Ind.

THE DEPARTMENT COMMANDERS.

It is as well that at this point we name the Department Commanders in their order in Indiana prior to and at the disbanding of the Department under the original organization.

First. General R. S. Foster was elected Department Commander of Indiana, Grand Army of the Republic, in August, 1866, and his "General Order No. 1" was issued August 20, 1866. At this time he was the first Department Commander, and there had not been nor was there at that time any other Department Commander of the Grand Army of the Republic in existence. This General Order No. 1 we have already set out in this paper. Major Oliver M. Wilson was the first Assistant Adjutant-General of the Grand Army, having been appointed by General Foster. It is well also to state that he was the first Adjutant-General, for after the National organization was effected he served in that capacity. General Foster served as Department Commander of Indiana until his election as the first Junior Vice-Commander-in-Chief at the first National Encampment, November 22, 1866.

Second. General Nathan Kimball was elected Department Commander on November 22, 1866, and served until January 29, 1868.

Third. On the retirement of General Kimball General R. S. Foster was again elected as Department Commander and served until May, 1869.

Fourth. At the Department Encampment of May, 1869, Major Oliver M. Wilson, who had served continuously from the first administration of General Foster as Adjutant-General, and afterward under General Kimball, and then again under General Foster, as Assistant Adjutant-General, was unanimously elected Department Commander of Indiana, and served as such until January 31, 1870. Upon entering upon his duties as Department Commander, Comrade Wilson appointed Comrade Moses G. McLain as Assistant Adjutant-General.

Fifth. Colonel Louis Humphrey, of South Bend, was elected as Department Commander January 31, 1870, and continued in command until the disbanding of the Department and of the Grand Army of the Republic in most of the Departments in 1870 and 1871.

GROWTH OF THE ORIGINAL G. A. R.

From the time the organization in Indiana was commenced, early in July, 1866, when Foster administered the obligation to his nine or ten comrades, there was a demand for instruction in the work from every Post. Aides were sent to nearly every county. Posts were organized first in groups, by giving the obligation only, and afterward, upon getting the Ritual, they were mustered in due form, when, on the 20th of August, 1866, General Foster issued his first General Order No. 1. It is impossible now to even estimate the strength of the Order in this State at that time; it numbered many thousands. The State was divided into districts, and the Posts, instead of being numbered as now in order of muster throughout the State, were numbered in order of their muster in each district. The first Post at Indianapolis, District of Marion, was No. 1; the first Post at Terre Haute was No. 1, District of Vigo; the Post at Marion was Post No. 1, District of Grant, and so throughout the State.

When the Pittsburg Soldiers' and Sailors' Convention assembled in September, 1866, the Grand Army of the Republic in Indiana had representatives there from many Posts, who were authorized to speak for 30,000 of their Comrades in the fellowship of the Order in the Department of Indiana. At this convention Indiana was represented by Grand Army Delegates in pursuance of the following Order and Circular of Instructions, dated September 12, 1866:

*“Headquarters Department of Indiana,
“Grand Army of the Republic.
“Indianapolis, Ind., September 12, 1866.*

“....., Commander District of “SIR—I am directed by Major General R. S. Foster, commanding Department of Indiana, Grand Army of the Republic, to request you to take immediate measures for a full representation, en masse, or by Delegates, from your District to the Pittsburg Convention of Soldiers and Sailors, to be held on the 25th of this month.

“No convention of a similar character has ever been held, and it becomes us, as loyal soldiers, to cordially respond to this call.

“The American Volunteer Army, though disbanded, is yet a unit, and the same high emotions which knit its members together when hardships came or the conflict raged still actuate the mass of our soldiers.

“No credentials are necessary, except loyalty. Indiana presented them in the ‘Field,’ and let it ever be said, ‘She stands ready, at any time, in any way, to present them anywhere on the face of the Globe.’

“O. M. WILSON,
“Adjutant-General, Department.

“(Official.)

Many of our Indiana soldiers came en masse, but as soon as they reported at Indiana Headquarters they were in due form obligated as Grand Army men. The first ribbon badge worn by a G. A. R. man at that convention distinguished Indiana soldiers. The same badge was given to comrades of other States, who were then at Indiana Headquarters given the obligation of the Ritual. That badge bore the title, “Grand Army of the Republic—Indiana.” It was a pure white silk badge. It was the first badge to designate a G. A. R. man. The Department of Indiana went to Pittsburg to establish the Grand Army throughout the States of the Union—to sow the seed for a National organization—and to this end the Adjutant-General of the Department of Indiana administered the obligation of the Ritual to many soldiers of different States at that convention and supplied them with copies of the Constitution and Ritual, Charter, blanks, etc., and instructions necessary to enable them to organize their States. During this time this Department was regarded as the only Department or organized body of the Grand Army of the Republic in existence. Says Major O. M. Wilson, the Adjutant-General: “All correspondence with the Department shows that there was no other organized body of the G. A. R., as no mention was made of any other until after the Pittsburg Convention. In fact, the Department officers of Indiana, in July, August and September, 1866, never heard of any State or Post organization in other States, maintaining their character as such. We had no correspondence with any such. We had no knowledge of any other Grand Army representation in Pittsburg than our own. We saw no Grand Army men there from other States, nor badges to be distinguished as such, other than our own. Soldiers from sister States came there as Delegates and Representatives of the ‘Soldiers’ and Sailors’ Convention,’ as did those notably from Illinois, Wisconsin and Iowa. While we made no effort to excel in any respect, though ‘found at the front’ at the roll-call of that convention, yet it was with gratifying pride we saw, borne by our Comrades of that city, in that great torch-light procession, a banner bearing this then ‘strange’ device: ‘All hail to the Grand Army of the Republic!’ and heard it said of our ‘boys,’ ‘Indiana takes the lead of all the States in point of organization of her Delegates.’”

It was the privilege and honor of this Department, by our Adjutant-General, to give to a number of distinguished soldiers at that convention the obligation of the Ritual of the G. A. R. Among the number were—

General J. B. McKeon, of New York.
General Shaw, of Rhode Island.
General Dennison, of Maryland.
General Whittaker, of Connecticut.
General Hartranft, of Pennsylvania.
General Jardine, of New Jersey.
General Young, of Ohio.
Colonel Lubey, of District of Columbia.
Colonel Fairleigh, of Kentucky.
Major Anderson, of Kansas.
Captain Quint, of Massachusetts.
General Vandever, of Iowa.

To all these Comrades, and to many others, Rituals, Constitutions, Charters, Blanks, etc., were supplied. And not only at Pittsburg but at all times the Department of Indiana furnished gratuitously Rituals, Constitutions, Blanks, etc., to every State that applied. Post No. 1, of Philadelphia, was organized in October of 1866 on one of our blank charters, with the name of R. S. Foster erased, and then signed by B. F. Stephenson, Commander-in-Chief. In this connection, it should be borne in mind that there never was a Commander-in-Chief of the Grand Army of the Republic until November 22, 1866, when the first one, General Stephen A. Hurlburt, was elected by the First National Encampment. The Grand Army had now become so strong in Indiana that it became necessary to lighten the burden upon Department Headquarters, and to this end General Orders No. 5, Department Indiana, dated November 1, 1866, was issued, placing upon a selected comrade in each county the duty of command of the several Posts in his county, to whom they should report direct, instead of to Headquarters. The order is as follows:

ADJUTANT-GENERAL'S OFFICE,
INDIANAPOLIS, IND., November 1, 1866.

2. Post Commander will henceforth receive all instructions from their respective District Commanders.

3. District Commanders are directed to conform strictly to the provisions specified in Articles 3 and 6, Constitution G. A. R., and report their District organization forthwith to these Headquarters, together with number and strength of each Post in their command.

By order of the Commander of the Department,

O. M. WILSON,

Adjutant-General Department.

Though we were not in correspondence with Illinois, never having received any orders to report, or otherwise recognize that State as having a Department organization, yet we always recognized in Major B. F. Stephenson the head or father of the Order, from the fact of receiving from him the Constitution and Ritual, and the right in him to claim for his State the paternity of the Order so far as the writing of the Constitution and Ritual could give him such right; and when, after the Pittsburg convention, the organization began to increase in other States, notably New York, Massachusetts, Maryland and Pennsylvania, and as it seemed possible to make a National organization, Indiana Headquarters deferred to Illinois, on Stephenson's account solely, for the reasons stated, it being his request to be recognized as the originator of the society then known as the Grand Army of the Republic, and therefore the proper one to call such National Encampment to assemble at Indianapolis. At the time of calling a National Encampment a number of Posts had been organized in Illinois, some of which, as well as their Department Headquarters, which at that time had been organized, had been recipients of favors from Indiana Headquarters. One fact stands forth in the history of the Grand Army which is, that at the time of the Soldiers' and Sailors' convention at Pittsburg, Indiana alone had been organized as a Department of the Grand Army.

Indiana Headquarters did not question with Stephenson the propriety for him to take the initiative, he being the author of the Ritual, Indiana deemed him the proper source from whom an order should come assembling such Encampment, but at the same time, it was agreed that when called the Encampment should assemble in the City of Indianapolis in expressed recognition by Stephenson and others, that we were the proper ones to have it; that we were entitled to have our Department so recognized as being the one from which the Grand Army of the Republic had gone out to be known throughout the country, and on this account, and because of our great strength as a Department, the First National Encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic was held in Indianapolis in the capitol of the State that was first organized and recognized by Major Stephenson and all others as a Department of the Grand Army of the Republic. The Indiana Delegates were chosen in obedience to Special Orders No. 31, dated Headquarters Department of Indiana, Grand Army of the Republic, Adjutant-General's Office, Indianapolis, Indiana, November 5, 1866, of which the following is a true copy:

ADJUTANT-GENERAL'S OFFICE,
INDIANAPOLIS, IND., November 5, 1866.

SPECIAL ORDERS

No. 31.

I. In obedience to Special Order No. 13, dated Headquarters G. A. R., Springfield, Illinois, directing the assembling of the "National Convention of the Grand Army of the Republic, in the City of Indianapolis, November 22nd," the following instructions are issued for the benefit and guidance of the District Commanders of this Department:

II. District Commanders, assigned by General Orders No. 5, dated Headquarters G. A. R., Department of Indiana, November 1, 1866, will hasten the organization of their respective Districts, as therein specified and enjoined, as far as is in their power to do, a strict and immediate conformance to instructions contained in Special Orders No. 13, accompanying.

III. Delegates to the National Convention will receive their credentials through their respective District Commanders. These credentials will be taken up at these Headquarters, and a "Card" given therefor, in order that a proper record may be had of Delegations of this Department in said Convention, and for the better and more convenient preservation of said credentials by Headquarters Department of Indiana.

IV. District Commanders will not receive Delegates from Posts that have not complied with Section 1, Article VII, Constitution G. A. R. An immediate compliance with the requirements of Section 1, Article VII, is earnestly desired, and Commanders are requested to enforce its provisions, if possible, throughout their Districts, in order that the Grand Army of the Republic of Indiana at the National Convention may present a reflection of her patriotism so valiantly and bravely shown and maintained in "solid column," in "skirmish line," and "on picket" in the "field."

V. It is desirable that not only delegates should be in attendance at this convention, but members of the Grand Army generally are requested to "rally" to give greeting to our Comrades who come in our midst from all parts of the country to pledge anew the principles that triumphed over treason.

By order of Major-General,
R. S. FOSTER,
Department Commander.
O. M. WILSON,
Adjutant-General Department.

The Constitution in force at the time of the First National Encampment was the same that was printed at the Headquarters of the Department of Indiana in July and August, 1866. It designated the manner and method of choosing Department Officers, and it named them and defined the manner of election and number of Delegates. In conformity with the foregoing order, the Department of Indiana selected her Delegates in conformity with the Constitution. The comparative strength of each Department at the time of the First National Encampment may be gathered from the representation by each thereat. The following is the record of States, and the number of Representatives or Delegates from each:

	Delegates.
Missouri	9
Illinois	34
Wisconsin	5
Iowa	4
New York	2
District of Columbia	1
Pennsylvania	3
Ohio	16
Kentucky	3
Indiana	210
Arkansas	1

Seventy-three per cent. of the Delegates were from Indiana. Major Oliver M. Wilson was one of the secretaries of the First National Encampment, and his records made at that time show some very interesting facts, especially in the light of later "Grand Army History" (?). Major Wilson's record of that Encampment shows the following: "The Encampment was called to order by Major B. F. Stephenson; Colonel John M. Snyder, of Illinois, was appointed Secretary, and General Julius C. Webber, of Illinois, and Major Oliver M. Wilson, of Indiana, Assitant Secretaries." Indiana was entitled to and presented 210 Delegates, who were seated on report of the Committee on Credentials. About 150 of these Delegates were private soldiers. Illinois had thirty-four Delegates. Of these, ten were generals; one a Colonel; two were Majors, thirteen were Captains; two Lieutenants; two were Surgeons, and four untitled. Ohio had sixteen Delegates; Missouri had nine Delegates; Wisconsin had five Delegates, one General, two Captains, and two untitled; Iowa had four Delegates, one General, two Captains, one Lieutenant; New York had two Delegates; District of Columbia one Delegate; Pennsylvania had three Delegates; Kentucky had three Delegates; Arkansas had one Delegate. We do not deem it necessary in this sketch to give the names of all who were placed on Committees by the First National Encampment, and give here only such as may show the part taken in it by the Department of Indiana and the part assigned to her Comrades.

The First National Encampment appointed its Committee on Credentials from Illinois, Ohio, District of Columbia, Pennsylvania, Missouri, Kentucky, Kansas, Arkansas, Wisconsin, Iowa and Indiana. Captain M. C. Garber was the member from Indiana.

Its Committee on Permanent Organization, from Kentucky, Ohio, Missouri, Pennsylvania, Wisconsin, Illinois, Iowa, New York and Kansas. General August Willich, of the Thirty-second Indiana, then a resident of Ohio, was appointed on this committee.

Its Committee on Resolutions, from Missouri, Indiana, Pennsylvania, Iowa, Wisconsin, Illinois, Kentucky and Ohio. Charles Case was the Indiana Comrade on this committee.

Its Committee on business, made afterwards, the Committee on Constitution to consist of one from each Department, appointed by the President. General Charles Cruft, of Indiana, was made a member of the Business Committee and also on Constitution.

The First National Encampment elected officers as follows:

Commander-in-Chief, General Stephen A. Hurlburt, of Illinois.

S. V. Commander-in-Chief, General John B. McKeon, of New York.

J. V. Commander-in-Chief, General R. S. Foster, of Indiana.

Adjutant-General, Major B. F. Stephenson, of Illinois.

*Quartermaster-General, General August Willich, of Ohio.

Surgeon-General, Major D. C. McNeil, of Missouri.

Chaplain-in-Chief, General W. A. Pile, of Missouri.

Its Council of Administration was chosen from Wisconsin, Iowa, Illinois, Missouri, Ohio, Kentucky, New York, Pennsylvania and Indiana, General Nathan Kimball being the Representative from Indiana.

There has been much dispute and discussion as to the organization of several States into Departments of the Grand Army of the Republic, and the date of the organization of such States. Indiana makes no war upon any of the Departments, the Comrades of Indiana rejoice in the honors that have been fairly won by each and every Department; all that the Comrades of Indiana desire is that the honors due Indiana in the organization, honors won by service, won honorably, and the place rightfully belonging to her in this, the history of the greatest Veteran Soldiers' organization that the world has ever known, should be known, recognized by the world, and held by her as a matter of justice and right. At the time of the receipt from Major Stephenson by General Foster of the manuscript Ritual and Constitution of the G. A. R., there was not, according to statements made by him and others, either Posts or Departments. No Rituals or Constitutions had been printed. These facts have never been called in question. After the Rituals and Constitutions had been printed, and the membership in Indiana had run into the thousands, and Indiana had been organized as a Department, Indiana received no notice, officially or otherwise, from Major Stephenson nor any other person, of any Department or any Department Encampment in any other State. Up to and including the time of the Soldiers' and Sailors' Convention at Pittsburg, Pa., no notification of any kind or in any manner, came to Indiana of the existence of any other Department, and yet it was well known before that, and especially at the time of said Soldiers' and Sailors' Convention, Indiana was organized as a Department of the Grand Army of the Republic. It is a fact known to all that in September, 1866, at Pittsburg, no claim was made for or by any other State that it had a priority claim over Indiana for such an organization, or that even then there was any other Department than Indiana. In the National Encampment at Indianapolis, November 22, 1866, Maryland, Kentucky, New York, Ohio, Pennsylvania, District of Columbia, Massachusetts and Kansas were organized as Departments, but under and by whose work of organization? Not by reason of any organization by or through Major Stephenson as Commander-in-Chief, because, as a matter of fact, he never was Commander-in-Chief, de jure, or de facto, as we have shown, nor were they there by any work of his in the propagation of the then new "Order" of the Grand Army of the Republic. They were, however, lawfully in that Encampment by reason of the fact that they had received the Ritual, the Constitution and instruction from Indiana, through her then Adjutant-General, and the only Adjutant-General of the Grand Army of the Republic at that time or prior to the First National Encampment, Major Oliver M. Wilson, while at the Soldiers' and Sailors' Convention at Pittsburg, in September, 1866.

To us, your committee, there is but one conclusion, that, upon the evidence before us, the organization of what is to-day known as the Grand Army of the Republic was born to the Veteran Soldiers and Sailors of the Union Army, and on its way to a National existence from the moment General R. S. Foster left the presence of Major B. F. Stephenson in Springfield, in July, 1866, with the draft of the first Ritual and Constitution in his possession.

In concluding that portion of the history of the first Departmental organization in Indiana, we submit, first, that as an organization within and upon a written Constitution and Ritual, the Grand Army of the Republic had its first organized Department, or birth, in Indiana, in September, 1866, but that its incubation as an Order took place in Illinois, and was brought to actual life in Indiana at the hands of General Robert S. Foster and Major Oliver M. Wilson and their associates in July and August, 1866; second, that the first General Order ever issued in a Department organization with a living representation behind it, as such, was issued by General R. S. Foster, Department Commander of Indiana, August 20, 1866. A copy of that Order has been set out heretofore in this report.

The original organization of the Grand Army of the Republic died, at least so far as most of the Departments were concerned. It is not our purpose to enter into the history or into a discussion of the causes of its death in this report. The first Department of Indiana passed out of existence with the administration of Colonel Humphrey as Department Commander.

REORGANIZATION.

In the early part of the year 1879, a few ex-soldier citizens of Terre Haute met by agreement one evening at the office of the gas company in that city, for the purpose of reorganizing the Association of the Grand Army of the Republic, under the authority of an Order from National Headquarters, dated April 26, 1879.

After a discussion, in which General Charles Cruft, Colonel William E. McLean, Colonel Robert N. Hudson, Major Francis C. Crawford, Captains Jonathan B. Hager, Harmon L. Miller and Jay Cummings. Morton C. Rankin, Nicholas Filbeck, William H. Armstrong and others participated, it was decided to issue a call to ex-soldiers for a meeting for such purpose.

At this meeting, held at Armory Hall, the first Post of the Grand Army of the Republic in this State was organized, under a charter dated May 12, 1879, with officers as follows: Commander, Jonathan B. Hager; Senior Vice-Commander, William E. McLean; Junior Vice-Commander, Harn:ron L. Miller; Surgeon, J. C. Thompson; Chaplain, German Ambrose; Adjutant, Jay Cummings; Officer of the Day, William H. Armstrong; Officer of the Guard, George Hayward, and was mustered as MORTON POST No. 51, by E. W. Chamberlain, Chief Mustering Officer, and temporarily attached to the Department of Illinois.

From this beginning, five other Posts were soon organized, as follows: No. 52, at Brazil; No. 53, at Lafayette; No. 54, Covington; No. 55, Greensburg, and No. 56, Wabash.

These Posts then became the provisional Department of Indiana under the consecutive numbers from 1 to 6, with Jonathan B. Hager Commander and Jay Cummings Assistant Adjutant-General. The work of organizing new Posts went on through the efforts and zeal of Commander Hager and his staff, until twelve Posts had been organized, when these men were mustered as the Department of Indiana, Grand Army of the Republic, under a charter dated October 3, 1879, signed by William Earnshaw, Commander-in-Chief, and Isaac B. Stevens, Adjutant-General, at an Encampment which met in Terre Haute, on October 31, 1879, and which was made the occasion of a Grand Reunion, at which some forty or fifty thousand people assembled.

The interest in the organization was renewed by this event, and the organization of Posts in the larger cities was soon thereafter effected, Indianapolis, Evansville, Fort Wayne and Logansport supporting the movement by adding one Post each to the number, and the final success of the effort which began at the little meeting at Terre Haute the year before to again build up the Grand Army in this State, seemed assured.

The life of the reorganized Department of Indiana properly began with the issuance of its original charter, which was dated Dayton, Ohio, October 3, 1879.

The Department consisted of Morton Post No. 1, Terre Haute; General Canby Post No. 2, Brazil; Lafayette Post No. 3, Lafayette; John C. Fremont Post No. 4, Covington; Pap Thomas Post No. 5, Greensburg; James H. Emmett Post No. 6, Wabash; McPherson Post No. 7, Crawfordsville; Auten Post No. 8, South Bend; General Steele Post No. 9, Rockville; Captain Floyd Post No. 10, Annapolis; Greencastle Post No. 11, Greencastle, and Sugar Creek Post No. 12, Macksville, and the following were the Department Officers:

Commander, Jonathan B. Hager.
Senior Vice-Commander, James R. Carnahan.
Junior Vice-Commander, Ed. C. Snyder.
Medical Director, J. C. Thompson.
Chaplain, B. F. Cavens.
Assistant Adjutant-General, Jay Cummings.
Assistant Quartermaster-General, Harmon L. Miller.
Inspector, William H. Armstrong.
Judge Advocate, Thomas Hanna.
Chief Mustering Officer, S. E. Armstrong.

The first meeting was held on October 31, 1879, at Terre Haute, and the Department was mustered into the Grand Army of the Republic by Edgar D. Swain, Senior Vice-Commander-in-Chief.

The First Annual Department Encampment was held at Greencastle, January 29, 1880, the number of members in good standing being 844, and Samuel E. Armstrong was elected Commander and Jay Cummings appointed Assistant Adjutant-General.

The Second Annual Encampment was held at Terre Haute, April 13, 1881, and William W. Dudley was elected Commander and Daniel Macauley appointed Assistant Adjutant-General.

At the Third Department Encampment, Indianapolis, February 22 and 23, 1882, General John Coburn presented the Memorial and Resolutions from George H. Thomas Post No. 17, for the erection of a monument "Commemorative of the services and sacrifices of all soldiers going out from and residents in the State of Indiana," which was adopted. This began the movement which afterward resulted in the erection of our splendid Soldiers' and Sailors' Monument, of which Indiana and our whole country is now so proud.

At the Fourth Department Encampment at Indianapolis, March 28, 1883, Hon. John L. McMasters presented the report of the committee of Thomas Post No. 17, and the Memorial of Garber Post No. 72, for the separation and reform in management of the Soldiers' and Sailors' Orphans' Home from the Home for Feeble Minded, which were concurred in by the Encampment and a Committee appointed to secure the object named, all expenses to be borne by the Encampment. This object was accomplished and the Home at Knightstown has since been a credit to the State and a priceless advantage to our soldiers' orphans.

At the Fifth Department Encampment, Indianapolis, February 21, 1884, resolution was adopted calling attention to the neglect of teaching history of the war for suppression of the rebellion in the public schools in Indianapolis and in the State, and demanding a reform in this matter, "That all scholars would have a clear view of the causes of the war and the results which brought a happy and lasting peace." The movement thus inaugurated extended to many other Departments, was taken up vigorously by the National Encampment, and the results of the improved conditions of our school histories in this respect will be far-reaching and beyond estimate.

At the Sixth Department Encampment, Indianapolis, February 25, 1885, the recommendation of the Department Commander, David N. Foster, for the establishment of a State Soldiers' and Sailors' Home, was embodied in a resolution presented by the committee on his address and adopted by a rising vote. This originated the movement which, after several years of patient but untiring effort, was crowned with success by the building and equipping of the Home at Lafayette, which has proven such a comfort and blessing to many of our aged and broken-down Comrades and their wives.

CONCLUSION.

The records of the Grand Army organization in this State show that it has constantly given its best thought and effort to secure for the Soldiers of the War for the Union, through proper legislation and public sentiment, the pensions and places and honorable recognition to which their patriotic services justly entitled them.

The records of the State and Nation will show results that must be gratifying to every member, and are alike creditable to the State. It has at all times, by precept and example, stood for respect to law and legally constituted authority and the enforcement of "honor and purity in public affairs." The prompt action of the Order in support of the authorities on many critical occasions, and the patriotic response of the young men to the call of the government in the recent wars, testifies the result.

These evidences of what the Grand Army of the Republic has been since its birth, may fairly be taken to indicate what it will be until it closes its last earthly Encampment, and thereafter the record of its charitable and patriotic achievements will remain always an imperishable memory, its best monument.

ROBERT S. FOSTER,
JAMES R. CARNAHAN,
WM. H. ARMSTRONG,
Committee.

It was voted to extend the thanks of the Encampment to the Committee for the faithful manner in which it had performed its duty, and to print its report in the Journal.

At 12:15 the Encampment adjourned until after the parade.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The Encampment was called to order by the Department Commander at 3:15. Before the business of the session was fairly under way, the Officer of the Day announced that the Commander-in-Chief, Leo Rassieur, was at the entrance. The Department Commander called up the Encampment and directed that the Commander-in-Chief be escorted to the platform. Escorted by Past Commander-in-Chief Walker, Past Senior Vice-Commander-in-Chief Robbins and Comrade Wm. H. Armstrong, of the National Council of Administration, the Commander-in-Chief proceeded down to the platform. Being introduced, he spoke at length upon the efforts of the Pension Committee in Washington on behalf of the bill to create a Board of Appeals, and the so-called "preference" bill for Federal appointments.

At the conclusion of his address the Commander-in-Chief and escort retired, and the Encampment resumed the hearing of reports of committees.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON SOLDIERS HOME.

MARTINSVILLE, IND., May 15, 1901.

David E. Beem, Department Commander Grand Army of the Republic:

COMRADE—We, the Committee of the Department of Indiana, Grand Army of the Republic, on the State Soldiers' Home at Lafayette, Indiana, met in session at the Home, on Thursday, December 27, 1900. The object of the meeting of the committee was to make a thorough examination of the management and needs of the institution, as per the request of the Board of Trustees. We respectfully report that there are now in the Home, 639 members, 382 of these being men, and 257 the wives or widows of our Comrades. We found them well housed and well cared for in every particular, except a few of the very sick, who were being cared for in the quarters, who should have been in the hospital, but could not be taken there for want of room.

Your committee made a thorough examination of the financial management of the Home. A more perfect system of accounts than that in use could hardly be devised. The board meets each month. At its meeting, for instance in January, the officers of the Home lay before the Trustees the estimated supplies necessary for the use of the Home during the month of February. These estimates are carefully gone over by the board, and, if approved, are so endorsed and bids ordered taken. The bids are opened by the board, and the contracts awarded at its next session. The successful bidders, when they make delivery, are required to make their bills in duplicate, the original bills being retained in the office of the Adjutant, the duplicate going to the commissary building. The Inspector in charge of that building receives the goods that have been bought by the Commissary Sergeant, and it is his duty to see that he gets the weight, measure, quantity and quality of goods contracted for by the board. He then enters the invoice on his record book. At the end of the month, the Inspector's stores on hand at the commencement of the month, plus the goods received, and minus the requisitions issued, must agree to a cent with the books in the Adjutant's office, the one office being a complete check upon the other. Supplies can be drawn from the Inspector only when requisition is made by the heads of the Departments daily, and these must be approved by the Commandant. The exact amount of each kind of supplies on hand is shown by the books, at all times. The Adjutant makes a monthly report to the board of all receipts of money, from whatever source, and turns such funds over to the Treasurer, taking his receipt therefor. The Inspector makes out a bill of fare for every day of the month, which is submitted to the Commandant for his approval, and it is therefore possible to turn to these and see exactly what food was provided for the members at any or at all meals, for any date in the year.

Your committee commends the action of the Board of Trustees in securing Comrade G. R. Stormont as Commandant for the Home, one who is efficient and courteous to all. We were ably assisted by all the officers of the Home.

Thanking all for kindness shown us, we are,

Yours in Fraternity, Charity and Loyalty,
 C. M. GRAVIS, Chairman, ELI W. MENAUGH,
 JAMES B. MULKEY, WM. B. HESS,
 ALVAH TAYLOR, M. M. JUSTUS,
 JOHN W. HEADINGTON, JAMES H. MAUZY,

COMMITTEE ON MEMORIAL HALL.

LOGANSPORT, IND., May 15, 1901.

To the Twenty-second Annual Encampment, Department of Indiana, G. A. R.:

Your committee appointed at the last Encampment, pursuant to resolutions adopted looking toward the construction of a Memorial Hall, or Barracks, at the State Soldiers' Home at Lafayette, with a view to increasing the facilities of the Home for the care of needy Veterans, report as follows:

The plan suggested embraced the proposition to secure funds for the construction of the hall by voluntary subscriptions by old soldiers and their friends, and to induce such subscriptions, it was proposed to issue certificates to subscribers. An appropriation of $500 was authorized to defray the expenses of the committee in inaugurating and carrying out the scheme.

After having had a meeting of the committee at the Home, after a careful survey of the situation, and upon a full conference with the Board of Trustees of the Home, your committee arrived at the conclusion that the plan proposed by the Encampment cannot be successfully carried out at the present time. It seems to be the nearly unanimous feeling and conviction among the old soldiers that the care for the needy and disabled Veterans at the Home is a burden which should be assumed by the Legislature, and the attempt to secure voluntary subscriptions does not meet with sufficient encouragement to justify an outlay of money in expenses.

With the advice and approval of the Board of Trustees, your committee decided that the best thing to do, under the circumstances, was to join their efforts with those of the Board of Trustees in securing the necessary appropriations by the Legislature. This your committee did, and while the result did not meet our expectations, an appropriation of $32,000 for the betterment of the Home was secured.

No part of the $500 authorized to defray expenses has been expended by your committee.

Respectfully submitted,

DAVID E. BEEM.

J. E. LOUGHRY.

A. M. SCOTT,

On motion the report was approved and the committee discontinued.

INDIANA SOLDIERS' AND SAILORS' ORPHANS' HOME COMMITTEE'S REPORT.

To the Department Commander:

Your Board of Visitors to the Indiana Soldiers' and Sailors Orphans' Home was organized for the year now ending, as follows: Benjamin Starr, Richmond, President; Hiram Plummer, Indianapolis, Vice-President; Allan H. Dougal, Fort Wayne, Secretary; Henry C. McMakin, Fort Wayne; Hiram Heath, Sharpsville; John A. Weaver, Seymour; Dan H. Diehl, Butler.

Your committee has visited the Home in a body and separately, and been in communication with the management at different times, and are glad to report the same watchful care exercised at the Home, making it the institution of which we are so justly proud.

We visited the Home on the graduation day in June last, witnessed the impressing and interesting exercises, and presented to each of the nineteen graduates a medal in behalf of and in the name of this Department.

Your committee also considered and approved of the estimated appropriations required for the maintenance and advancement of the Home, as follows: A stand pipe and new pump, of proper capacity to insure a bountiful supply of water for drinking and culinary use, at an estimated cost of $6,700; an iron fence along the entire front of the property, 1,300 feet, with suitable gates, excavating and retaining wall, at an estimated cost of $1,480.

A girls' pavilion for recreation and exercise in inclement weather, costing $1,200; an outfit for manual training, costing $490; four water closets for boys, to cost $1,200; new dormitory floors, wagon shed and implement house, enlargement for cold storage room, extension of sewer, costing $800.

These items, in addition to the regular appropriations for maintenance, repairs, library and insurance.

When the Legislative Committee visited the Home to investigate and prepare the reports of their respective bodies, they were very much hurried, and could not devote the time necessary to make definite examinations of the need of the Home; so members of this committee visited the capitol at different times to consult with those in whose hands the reports were pending, and on invitation, with the officers of the Home, attended a meeting of the Legislators, to whom the recommendations were referred, and while all the items asked for were not granted, yet we feel that we were kindly and liberally treated, being granted the following specific appropriations: Water works, $6,700; extension of sewer, $50; four water closets for boys, $1,200; outfit for manual training, $490; wagon shed and implement house, $250, and in addition for each of the fiscal years, for maintenance, $90,000; for repairs, $3,500; for library, $300; for insurance, $700.

This committee extends its sincere thanks to Hon. C. C. Binkley, member of the Senate from Wayne county, for his uniform courtesies and constant efforts in behalf of the Home.

In response to our request, Prof. A. H. Graham, Superintendent, presents to us the following statistics, showing condition of the Home:

It has been brought to the attention of your committee, that persons who from their relation to society and their influence in churches and other organizations, should be the friends of the Knightstown Home, are really doing whatever they can to discredit it. They have never visited the Home, and are utterly ignorant of its aims and its work. Not long since, the Secretary of the local charities of Indianapolis, in some remarks about soldiers' institutions, took occasion to rail at the Home. He declared that he was hostile to all institutions for the rearing and education of children. He believed that these children should be put into homes where they would know the work of the world. He declared that the children in the Home were pampered, and that the old soldiers taught them to believe that they were better than other children, and that the State is bound to maintain them. He declared that when put in families they refused to do the work which was assigned to them, and that generally no one wanted children from that institution. He declared, among other things, that these children were taken from place to place and exhibited, and made to give exhibitions which could but unfit them for the duties of life.

This is but a sample of the charges made by a number of persons throughout the State. Most of them have never been at the Home, and some of them are influenced by pique. Your committee freely admits that the good home is the best place and the natural place in which to rear children. They also recognize the fact that there are thousands of children who have not good homes, and thousands more who have no home of any kind. If an effort should be made to have these unfortunate children put into homes it would fail. Hundreds of them would be put into families where they would be made menials. In view of these facts, it seems to your committee that the best thing that can be done for hundreds of children is for the State to maintain an institution which will come as near to the ideal home as an institution can be. Such an institution as that at Knightstown has given home influence to thousands of children. We believe that even if the children were not the orphans of soldiers that the State would be the gainer by having a home like that at Knightstown in which to put dependent and defenseless orphans, and care for them and educate them until suitable home could be found elsewhere. This much we may be sure of, that if these children are not put under such influence, many of them in early life will be found in the ranks of those who furnish recruits for the reform schools and the reformatory and evil resorts.

Now, as to the organization of the Home. The whole number of children is divided into families into which children of all ages are put. These families are in charge of a competent governess, who looks after the welfare of these children; they look after their cleanliness; they teach them to be orderly, to take care of their clothing, to keep their rooms clean and to insist upon obedience. The school's are taught by as efficient and intelligent teachers as can be found in any grade in the public schools. The moral and religious instruction of the children is looked after, and with such a Superintendent and Matron as Professor and Mrs. Graham, example goes with precept. It is as near an ideal home as an institution can be made.

Nothing is farther from the truth than that these children are pampered and lead lives of idleness. It can be said with truth that in families, children generally are not required to work, as are the children in the Soldiers' and Sailors' Orphans' Home. Certain portions of every day are set aside for work on the farm, in the season, in the carpenter shop, in the printing office, in the shoemaker's shop, in the cooking school, and in the various departments of employment. The boys and girls are lined up and ready for work in their every-day clothes, and as regularly go to their employments a part of each day as they go to school or to their meals. The late Governor Mount was one of the persons who had been led to believe from these reports that these children were not taught to work. During his administration he spent two or three days at the Home, and watched its workings. When he came away, he said to a friend: "A great work is being done in the Knightstown Home for those orphan children." It may be said here that the children in the Home make all of their clothing except their stockings and hats. They make all the shoes and mend them, and if some of these unjust critics who claim that these children are pampered, would go to the Home, they would find much of the clothing well worn and thoroughly mended. The boys wear blue jeans, and nothing but blue jeans. The girls wear calico dresses, except on Sunday, when they wear plain cashmere dresses. The children of the Home are more occupied than children of their age elsewhere. Among the institutions of the Home which have received the most pious criticisms of its enemies, is the Band. They seem to think that it is a dreadful thing that boys educated by the State should be taught band music, and should occasionally appear in public and go to the State Encampments. It is within the knowledge of this committee that none of the boys who have been connected with this band have been spoiled or unfitted for self-support. They have graduated and gone out to lives of usefulness—many of them making music a profession.

The committee has before it a list of the graduates from the Home, beginning with the year 1891, and closing with the year 1900. Your committee would like to publish this list of graduates, but out of regard for these persons leaves it, simply making reference to it. The employments include printers, farmers, physicians, music teachers, stenographers, milliners, teachers in art schools, teachers in public schools, carpenters, blacksmiths, bank cashiers, railroaders and dressmakers. A large number of the girls who graduated are well married. More of them are teachers, stenographers and the like that can be found in similar lists of graduates of like schools where graduation must take place at the age of sixteen years. A dozen have been soldiers in the Spanish and Philippine wars. In the whole of this list of graduates (175), only 5 persons are reported as not doing well, and 4 more have not been kept run of by the Superintendent. This is a most remarkable record, and is a full and complete refutation of all the charges and insinuations which ignorant and vicious people have made in their unworthy effort to discredit the noblest charity in the State of Indiana.

It needs to be added that no child leaves the Home until a place has been found for it, and, if old enough, a place to work whether it leaves the Home by request of relatives or by indenture, or because of age limit. If the child goes to a relative, assurance is made that it will be provided for and given a common school education. If the child is indentured, the Board of Trustees enters into a contract with the parties taking the child to give it a good home and suitable instruction. If boy or girl leaves because of age limit, a place to work at wages is secured. In the last four years the management of the Home has placed in Homes under the above regulation the following classes of children, of which they have a full record:

Age limit	73	74	74	75
Request of friends.....	24	43	28	21
Indenture	7	7	4	5
Totals	104	124	106	101

This record speaks for itself. The care of these children does not cease when they leave the Home, but the management learn through responsible persons what those who are sent out are doing, and the surroundings in which they live. The management does not give the children out simply to get rid of them, for under such heartless practice the last state of the child would be worse than when it came to the Home. As evidence of the care extended by the management—it is a fact that of the near 800 children under their care in the past year—not one has died.

Comrades, as you become better acquainted with the Home and its management, the noble work carried on and the results accomplished, the greater will be your respect and admiration of the institution; and so your committee urges on all Comrades to visit the Home and inspect it in all its details—Memorial Day and Graduation Day are especially interesting—and we bespeak for each of you a hearty welcome from all connected therewith.

Your Committee recognizes in Prof. A. H. Graham, the Superintendent, and his estimable wife, the Matron, that love and affection towards all the children, which makes them especially efficient in their respective positions.

Respectfully submitted in F., C. and L.,

BENJAMIN STARR, President,

ALLAN H. DOUGALL, Secretary.

GREETINGS OF THE WOMAN'S RELIEF CORPS.

LOGANSPOUT, IND., May 15, 1901.

David E. Bccm, Commander Department of Indiana, G. A. R.:

I have the honor to extend to you, and through you to the Annual Encampment, Department of Indiana, G. A. R., the greetings of the Woman's Relief Corps in Eighteenth Annual Convention assembled.

A record of the personal services of our "American Women" in the late Civil War, however painful to the modesty of those whom it brings conspicuously before the world, is due to the honor of the country, to the proper understanding of our social life, and to the general interests of sex whose rights, duties and capacities are now under discussion.

Doubtless thousands of women, obscure of their homes, and humble in their fortunes, without official position even in their local society, contributed as generously of their subsistence, and as freely of their time and strength, and gave as unreservedly their hearts and their prayers to the cause, as the most conspicuous on the shining list. For if "the world knows nothing of its greatest men," it is still more true of its noblest women. As a rule, American women exhibited not only an intense feeling for the soldiers in their exposure and their sufferings, equal to that which furnished among the men, two million and three hundred thousand volunteers.

It is not unusual for women of all countries to weep and to work for those who encounter the perils of war, but the American woman, after giving up to the ranks of the gathering and advancing army their wives and sons, their brothers and lovers, proceeded to organize relief for them. True, the rewards of these women were equal to their sacrifices—they drew their pay from a richer treasury than that of the "United States Government."

I desire to submit the following report of our membership, and financial condition of the Corps in this Department, relief extended, etc.:

Number of Corps in the Department March, 1901.....	183
Number of members in good standing.....	6,751

REPORT OF THE COUNCIL OF ADMINISTRATION.

The Assistant Adjutant General presented the report of the Council of Administration, which was adopted by the Encampment, as follows:

The Council of Administration convened at Department Headquarters, Room No. 3, Barnett House, in the city of Logansport, at 8 o'clock P. M., Tuesday, May 14th, in pursuance to notice given in General Orders. President, David E. Beem, Department Commander; Arthur R. Seward, Senior Vice-Department Commander; John C. Gordon, Junior Vice-Department Commander; Joseph E. Sterrett, Medical Director; H. E. Butler, Department Chaplain; R. M. Smock, Assistant Adjutant-General and Assistant Quartermaster-General; Charles H. Myerhoff, Department Inspector; George W. Hissong, Chief Mustering Officer, and Benjamin Starr, A. P. Miller, William E. Shilling, Henry A. Root and Theodore Wilkes, of the Council of Administration.

The committee appointed to audit the books of the Assistant Adjutant-General and Assistant Quartermaster-General, submitted their report (which is copied after the report of the Assistant Quartermaster-General).

On motion of Comrade Starr it was voted to continue the per capita tax the same as last year, namely, 20 cents per annum, payable 10 cents with each semi-annual report, upon all members in good standing. On motion of the Assistant Adjutant General, he was directed to procure the services of Comrade Z. A. Smith, to report the proceedings of the Encampment, and to prepare the same for the printer, and he was authorized to pay therefor the sum of $40.00.

It was ordered that the bond of the Assistant Quartermaster-General remain the same as last year, $5,000, and on motion of Comrade R. M. Smock, the compensation to be paid the Assistant Adjutant-General and the Assistant Quartermaster General was fixed at $1,000 per annum, and that he be authorized to employ a stenographer at a salary of not exceeding the sum of $300.00 a year, which motion was adopted.

It was ordered that the salary of the Department Inspector and the Judge Advocate remain the same as last year, $10.00 each. On motion of Comrade Wilkes, a member of the Council of Administration, the Assistant Quartermaster-General was ordered to pay the actual expenses of the Council of Administration in attendance upon the Encampment.

On motion of Comrade William E. Shilling, a member of the Council of Administration, the sum of $300.00 or such amount as may be necessary, be set apart for the use of the Department Commander for the ensuing year, to defray expenses in visiting the Posts of the Department.

The report of the committee on the Morton Monument being called for and it being reported that it had not held a meeting the past year, and no report being submitted, the Encampment voted to discharge it from the further consideration of the subject.

Past Commander-in-Chief Walker called attention to the fact that the dedication of the State Soldiers' Monument will occur at an early day, and expressed the opinion that inasmuch as the Grand Army had secured its construction, it should have a prominent part in its dedication. He made a motion that the Commander name a committee of nine, of which the Commander shall be chairman ex-officio. Comrade B. B. Campbell, of Post 244, moved to amend by naming one from each congressional district, which was accepted. Comrade Isaiah B. McDonald, Post 181, seconded the motion and expressed a desire to see the dedication services made one of the most memorable events in the history of the State. The motion was unanimously adopted and afterwards the following committee announced:

H. A. Mattison, Post No. 27, Evansville.
Aikman Carnahan, Post No. 72, Washington.
John C. Lawler, Post No. 87, Salem.
William T. Stott, Post No. 127, Franklin.
I. H. C. Royse, Post No. 1, Terre Haute.
A. M. Weston, Post No. 148, New Castle.
Ivan N. Walker, Post No. 17, Indianapolis.
Albert O. Marsh, Post No. 60, Winchester.
John H. Cox, Post No. 103, Sheridan.
Asbury S. McCormick, Post No. 3, Lafayette.
Harvey B. Shively, Post No. 6, Wabash.
Joseph S. Conlogue, Post No. 69, Kendallville.
Timothy E. Howard, Post No. 8, South Bend.

Past Senior Vice-Commander-in-Chief Irvin Robbins presented the case of the widow of General W. H. H. Terrell and told what steps had been taken to raise money for her support. The Encampment voted to urge posts and patriotic citizens to send contributions for her support, in care of the Assistant Adjutant General.

The regular order for five o'clock being the selection of the place for the holding of the next Encampment, Comrade Henry Durbin, Post 244, presented the invitation of the city of Anderson, and Comrade Allan H. Dougall, Post 271, the invitation of the city of Fort Wayne. The rules were suspended on motion of Comrade Durbin, in order that Mayor Dunlap might present Anderson's formal invitation, which he did. Comrade Dougall set forth the attractions of Fort Wayne. Before the vote was taken, the Comrades from Fort Wayne and vicinity, learning that Anderson had never had the Encampment, while Fort Wayne had it in 1892, withdrew their invitation, whereupon Anderson was selected amidst great enthusiasm.

Adjourned to nine o'clock Thursday morning.

SECOND DAY'S SESSION.

The Encampment was called to order promptly at 9 o'clock by Department Commander Beem. Chaplain Butler offered prayer. The reports of committees were resumed.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON DEPARTMENT
COMMANDER'S ADDRESS.

To the Twenty-second Annual Encampment, Department of Indiana, G. A. R.:

The committee upon the address of the Department Commander submit the following: We congratulate the Encampment upon the lofty and patriotic tone of the Commander's address, and commend it to the careful perusal of the members of this Department. We especially commend its recommendation upon the subject of Memorial Day. We regret that this day, which has been set apart by custom and approved by law, as a holy day, should, in the passing of the years, have come to be regarded rather as a day for pastime, games and pleasure. We know of no way by which this evil can be entirely obviated, except by a change, placing Memorial Day on the last Sunday in May, or the first Sunday in June, in lieu of the 30th day of May, and we are loth to recommend so radical a departure from the custom of the Grand Army, not only in this State, but throughout the entire Nation, a custom beautiful in itself, and rendered sacred by its observance on this particular day, for the last third of a century. Without recommending any change in the rules, we call the attention of the Encampment to the desirability of such a change.

As to the other recommendations in the report, they have either already been provided for by the action of the Encampment, or come within the purview of other committees in charge of such matters, whose recommendations will be more in the line of their duty than in the line of the duty of this committee.

In recognition of the faithful and efficient services of the Department Commander, we recommend the adoption of the following resolution: Resolved, that the Senior Vice-Department Commander appoint a committee of three to procure and present to the Department Commander the usual badge of his office.

Respectfully submitted in F., C. and L.,

W. A. KETCHAM,
ROBERT W. HARRISON,
THOS. E. BOYD,
W. B. HESS.

The report was adopted and Senior Vice-Commander Seward named Past Department Commander A. O. Marsh, Past Commander-in-Chief I. N. Walker and Comrade Wm. H. Armstrong the committee to obtain the badge.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON ELECTIVE OFFICERS' REPORTS.

Department Commander and Comrades:

Your committee to whom was referred the report of the elective officers, beg leave to submit the following report:

THE SENIOR VICE-COMMANDER'S REPORT.

Comrade A. R. Seward, Senior Vice-Department Commander, shows by his report that he has been faithful and diligent in the discharge of his duties. We especially commend to the officers and members of the Department the recommendations he makes to secure the reinstatement of suspended and dropped members. In view of the fact that the limit has about been reached for recruiting our ranks from those who have never enjoyed our comradeship, it should be the duty of every comrade to do all in his power to bring back into our ranks those who have dropped out through neglect to keep up their dues, or for other reasons that do not disqualify them for membership.

THE JUNIOR VICE-COMMANDER.

Comrade John C. Gordon, Junior Vice-Department Commander, has submitted a very satisfactory report of his stewardship. He has installed Post Officers, visited Posts, and attended reunions, and done all in his power to build up and strengthen the Order.

THE MEDICAL DIRECTOR'S REPORT.

Comrade Joseph E. Sterrett, Medical Director, has submitted a carefully prepared report, giving very valuable statistical information.

This report records the solemn fact that 419 of our Comrades died during the year ending December 31, 1900, and that 208 of these died, presumably, of wounds and diseases contracted in the service, also that there were three old soldiers in the poorhouses in Indiana. There is no reason for this, and the Posts in the counties where these poor houses exist, should be required by the incoming administration to see to it, at once, that these unfortunate Veterans are sent to some Soldiers' Home.

DEPARTMENT CHAPLAIN'S REPORT.

Comrade H. E. Butler, the Department Chaplain, has carefully prepared a statistical report, which will be found of great interest.

We desire to call especial attention to the fact, as shown in this report, that there are 2,005 graves of our deceased Comrades in this Department that are unmarked by headstones. This ought not to be, and we recommend that the incoming Department Commander urge every Post in the Department to see to it, that every unmarked soldier's grave is supplied with a headstone.

The Government will furnish these headstones free of charge, upon the application of any Post, or any officer of any Post, who is authorized to request the same. All that is required is to apply to the Quartermaster-General U. S. A., Washington, D. C., and he will furnish blank application for headstones, and the headstones will be delivered free of charge at the nearest railroad station to the cemetery or graveyard of the unmarked graves.

Respectfully submitted in F., C. and L.,

CHARLES M. TRAVIS,
JOHN W. TINGLE,
CHARLES B. BRODRICK,
WM. J. ALLEN,
JOHN R. OWENS,

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTIONS.

Past Department Commander James S. Dodge, of the Committee on Resolutions submitted the following report:

On the resolution endorsing Stine's History of the Army of the Potomac, the committee reported "ought not to pass," because it embodies a recommendation to the State Board of Education, based upon a statement of which the Encampment has no knowledge. The report of the committee was adopted.

The resolution of U. S. Grant Post No. 72, asking for a change in the pension laws, and also for a pension of one dollar a day for all Union soldiers, the committee recommend that it "do not pass," and the report of the committee was adopted.

The resolution of Comrade R. I. Patterson, of Post 78, providing for the election of officers of the Department, in an order at variance with the rules adopted for the governing of the Encampment, the committee recommended that the resolution "do not pass," and the report was adopted by the Encampment.

The resolution of Remington Post No. 84, asking for the restrictions in the chartering of new Posts, where there are dissensions, the committee recommend that said resolution "do not pass," and their report was adopted.

The resolution of Comrade D. H. Olive, Commander of Post 281, urging Senators and Representatives to support a bill creating a Court of Appeals, the committee recommend that the same "do not pass," and their recommendation was adopted.

The resolution of Comrade John B. Wirt, relative to the carrying of the Union Jack in G. A. R. processions, the committee recommend that the same "do not pass," and their recommendation was adopted.

The resolution offered by Comrade Frank W. Willis, of Post No. 52, demanding that the Pension Bureau cause examinations to be made as soon as an application is filed, the committee recommend that the same "do not pass," and their recommendation was adopted.

The resolution of Comrade D. H. Olive, Commander of Post 281, urging the passage of the Veterans' Preference Bill, the committee recommend that the same "do not pass," and their report was concurred in.

The resolutions of James H. Emmett, Post 6, thanking Comrades Foster and Murphy for their services as trustees of the Soldiers' Home, and providing for a Legislation Committee to look after all matters affecting the welfare of veterans were disapproved by the committee, but the Encampment after rejecting that relative to a Legislative Committee adopted the following:

Whereas, Since our last Encampment, Comrades Foster, of Fort Wayne, and Murphy, of Evansville, who have been identified with the State Soldiers' Home at Lafayette, as members of the Managing Board of Trustees since its inception, have severed their official relations with said board; and,

Whereas, The services rendered by these two faithful Comrades were of such a character as to place every Veteran Soldier of Indiana under lasting obligations to them inasmuch as the first four years of their services on said board were given to the State without any pecuniary compensation whatever, and during that period much of their valuable time has been given to the upbuilding of that institution and much of its present widespread beneficence is due to the intelligent and patriotic labors of them and their co-workers on the board; therefore be it

Resolved, That Comrades Murphy and Foster are deserving of the profound appreciation and thanks of this Encampment for the services thus rendered by them in the interests of said Home, and, therefore, in the interest of every soldier in the State.

The resolution offered by Comrade Fremont E. Swift, Commander of Post 209, which reads as follows: Resolved, That the Department Encampment recommend the following amendment to the Rules and Regulations, in Chapter 5, Article 4, Section 4, in the sentence, "A Comrade may be reinstated in a Post other than that from which he was dropped, upon application, duly made, referred and reported upon, and on payment of not exceeding one year's dues, which shall be forwarded by the Post receiving him to the Post of which he was formerly a member." The following words shall be stricken out, "which shall be forwarded by the Post receiving him, to the Post of which he was formerly a member."

The committee recommend "that as presented it do not pass, and that it be amended to read that a dropped member of one Post, may be reinstated in another and different Post, upon the payment of muster in dues, and that when so amended, the resolution pass."

The resolution as amended by the committee, was adopted by the Encampment.

The resolution of Comrade Irvin Robbins, Post 17, providing that the Senior and Junior Vice-Commander-in-Chief be ex-officio members of the National Council of Administration was approved by the committee but not adopted by the Encampment.

The committee to which was referred the ritual proposed for an honorary rank in the Grand Army of the Republic, reported as follows:

We, the undersigned committee, to whom was referred the resolution and matters, introduced by George W. Lennard Post No. 148, New Castle, Ind., concerning the establishment of the honorary rank of retired Veterans of the Grand Army of the Republic, subject to such restrictions as therein contained, asking that it may be adopted by this Encampment, and then certified to the National Encampment, and there urged to be incorporated in the rules and procedure of the Grand Army of the Republic, as a constituent part of the same, beg leave to report that we recommend that the same be adopted by this Encampment, and be certified to the National Encampment as requested.

THOS. E. BOYD,
DANIEL RYAN,
CHARLES B. BRODRICK,
ASA M. WESTON.

The foregoing report was adopted by the Encampment so far as it recommends that the proposed change in the ritual be certified to the National Encampment.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON ASSISTANT ADJUTANT GENERAL'S AND ASSISTANT QUARTERMASTER GENERAL'S REPORTS.

The report of the Committee on the Assistant Adjutant General's and Assistant Quartermaster General's report, submitted a report which was approved and adopted. It is as follows:

To the Department Commander:

We, your committee to which the report of the Assistant Adjutant-General and the Assistant Quartermaster-General was referred, respectfully beg leave to say that we have given to these reports a most careful consideration, resulting in a more thorough understanding of the duties and responsibilities of these important positions than we have ever before had.

The report of the Assistant Adjutant-General shows all but three of the 443 Posts in the Department to be in good standing, an almost unprecedented result, and showing the very marked efficiency of that Department as at present organized. Only the long experience of Comrade Smock in that position, coupled with the most untiring industry, has enabled him to so assist the Department Commander, as to bring about this flattering report of the discipline of the Department. To the efforts of the Assistant Adjutant-General, after those of our Commander, must also be most largely ascribed the credit of keeping up the membership of the Department to a point that enables the Commander in his address to state that "we have lost in membership during the year but fifteen, except from deaths."

As is known to this Encampment, Comrade Smock has also filled the position of Assistant Quartermaster-General. Some years since, as a matter of economy, as well as of greater efficiency in the transaction of the business of the department, the Encampment decided to unite the functions of these two departments in one person, who should give his entire time to the work. The result was so satisfactory, that each succeeding Encampment has approved of the arrangement, and your committee recommends that it be continued.

The financial affairs of the Department have been so economically conducted under the present administration, as to enable the Assistant Quartermaster-General to report a gain in the cash balance on hand this year of $888.84, as compared with the report of a year ago.

Your committee recommends the adoption of the suggestion of the Assistant Quartermaster-General, that the incoming Department Commander and Council of Administration, be authorized to make a loan of $1,200 of the cash balance now on hand, on first mortgage security, at the best rate of interest they can obtain, compatible with the absolute safety of the fund.

Respectfully submitted in F., C. and L.,

DAVID N. FOSTER,
JOHN F. HAMMELL,
JEROME J. MUSSER,
JOHN E. HARRISON,
HEZ. ROBINSON.

ELECTION OF REPRESENTATIVES.

The election of Representatives to the National Encampment being next in order, a call of districts was made for the nomination of candidates for Representative-at-large. Comrade I. N. Walker presented the name of Comrade Benjamin Starr, Post 55, and the Ninth District put Comrade A. R. Tucker, Post 133, in nomination. A ballot was ordered with the following result:

ELECTION OF OFFICERS.

The election of officers being the next before the Encampment, pursuant to the order of business, the districts were called for nominations for candidates for members of the Council of Administration, and the following Comrades were put in nomination: By the Fourth District, John F. Hammell, Post 26; by the Fifth District, Morton C. Rankin, Post 1; by the Seventh District, William B. Harris, Post 17; by the Eighth District, D. F. Mustard, Post 244; by the Ninth District, John H. Cox, Post 103; by the Tenth District, Henry A. Root, Post 46; by the Eleventh District, Seth Cole, Post 116; by the Thirteenth District, Ed. A. Jer-nagan, Post 128; also James D. Braden, Post 37. A ballot was taken which resulted as follows:

John F. Hammell, 440; Morton C. Rankin, 550; W. B. Harris, 532; D. F. Mustard, 122; John H. Cox, 185; H. A. Root, 381; Seth Cole, 169; Ed. A. Jernegan, 61; James D. Braden, 458; J. D. Briggs, 13; Seth Cole, 4. Comrades Hammell, Rankin, Harris, Root and Braden being the five candidates receiving the highest number of votes were declared elected.

The election of Department Chaplain being in order, nominations were called for and Comrade David A. Tucker, Post 350, Ridgeville, and B. F. Shepherd, Post 476, Pleasantville, were put in nomination. A ballot being taken resulted as follows:

While number of votes.....	606
Necessary to elect.....	304
David A. Tucker had.....	285
B. F. Shepherd had.....	331

Comrade B. F. Shepherd was declared elected.

The election of Medical Director being next in order Comrade Chas. M. Gravis, Post 77, Comrade J. M. Jones, Post 574, and Comrade Warren S. King, Post 92, were put in nomination. The ballot resulted as follows:

Whole number of votes.....	604
Necessary to elect.....	303
Chas. M. Gravis had.....	78
J. M. Jones had.....	203
Warren S. King had.....	323

Comrade King having received a majority of all the votes was declared elected.

When nominations for Junior Vice-Department Commander were called for, Comrade Charles Myerhoff, of the First District, placed Comrade Charles W. Brown, Commander of Martin R. Delaney Post, No. 70, in nomination. The nomination being seconded by the other districts, the rules were suspended and the Assistant Adjutant General was directed to cast the unanimous vote of the Encampment, which he did, and Charles W. Brown was declared elected.

Post 14, Logansport, put Comrade Rodney Strain, of that Post in nomination for Senior Vice-Department Commander. Thereat the rules were suspended and the Assistant Adjutant General was directed to cast the unanimous vote of the Encampment for that Comrade and he was declared elected.

DEPARTMENT COMMANDER.

The election of a Department Commander being next in order, a call was made by districts for the nomination of candidates. The first district being called, Comrade Milton Garrigus, Post 30, of Kokomo, was put in nomination. His nomination was seconded successively by the districts until the Eighth was reached, which put Comrade Erie E. Georgia, Post 78, of Muncie, in nomination. The subsequent districts as called, seconded the nomination of Comrade Garrigus. A ballot was taken, but before it was counted Comrade Georgia withdrew his name. There being but one candidate, after the rules had been suspended by a vote of the Encampment, the Assistant Adjutant-General was directed to cast the unanimous vote of the Encampment for Milton Garrigus, which he did, and that Comrade was declared elected. Loud calls were made for the Department Commander-elect, who was escorted to the platform and generously applauded. He expressed his gratitude for the honor conferred upon him in a few appropriate words.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Comrade D. R. Lucas, Post 17, asked the suspension of the rules to present a resolution, which was granted. He then read the following vote of thanks:

For the welcome so cordial, the hospitality so unbounded and the fraternity everywhere so manifest on the part of all the people of Logansport, this Encampment desires to place on record its grateful appreciation and profound thanks for their efforts to make our stay in this beautiful city so delightful. While there is usually more or less formality in such expressions, we wish all to understand that our hearts go with the words we utter. In this expression to the citizens, Comrades and press of Logansport, the Encampment desires to include the managers of the railroads who have given us such liberal rates of transportation. To one and all we say "Thanks for your welcome and kindness and we are so well satisfied we shall be glad to come again."

The reading of the foregoing was greeted with applause and it was adopted by a rising vote.

Pursuant to a vote of the Encampment, Department Commander Beem sent the following greeting to the Department of Illinois now in session:

The Department of Indiana, in annual Encampment assembled, sends greetings and good wishes to the Comrades of Illinois.

INSTALLATION OF OFFICERS.

The remaining business of the Encampment being the installation of officers, Department Commander Beem appointed Past Department Commander David N. Foster, Installing officer, and Comrade John E. Irwin, Post 14, Officer of the Day. The officers elect being duly installed, the new Department Commander, Milton Garrigus, announced Comrade Richard M. Smock as his Assistant Adjutant-General and Assistant Quartermaster-General. After a few parting remarks in which he pledged his utmost efforts to promote the interests of the Grand Army of the Republic, Department Commander Garrigus called upon Chaplain Shepherd to pronounce the benediction, and at 12:45 p. m. the Encampment adjourned without day.

RICHARD M. SMOCK.

Assistant Adjutant-General.

GENERAL ORDERS.

HEADQUARTERS DEPARTMENT OF INDIANA,
GRAND ARMY OF THE REPUBLIC,
INDIANAPOLIS, IND., May 17, 1900.

X. Post Commanders are requested to forward the name of a Comrade for appointment as an aide upon the staff of the Department Commander. Aides are appointed for the purpose of assisting Department and Post Officers in the discharge of their respective duties, helping to recruit for the Order, and keeping up the interest. The proper selection will be of great help. When appointed and notice received of their acceptance, commissions will be issued.

XI. Blanks for the semi-annual report of Adjutants and Quartermasters will be sent to all Post Commanders at the same time this order is mailed. It is the duty of Post Commanders to see that these reports are made out after the last meeting of their Post in June, and forwarded to the Assistant Adjutant-General, with the per capita tax, ten cents for each member in good standing. It is expected that all Post Officers will act promptly in this matter.

XII. Post Chaplains will make their reports immediately after Memorial Day, on the proper blank, heretofore mailed to the Post Commanders. Make full and complete report, and forward the same to R. M. Smock, Assistant Adjutant-General, who will collect and transmit them to the Department Chaplain.

XIII. The Thirty-fourth Session of the National Encampment will be held in the city of Chicago, Ill., August 27 to September 1, 1900. The headquarters of this Department will be established at the Sherman House. Arrangements have been made for free sleeping quarters for all who desire to occupy them. Posts wishing free quarters will address R. H. Peters, Chairman of Committee on Free Quarters, and make application for the number required. Additional information as to location of free quarters will be given in future orders. As this Encampment meets just on our border, it is hoped that the Comrades will make their arrangements to attend. The railroad rate has been fixed at one cent per mile each way. Let all Comrades assist in organizing county battalions, so that a creditable showing may be made in the annual parade. By a proper effort on the part of Post Commanders, this can be accomplished.

XIV. Your Commander wishes to attend as many reunions, camp-fires and Post meetings during the year as possible, and requests that in making arrangements for these reunions, Post Commanders or Secretaries of reunion notify the Assistant Adjutant-General of the dates, in order that a record may be kept, and thus avoid conflicting dates. He also suggests that no meetings be fixed for the last week in August, as the Department officers will then be in attendance upon the National Encampment.

XV. Many Posts have failed to call for proceedings of National Encampment, held at Philadelphia. Anyone desiring copy can have same mailed to them by sending the sum of thirteen cents in postage to the Assistant Adjutant-General.

By command of

DAVID E. BEEM,
Department Commander.

R. M. SMOCK,
Assistant Adjutant-General.

Post No. 281, M. A. Dougherty.

These appointments are made with a view of bettering the condition of the Grand Army, by having the benefit of their help and assistance in building up the Order. When notice of their acceptance has been received, commissions will be issued.

II. Comrade William J. Hilligoss having tendered his resignation as a member of the Grand Army Memorial Committee, the same has been accepted, and Comrade Alexander M. Scott, of Post No. 273, is appointed to fill the vacancy. Comrade Charles M. Gravis, of Post No. 77, is hereby appointed chairman of the Visiting Committee to the State Soldiers' Home, made vacant by the transfer of Comrade Scott.

III. The Thirty-fourth Session of the National Encampment will convene in Studebaker Hall, in the city of Chicago, August 29, 1900, at 10 o'clock A. M. All delegates and Past Department Commanders are requested to be in attendance.

IV. Department Headquarters will be located at the Sherman House, in the Gentlemen's Parlor, on the first floor. Senior Vice-Department Commander Arthur R. Seward will be in charge of the Reception Committee. All visiting Comrades will receive a cordial welcome. Comrade C. A. Hutchinson will be in charge of the register and the distribution of Indiana badges. There will also be registers and badges at the Armories and school houses, where free quarters have been secured.

V. The committee having in charge the arrangements for free sleeping quarters have assigned to this Department the following buildings: First Regiment Armory, Michigan avenue and Sixteenth street; Seventh Regiment Armory, Wabash avenue and Hubbard Court; Jones school building, Third avenue and Harrison street, and the Haven school building, Wabash avenue and Fifteenth street, all of which are centrally located. Comrades desiring to occupy these quarters must make application to Comrade R. H. Peters, 184 LaSalle street, Chicago, who is chairman of the Committee on Free Quarters. All assignments are made by him, and not by this Department. Occupants of free quarters must provide themselves with blankets, towels and soap. The Keith school building, corner of Dearborn and Thirty-fourth streets, has been designated as free quarters for the colored troops. Commanders of such Posts, wishing accommodations in the building, will address Comrade Peters as above designated.

VI. Persons desiring accommodations in hotels will address Joseph A. McCartney; in boarding houses, Captain George W. Reed, and in private houses, Captain S. E. Goss. Letters directed to 184 LaSalle street will reach them.

VII. There will be a meeting of the delegates, alternates, and Past Department Commanders at the Department Headquarters in the Sherman House, Wednesday morning, August 29, at 8 o'clock prompt, for the purpose of securing their delegate badges, and the transaction of such business as may come before them. Alternates will not be entitled to badges unless the delegate they represent is absent. Let every one report at the time designated. Any delegate knowing of his inability to attend the Encampment is requested to notify his alternate or the Assistant Adjutant-General.

VIII. The annual parade will take place on Tuesday, August 28, at 10 A. M. This Department will be in charge of Comrade Henry H. Woods, Senior Aide-de-Camp. Your Commander urges upon the Comrades to join in this parade, and all who can to appear in uniform (although none will be excluded who are not). Where advisable, form battalions, so as to increase the numbers in line. Let all Posts take their colors. The Department will assemble at the First Regiment Armory, Michigan avenue and Sixteenth street, at 10 o'clock A. M., so as to take its place in line.

IX. On Tuesday evening, August 28th, at 8 o'clock, there will be State reunions and camp-fires. All Comrades who served in the Indiana regiments or batteries will meet at the First Regiment Armory, Michigan avenue and Sixteenth street.

X. The railroad rates are one cent per mile each way from all points in the State of Indiana, and from some of the principal stations, as follows:

Anderson	$3.55	Lafayette	$2.40
Bloomington	4.45	Madison	5.60
Bedford	4.95	Marion	3.15
Cambridge City.....	4.95	Mitchell	5.15
Columbia City	2.60	Monticello	2.75
Columbus	4.70	Martinsville	4.30
Crawfordsville	3.00	Muncie	3.75
Connersville	4.85	New Albany	6.00
Danville	3.75	Richmond	4.50
Fort Wayne	3.00	Rushville	4.50
Greencastle	3.60	Ridgeville	3.95
Indianapolis	3.75	Shelbyville	4.20
Jeffersonville	6.00	Terre Haute	3.60
Knightstown	4.60	Vincennes	5.25
Logansport	2.35	Wabash	2.80
Lebanon	3.35	Winchester	4.15

And corresponding rates from all stations in Indiana. Tickets will be good for continuous passage on all trains, and will be on sale August 25th to 29th, inclusive, and will be valid for return trip, without execution, leaving Chicago not later than midnight of August 31, 1900. (This means that if you only stay to the 31st of August, you do not have to get your ticket stamped or endorsed.)

Extension of return limit. By depositing ticket with, and upon payment of fee of fifty cents, to the Joint Agent of the Central Passenger Association, not later than 12 noon, September 2, 1900, return limit may be extended to leave Chicago not later than September 30, 1900.

XI. After carefully considering the question, it has been decided not to run an "official or Headquarters train." There are many lines leading direct to Chicago, without change of cars, and the distance short. Comrades will select the route that will be the most convenient.

XII. The semi-annual reports for the term ending June 30 show that many Posts have made handsome gains. Attention is called to a few of them to show what can be done by earnest work on the part of the Officers and Comrades. Net gains have been made by the following Posts: John A. Logan Post No. 3, Lafayette, 18; Thos. J. Harrison Post No. 30, Kokomo, 32; Lew Daily Post No. 33, Bluffton, 58; Martin R. Delaney Post No. 70, Indianapolis, 21; Williams

Post No. 78, Muncie, 36; Gen. John A. Logan Post No. 199, North Manchester, 16; George H. Chapman Post No. 209, Indianapolis, 14, and Jasper Packard Post No. 589, State Soldiers' Home, 82. Two of the above named Posts more than doubled their membership. It is hoped that this will be an inspiration to others to work accordingly.

XIII. Aides-de-Camp upon the staff of Department Commander are requested to report at Department Headquarters upon their arrival in Chicago, for such duty as may be assigned them.

XIV. Department Headquarters at Indianapolis will be closed during the National Encampment.

XV. The Comrades of Post No. 23, at Marion, warn the Comrades against one James C. Orr, a member of that Post, whose conduct has been such as NOT to merit the confidence of his Comrades.

XVI. With this order will be found copy of the Proceedings of the last Department Encampment. This belongs to the Post. There are also enclosed General Orders from National Headquarters.

By command of

DAVID E. BEEM,
Department Commander.

R. M. SMOCK,
Assistant Adjutant-General.

HEADQUARTERS DEPARTMENT OF INDIANA,
GRAND ARMY OF THE REPUBLIC,
OFFICE OF ASSISTANT ADJUTANT-GENERAL,
ROOM 25, STATE HOUSE,
INDIANAPOLIS, IND., October 12, 1900.

GENERAL ORDERS,
No. 4.

I. The following additional Aides-de-Camp are appointed upon the staff of the Department Commander, and will be obeyed and respected accordingly:

Post No. 72, Jas. A. Carnahan.	Post No. 209, H. B. Makepeace.
Post No. 85, Henry F. Perry.	Post No. 430, Henry C. Clark.
Post No. 91, M. C. Stephenson.	Post No. 461, T. J. Huffman.

Upon receipt of their acceptance, commissions will be issued by the Assistant Adjutant-General.

II. The Thirty-fourth National Encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic, held at Chicago, Ill., was a very successful one, and matters of importance to the membership transacted. Among other things was an amendment to the Rules and Regulations, permitting Posts to omit all of the "muster in" service, except the "obligation and badge presentation address;" also that the memorizing of the services should no longer be required in rating the Posts in the annual reports. The attendance from this Department was very large and gratifying to the Department officers. Over five thousand five hundred were registered. Your Commander desires to express his high appreciation of the excellent showing made by the Comrades in the annual parade. The soldierly and dignified appearance of those in line was second to no other Department, and challenged the admiration of the thousands who viewed the column. The unusually large number taking part is evidence of the fact that the old Veteran's heart beats in sympathy with our grand organization. The beautiful banner, presented by the Citizens' Committee, of Chicago, to be given to the post presenting the best appearance in line, was awarded to Martin R. Delaney Post No. 70, of Indianapolis. The Commander desires to acknowledge his indebtedness to Comrade H. H. Woods, Senior Aide-de-Camp, for the excellent manner in which he performed his duties, and also return the thanks of the Department to Col. A. J. Burbank, of Chicago, for courtesies shown.

III. The annual inspection of Posts must be made before the 31st day of December, as provided by the Rules and Regulations. With this Order will be found the blank for the Inspector. Upon receipt of this Order, Post Commanders will detail a competent Comrade who will, without unnecessary delay, proceed to inspect the Post, and make his report to Charles H. Myerhoff, Department Inspector, Evansville, Indiana. Promptness in this matter is very essential, as the newly elected officers cannot be installed until such inspection has been made. Post Commanders will see that this order is obeyed.

IV. In compliance with the recommendation of the last Department Encampment, Comrades Robert S. Foster, James R. Carnahan and William H. Armstrong, are appointed a special committee to prepare a brief and comprehensive history of the Grand Army of the Republic, in this Department, including the old and new organizations, so that such history may be preserved in the records of the Department. They will make their report to the next Department Encampment.

V. The recent storm that swept the coast of Texas, and especially at Galveston and vicinity, and the loss sustained by many of our Comrades, appeals to the sympathy of every Comrade of this Department. Many have been left homeless and destitute, and it is but fitting and proper that we extend a helping hand, in this, the hour of their distress, by rendering such financial aid as we can. Enclosed will be found an appeal from the Department of Texas, approved by the Commander-in-Chief. As winter is fast approaching, whatever is done, should be done with promptness.

VI. With this Order will be found General Orders Nos. 1 and 2, from National Headquarters.

By command of

R. M. SMOCK,

Assistant Adjutant-General.

DAVID E. BEEM,

Department Commander.

HEADQUARTERS DEPARTMENT OF INDIANA,
GRAND ARMY OF THE REPUBLIC,
OFFICE OF ASSISTANT ADJUTANT-GENERAL,
ROOM 25, STATE HOUSE.
INDIANAPOLIS, IND., November 27, 1900.

GENERAL ORDERS,
No. 5.

I. The annual election of Post officers and representatives to the Department Encampment will take place at the first regular meeting in December. The welfare and prosperity of the Post depends largely upon its officers, and for that reason the Comrades are urged to secure the very best material for the place—those that will give to the Order their best efforts for its success.

II. Each Post will elect one representative for every fifty members, and one for a fraction or more than one-half of that number, based upon the membership reported in good standing June 30, 1900. Also a like number of alternates. Posts having a membership of less than fifty are entitled to one representative and one alternate. The Rules and Regulations provide that all past and present Post Commanders in good standing are members of the Department Encampment, and for that reason should not be elected as representatives or alternates. It will give your Post a larger representation by electing from your membership.

III. As soon as the Post officers are elected, the Adjutants will fill out the enclosed certificate, transmit one copy to Department Headquarters, and retain the other. In order to avoid errors in the printed proceedings, see that all names are written in full and correctly spelled.

IV. Posts failing to make their reports, or pay the per capita tax when due, are not entitled to representation in the Department and National Encampments.

V. It is the duty of the Post Adjutant to make out the mortuary report. This should include the names in full of all members in good standing in the Post, who died during the year 1900, giving the age, rank, company, regiment and date of death. Blanks for that purpose are herewith enclosed.

VI. The reports of Post Chaplains are made annually after each Memorial Day.

VII. Blanks for the semi-annual report of the Adjutant and Quartermaster for the six months ending December 31, 1900, are enclosed. In order that prompt reports may be made to National Headquarters, Post officers should get together after the last Post meeting in December, make out and transmit these reports, with the per capita tax (ten cents for each member in good standing) to R. M. Smock, Assistant Adjutant-General, in the enclosed envelope. Post Quartermasters will send post-office money order, express money order, or draft. Personal checks should not be sent.

VIII. The installation of Post officers will occur at the first regular meeting in January, 1901, or at a special meeting called for that purpose. Your Commander would recommend that the usual custom prevail, and that this installation be public, and held jointly with the W. R. C. and Sons of Veterans (where there is a camp). With the proper effort, this meeting can be made one of unusual interest to the Post and its members, where the installation is public. "No part of the opening or closing services shall be used."

IX. The Post Commanders-elect will select the Installing Officer, who shall be one of the Department Officers, or a Past Post Commander in good standing. It is recommended, however, that where it is practicable, one of the Department Officers be selected. If requested, the Assistant Adjutant-General will issue a special order detailing the Comrade selected to perform that service.

X. Doubtless many of the Posts have not secured copies of the new "Service Book," adopted by the 31st National Encampment. Post Quartermasters should order in time for their installation; price, thirty cents each. All newly elected Post officers should procure their official badges, at the same time.

XI. No installation can be legally had until the Post has been inspected, and the semi-annual reports and per capita tax transmitted to Department Headquarters. It is the duty of the installing officer to inquire whether the Post has been inspected, and if not, he will defer the installation, and proceed to inspect the Post, after which he will install the officers. Chapter 5, Article VII, of the Rules and Regulations, require Post Quartermasters to give bond for the faithful discharge of their duties. This must be done before they can be installed. Requisition should be made for the necessary blanks in time for their execution.

XII. With this Order will be found blanks for Post Surgeons' reports. They are now made for the entire year. If the Post Surgeon is absent, the Adjutant will see that this blank is filled out and transmitted to Comrade J. E. Sterrett, Medical Director, Logansport, Ind.

XIII. Many Posts have failed to report their inspection. As this is imperative, Post Commanders will see that this is complied with at once.

XIV. Attention of Post Commanders is called to the "Report of Committee on Legislation for Veterans in Public Service," made to the last National Encampment, and also to House Bill No. 5779, now pending in Congress. Every effort should be made to have this bill passed by the coming session of Congress. Posts will either pass resolutions or write personal letters to their Congressmen and United States Senators, urging its passage. It has already received the approval of the National Encampment.

GENERAL ORDERS,
No. 7.

I. Enclosed herewith will be found the report of the Grand Army Visiting Committee to the State Soldiers' Home. The Commander desires that this report be read to the Post at the first meeting after its reception, and that the Comrades of the Post and officers, each one interest themselves in having the appropriations made, so that the buildings mentioned in this report may be erected. It is especially desired that Post officers communicate with their Representatives in the General Assembly and urge them to support such measures as will be necessary to carry into effect the report of this committee.

HEADQUARTERS DEPARTMENT OF INDIANA,
GRAND ARMY OF THE REPUBLIC,
OFFICE OF ASSISTANT ADJUTANT-GENERAL,
ROOM 25, STATE HOUSE,
INDIANAPOLIS, IND.; February 23, 1901.

GENERAL ORDERS,

No. 8.

I. A number of Posts have failed to send in their Certificates of Election, or the name of the Adjutant. This is important in order that a complete and correct roll-call and roster of the Department may be made.

II. The Twenty-second Annual Encampment of the Department will be held in the city of Logansport, Ind., on May 15th and 16th. The Department Headquarters will be established at the Hotel "Barnett." The Citizens' Executive Committee has organized with Comrade Frank Swigart as Chairman, and Hon. Albert G. Jenkins as Secretary. Anyone desiring information in regard to the arrangements will address Mr. Jenkins, Logansport, Indiana. Additional information will be given in future orders.

III. The Thirty-fifth Session of the National Encampment will be held in the city of Cleveland, Ohio, September 9 to 14, 1901. The Headquarters of this Department will be located at the Hotel "Hollenden," corner Superior and Bond streets. Those desiring accommodations at this Hotel will write R. A. McCarthy, care Hollenden Hotel, at once, and make such arrangements as will be satisfactory.

IV. A report made to Headquarters by the Department Commander of Texas shows that the Posts of this Department contributed for the relief of the Galveston sufferers the sum of $234.42.

Your Commander desires, through General Orders, to return to the several Posts who made contributions his sincere thanks for their prompt and generous response.

V. During the past year many Posts have suffered losses by fire. It is recommended that all Posts keep their halls and furniture insured in a sum sufficient to reimburse them in case of such loss.

VI. Attention is called to the fundamental principles of our order, "Fraternity," "Charity" and "Loyalty." It has been the boasted pride of our organization that in its ranks there is no distinction, all stand upon an equality, and that it is an organization that does not allow politics to enter, and upon that question attention is called to Article XI, which reads as follows: "No officer or Comrade of the Grand Army of the Republic shall in any manner use this organization for partisan purposes, and no discussion of partisan questions shall be permitted at any of its meetings, nor shall any nominations for any political office be made." While it is the duty of all Comrades to aid and assist their Comrades in every proper way, and by all lawful means, yet the wisdom of the rule above cited must be apparent to every one. The official act of any Post, either by nomination or the adopting of resolutions endorsing anyone for political office or appointment, is clearly in conflict with the spirit and intent of the Rules and Regulations, as adopted by the National Encampment. We have builded up our order upon that platform, and upon that it must stand.

The grandest organization of its character known to the world, full of grand and glorious deeds, for the fostering care of the veteran, his widow and orphaned children, let every Comrade stand by its noble principles and by his aid and assistance keep out of its proceedings that which will lead to discord and disruption. The carrying into effect of this wise provision does not in any manner prevent any and all Comrades from exercising their right as American citizens to vote or petition as their judgment dictates, so long as such action is kept out of Post meetings.

VII. Post Chaplains' reports show many unmarked veterans' graves. The Government will furnish the necessary headstones upon application. Post Commanders are requested to bring this matter to the attention of their Posts. Where desired, blanks will be furnished from this office.

VIII. Post Quartermasters needing supplies are requested to order as soon as convenient, so that their requisitions can be filled before the books are closed for the Auditing Committee.

IX. With this Order will be found General Orders No. 3, from National Headquarters.

By command of

R. M. SMOCK,

Assistant Adjutant-General.

Department Commander.

HEADQUARTERS DEPARTMENT OF INDIANA,
GRAND ARMY OF THE REPUBLIC,
OFFICE OF ASSISTANT ADJUTANT-GENERAL,
ROOM 25, STATE HOUSE.
INDIANAPOLIS, IND., April 23, 1901.

GENERAL ORDERS,
No. 9.

I. The Twenty-second Annual Encampment of the Department of Indiana, Grand Army of the Republic, will convene in the "Broadway Rink" in the city of Logansport, on Wednesday, May 15th, at 9 o'clock. All delegates are requested to be in attendance at that hour. Commander-in-Chief Leo Rassieur and members of his staff will be present during the Encampment. The citizens of Logansport are making arrangements to entertain all veterans and their friends who attend the Encampment, assuring all a hearty welcome.

II. The Central Passenger Association has authorized a rate of one cent per mile each way, short line distances from all points in the State of Indiana, and over all railroad lines, tickets good going on May 13th, 14th and 15th, and returning up to and including May 18th. Comrades throughout the Department are requested to call upon their local ticket agents and ascertain if excursion tickets have been provided. If they have not, then notify this office at once.

III. The hotels have announced the following rates: Barnett, $2.00 and $2.50 per day; Murdock, $2.00; Johnson, $2.00, and Dunn, $1.50. Any one wishing accommodations will write to A. H. Douglass, Chairman of Committee, Logansport, Ind.

IV. Department Headquarters will be established at the "Barnett," Room No. 3, where all Comrades and their friends will be welcomed.

V. The Committee on Credentials will consist of R. M. Smock, Assistant Adjutant-General, and the following Comrades: Arthur

R. Seward, John C. Gordon, H. E. Butler, Theodore Wilkes, William E. Shilling, George W. Hissong, C. A. Hutchinson and Joseph E. Loughry. They will report to the Assistant Adjutant-General, at Room No. 3, Barnett House, Tuesday, May 14th, at 2 o'clock, and will remain in session until 7 o'clock P. M. All delegates arriving that day are requested to call and secure their delegate badges.

VI. The Council of Administration will meet at the Headquarters room at 8 o'clock P. M., Tuesday, May 14th, for the transaction of such business as may be necessary. Every member is expected to be present.

VII. Delegates MUST apply in person for their badges. No badges will be issued to alternates unless the delegate is absent. No proxies will be considered or recognized. Past Post Commanders, if absent, cannot be represented by alternates.

VIII. The annual parade will occur Wednesday, May 15th, at 1:30 P. M., and will be in charge of Comrade Henry H. Woods, Senior Aide-de-Camp. Posts will form according to their numerical numbers. All Comrades are requested to join in the parade and assist in making this feature of the Encampment a success.

IX. On Wednesday evening five "camp-fires" will be held. Prominent Comrades and others will be present and address the meetings. All are cordially invited to attend.

X. The Encampment will be governed, so far as applicable, by the rules of the National Encampment. The Council of Administration will present the order of business, and, in order to avoid delay, all resolutions must be reduced to writing, signed by the party and presented to the Encampment on the first day, in accordance with the action of the last Encampment.

XI. Comrade John E. Irwin, of Post No. 14, has been detailed as Officer of the Day, and Comrade James C. Chidister, of the same Post, as Officer of the Guard, to serve during the Encampment. They will be obeyed and respected accordingly. The Officer of the Day will report to R. M. Smock, Assistant Adjutant-General, at the Barnett, Monday evening, for instructions. Logansport Post No. 14 will detail a sufficient number of guards for duty during the Encampment. They will report to the Officer of the Day Wednesday morning at 8 o'clock, at the Rink, in uniform and with arms.

XII. Aides upon the staff of the Commander-in-Chief are requested to appear in uniform, wearing their official badges, call upon the Commander-in-Chief and assist in making his visit a pleasant one.

XIII. Written reports will be required from the following Department Officers:

Senior Vice-Department Commander.
 Junior Vice-Department Commander.
 Medical Director.
 Department Chaplain.
 Department Inspector.
 Judge Advocate.
 Chief Mustering Officer.

XIV. At the last Department Encampment, on motion of Past Commander-in-Chief I. N. Walker, a committee consisting of Comrades Robert S. Foster, James R. Carnahan and William Armstrong, was appointed to prepare a history of the Grand Army of the Republic of this Department, from its first organization in 1866 up to the year 1879, when it was reorganized and when the records were kept. This committee will make its report during the Encampment.

XV. The Department Commander will not announce any "official route." Comrades will make their own selection, and go the way that will be the most convenient.

XVI. The proceedings of the Thirty-fourth National Encampment have been received, and Posts desiring copies can have them mailed to them upon receipt of ten cents, the necessary postage.

XVII. It becomes our painful duty to announce the death of our distinguished Comrade, Benjamin Harrison, late President of the United States, which occurred at his home in the city of Indianapolis on the 13th day of March, 1901. His funeral was attended by the President of the United States and thousands of sorrowing Comrades and citizens. With ceremony and tribute becoming the exalted stations which he held in life, his remains were laid to rest in the city he loved and had so highly honored. His patriotism, his gallantry as a soldier, his transcendent abilities and services in civil life, his pure and Christian character, are recognized by an admiring world. His death is an irreparable loss to the Nation. Thus we are reminded that nearly all the renowned leaders of the Civil War have passed away, and soon all will sleep the sleep of fame.

It is with profound sorrow and a deep sense of loss that the Department Commander is also called upon to announce the death of our honored Comrade, William L. Dunlap, a Past Commander of this Department, which occurred at his home in the city of Franklin, Indiana, on Sunday, April 14, 1901. A brave soldier, a true Comrade, a patriotic and upright citizen and a Christian gentleman of the highest character, his loss will be deeply felt by the Grand Army of the Republic, by the State and by the community in which he lived.

The last sad rites were performed around his open grave by the Comrades of his Post, assisted by the Department Commander. A true American and a lover of the Grand Army of the Republic, he was a thorough representative of the splendid comradeship of the war for the Union.

By command of

DAVID E. BEEM,
Department Commander.

R. M. SMOCK,
Assistant Adjutant-General.

HEADQUARTERS DEPARTMENT OF INDIANA,
GRAND ARMY OF THE REPUBLIC,
OFFICE OF ASSISTANT ADJUTANT-GENERAL,
ROOM 25, STATE HOUSE.
INDIANAPOLIS, IND., April 24, 1901.

GENERAL ORDERS,
No. 10.

I. The near approach of May 30th causes our thoughts to dwell upon the heroic dead. It is extremely gratifying to know that this day, made sacred to the memory of our fallen Comrades, is being observed with greater interest each year throughout the Union by all classes of citizens. This is evidence that popular appreciation of the services and sacrifices of the soldiers of the Union increases with the years and in proportion as the magnitude and resulting good of their achievements are made manifest. The complete unification of our country was the inspiring motive in the enlistment and service of every soldier of the Republic. The happy accomplishment of this high purpose, the marvelous growth and prosperity of our restored Union, the increased luster and glory of our flag throughout the world and the consequent impetus to republican institutions appeal strongly to the hearts of a patriotic people. They delight to honor the memory of the men who struggled to bring about these mighty results.

The Grand Army of the Republic, which instituted Memorial Day, should in the future, as in the past, lead in its observance, and in all proper ways encourage others to participate in the same. To properly honor the memory of our deceased Comrades is to honor our glorious cause. To garland their graves with the choicest flowers of springtime is a beautiful lesson in patriotism, and is a reminder that the noble dead laid down their lives in defense of national life and honor.

Post Commanders are urged to make the usual preparations for the decoration of the graves of our dead Comrades. Let great care be observed in the selection of speakers and music, that the services may be in keeping with the character of the sacred day.

In accordance with the action of the Thirtieth National Encampment, the Department Commander directs that the memorial address of President Lincoln at Gettysburg be read in connection with the other services. That address is worthy to be engraved on every patriotic heart, and is in the following language:

“Four score and seven years ago our fathers brought forth on this continent a new nation, conceived in liberty and dedicated to the proposition that all men are created equal. Now we are engaged in a great civil war, testing whether that nation, or any nation so conceived, and so dedicated, can long endure. We are met on a great battle-field of that war. We have come to dedicate a portion of that field as a final resting-place for those who here gave their lives that that nation might live. It is altogether fitting and proper that we should do this.

“But in a larger sense we cannot dedicate—we cannot consecrate, we cannot hallow—this ground. The brave men, living or dead, who struggled here have consecrated it, far above our poor power to add or detract. The world will little note nor long remember what we say here, but it can never forget what they did here. It is for us, the living, rather to be dedicated here to the unfinished work which they who fought here have thus far so nobly advanced. It is rather for us to be here dedicated to the great task remaining before us—that from these honored dead we take increased devotion to that cause for which they gave the last full measure of devotion—that we here highly resolve that these dead shall not have died in vain—that this Nation, under God, shall have a new birth of freedom, and that government of the people, by the people, for the people, shall not perish from the earth.”

II. Post Commanders are also enjoined to observe the established custom of attending Divine worship on the Sunday preceding Memorial Day. This Nation should ever remain a people whose God is the Lord.

III. It is suggested that at all of these services members of the Woman's Relief Corps, the Sons and Daughters of Veterans and all kindred and patriotic orders and the soldiers of other wars, be invited to participate.

JOURNAL
OF THE
Twenty-third Annual Encampment
GRAND ARMY OF THE REPUBLIC.

The Twenty-third Annual Encampment of the Department of Indiana Grand Army of the Republic assembled in Tomlinson Hall, Tuesday, May 13, at 2 o'clock, Department Commander, Milton Garrigus, presiding. The Encampment was opened according to the ritual, Comrade Charles W. Wheat, Post 209, Indianapolis, acting as Officer of the Day, and Comrade David N. Huey, Post 165, Indianapolis, Officer of the Guard. Department Chaplain B. F. Shepherd, Post 476, invoked the Divine blessing.

ORDER OF BUSINESS.

The Encampment being opened, Comrade Richard M. Smock, Assistant Adjutant-General, on behalf of the Council of Administration, submitted the following Rules and Order of Business:

1. Opening of the Encampment.
2. Report of Committee on Credentials.
3. Calling Roll of Department Officers and Posts.

DUP 5XCH 1 of C Nov 13 10

4. Commander's Address.
5. Appointment of Committees on Reports of Officers, Resolutions, and other Committees.
6. Reception and Reference of Resolutions and Communications.
7. Reports of Officers.
8. Reports of Committees.
9. Miscellaneous Business.
10. Election of Delegates and Alternates to National Encampment.
11. Election of Department Officers as follows:
 - (a) Council of Administration.
 - (b) Chaplain.
 - (c) Medical Director.
 - (d) Junior Vice-Department Commander.
 - (e) Senior Vice-Department Commander.
 - (f) Commander.
12. Installation of Officers.

The business of the Encampment shall be conducted under the "Rules of Order" of the National Encampment so far as they are applicable.

All speeches shall be limited to five minutes except by unanimous consent.

All resolutions offered shall be read and referred to the Committee on Resolutions without debate, on the first day of the Encampment. And no resolution will be considered that has not been presented to the Encampment on the first day, and signed by the party presenting it, except by two-thirds vote.

In nominations for Department Officers the roll will be called by Congressional Districts, and only the name, location and Post of the Comrade shall be given.

Balloting for Delegates and Alternates to the National Encampment shall be taken in the following manner:

The Comrades from each Congressional District will assemble in District meetings on Wednesday morning at 8 o'clock, in the hall, and organize by selecting a Chairman and two Tellers, whose names shall be reported to the Assistant Adjutant-General; they shall at the same time select Delegates and Alternates to the National Encampment, giving names in full, with post-office address and number of Post they are selected from.

In balloting for Department Officers in the Encampment, the same Tellers shall collect the ballots of their respective Districts, count the same, and when the Districts are called, the Chairman of such District will announce the result of such ballot for each candidate, and send the same in writing to the Assistant Adjutant-General, signed by the Chairman and Tellers. The Assistant Adjutant-General shall then tabulate the vote and announce the result for each candidate.

If there be any controversy in any District over the result of any ballot before it is announced, the Commander shall, upon the request of two Comrades, order the roll of said District called for verification.

In selecting the Council of Administration, the five candidates receiving the highest number of votes shall be declared elected. Every ballot to have five names upon it. Ballots having less than five names shall not be counted.

Representatives and Alternates to the National Encampment shall be elected in the same manner as Department Officers, and apportioned to each Congressional District according to the numerical strength of the District: One Representative and one Alternate for each seven hundred and fifty Comrades in good standing, and one additional Representative and Alternate for a major fraction of more than one-half of that number, apportioned as follows:

One Representative and one Alternate-at-Large.

First District—One Representative and one Alternate.

} Jointly one Representative and one Alternate.

In balloting no proxies will be allowed, and no votes will be counted unless cast by Comrades present in the hall at the time the vote is taken, either by Districts or in open Encampment. After the second ballot for any office the candidate receiving the lowest number of votes shall be dropped on each successive ballot.

The place of holding the next Encampment shall be determined before adjournment on Tuesday.

Pending a motion to adopt the foregoing report, Past Department Commander James T. Johnston, moved to amend the rule providing that "no resolution will be considered that has not been presented to the Encampment and signed by the party presenting it, except by unanimous consent," by striking out the words "unanimous consent" and substituting "a two-thirds vote." The amendment was adopted and as amended the Order of Business was, on motion of Comrade Smiley N. Chambers, Post 17, unanimously adopted.

COMMITTEE ON CREDENTIALS.

Assistant Adjutant-General R. M. Smock, for the Committee on Credentials, presented the following report:

INDIANAPOLIS, IND., May 13, 1902.

To the Twenty-third Annual Encampment, Department of Indiana, Grand Army of the Republic:

The Committee on Credentials would respectfully report that they have examined the certificates of election, as forwarded by the several Posts of the Department, and find the following to be a correct and complete roll of the Department.

Respectfully submitted,

R. M. SMOCK, Chairman ,	MORTON C. RANKIN,
RODNEY STRAIN,	JAMES D. BRADEN,
CHARLES W. BROWN,	SOL A. PENNINGTON,
B. F. SHEPHERD,
JOHN F. HAMMELL,	Committee.

The report was adopted. Thereupon Department Commander Garrigus directed the Assistant Adjutant-General to proceed to call the roll of the Encampment as reported by the Committee on Credentials. When the roll of Department Officers and Past Commanders had been called, on motion of Past Senior Vice-Commander-in-Chief Robbins, the rule requiring the calling of the Posts was suspended by unanimous consent.

DEPARTMENT COMMANDER'S ADDRESS.

The Department Commander called Senior Vice-Department Commander Rodney Strain to the chair and proceeded to read his address, as follows:

HEADQUARTERS DEPARTMENT OF INDIANA,
GRAND ARMY OF THE REPUBLIC,
KOKOMO, IND., May 13, 1902.

Comrades:

Again the Department of Indiana, Grand Army of the Republic, meets in Annual Encampment under very favorable circumstances. We should return our sincere thanks, with grateful hearts, to Almighty God that so many of our Comrades are yet alive and able to gather together in the capital city of our great State to greet each other as only soldiers can, together with our loyal friends; and especially that we may once more gaze upon our dear old flags and banners, which we followed to victory more than a third of a century ago, march with them once again and join in dedicating the greatest Soldiers' and Sailors' Monument of all the ages.

We rejoice that we live to see the honor and prosperity of the country that we saved from ruin; that we have been privileged to live on the earth at the particular period that witnessed more of progress, more of achievement, more invention and more grandeur and glory than have occurred in any period of the world's history since the morning stars first sang together; to see our flag honored on every land and sea by all nations, and our redeemed and glorified Nation leading the procession of empires, kingdoms and republics in the triumphant march of civilization, humanity and good government. We are proud to have been part of the grandest army that ever marched to victory, and that those victorious soldiers have proven themselves to be first-class citizens after the great war, as well as the best and most intelligent soldiers the world ever saw. We point with pride not only to the heroic rank and file, but to our illustrious leaders whose skill, strategy and success challenged the admiration of military men and astonished the crowned heads of Europe. Since Nationality and Liberty crowned our efforts many of our Comrades have won civic laurels as Presidents, Governors, Senators, Congressmen, Judges and in many other honorable positions, while surviving soldiers took their places in the various avocations of life and have in all honorable ways helped to develop our country, to make its laws, to overcome the barriers of nature, to subdue the soil, to open the mines and to cover the land from ocean to ocean with cities, villages, manufactories, churches, school-houses and happy homes. We have done and are doing our full share in fulfilling our great mission to make the world happier and better because we lived in it. Providence has led us and blessed us and guided our country. The patriotic blood and fervor of her courageous and liberty-loving sons has been so diffused among our people that we have shown the world an object lesson in hasty preparation and grand achievements on land and sea in our war with Spain. We are placed properly in the forefront of the governments of the earth in military, naval, humanitarian and business matters, and our growth and prosperity have no bounds.

ORGANIZATION.

Success with bodies of men depends upon thoroughly organized effort, whether in war, politics, legislation, religion or business. By the thorough organization of the army and navy we suppressed the Rebellion. Our companies, regiments, brigades, divisions and corps, when acting under the orders of one qualified commander and in concert with our fleet, became invincible. So our great organization, the Grand Army of the Republic, has enabled us to secure favorable pension legislation, establish National and State Military Homes, at Knightstown a Soldiers' and Sailors' Orphans' Home and erect a magnificent and lasting Monument at Indianapolis to the soldiers and sailors of the war of 1861-5 and in honor of the cause for which we fought. This patriotic and useful legislation and its beneficial results could not have been accomplished without the aid and management of our organization.

As we grow farther and farther away from the years of Grant's grim charge, Sherman's glorious march and Sheridan's dashing raid we need to close up our ranks, carefully maintain our organization and comradeship for our mutual benefit and protection, for the good of our country and the cultivation of true patriotism. Every honorably discharged soldier and sailor of the War of the Rebellion should be a member of the Grand Army of the Republic.

The Military Order of the Loyal Legion and the Women's Relief Corps are loyal co-workers with us, and we hope that the Sons of Veterans will follow our teachings and eventually fill our places in a patriotic way. Therefore, as a means of strength and influence, let us maintain and perfect our organization. It will not then be politic to hiss a veteran's claim in any assemblage or elsewhere in this Republic.

As veterans our only safety is in union, and should we neglect this others may forget what the country owes to its saviors and defenders. All soldiers should be proud to belong to an organization that has and always has had in its membership the most eminent and beloved of all the Nation's heroes and statesmen.

Our membership must steadily decrease in numbers as the years roll on, yet there are many veterans who have not been mustered into our Order, or who have for various reasons been suspended or dropped out. These should, by earnest, united and systematic effort, be gathered into our fold. It is a great honor to be buried with our beautiful ritualistic ceremonies. No veteran should deprive himself of this patriotic tribute to his life and services. Yet it can be rendered only to those who are members in good standing at their decease.

Comrades, let us think of this in time. How lonely to bid farewell to earth without Flag or Comrades in attendance! Duties and privileges go together. Keep your names on the roll. The Pale Messenger with inverted torch beckons us on, and Comrades are falling all about us, like they did on the battlefields of the war.

Our beloved President, Comrade McKinley, has been stricken down within the past year by the foul and wicked hand of an anarchist. Let us all be ready. Having served our country so faithfully and honorably, it would be too sad and terrible for any of the veterans to fail to secure a happy home with his glorified Comrades in the home prepared for us by our Heavenly Father.

MEMORIAL DAY

Is the sweetest and most sacred day of all the year. It is the Sabbath of American Patriotism. The wonders of Nature's flowery kingdom, marching in the advance of spring, embellish the earth. At times we hear again the sound of fife, drum and bugle. We see our Comrades taking a last farewell of home, mother, wife and sweetheart. Their flushed faces shine with love and courage. We hear again their familiar voices and songs, while in camp, on the march and in the battle. But this is all memory and imagination. Their voices were stilled as they went out from among us through the smoke that settled on the battlefields more than a third of a century ago. Dear dead Comrades, you sleep in death and dream of war no more! Many died in the happiest, sunniest period of their lives. For all these glorious dead the tattoo extinguishes no light, the reveille brings no morning. But the spirit of their sacrifice still lives and inspires all our Nation's future. How exceedingly sad that they are but dust and a memory. But with a heroism seldom equalled and a chivalry never surpassed they carried our star-decked flag, oft spotted with blood and torn with shot and shell, to an unparalleled triumph in the interest of all mankind. Therefore, the observance of Memorial Day is a sacred duty that every citizen, of this country and every lover of home and our institutions owes to lofty patriotism and heroic valor.

The loyal women of the land always have and ever will do their full share to honor the dead heroes, to cover their graves with flowers, to care for the crippled and needy survivors and to keep alive the fires of patriotism with young and old. We can always rely with confidence upon their aid and encouragement. One by one we of the survivors are coming to the silent camping ground as a weary rear guard, wrapping our blankets and the flag about us and lying down in a last bivouac, until we assemble at God's Day of Judgment in grand reunion with our great leaders and all the loyal hosts who in the years gone by marched out in blue to do and to die for the eternal right. We shall gather at the river with garlands of flowers fresh as Eden, with celestial music and silken standards, bannered with peace and laureled with fadeless renown, and join in the grand parade under the walls of a city not made with hands.

During his term your Commander has responded to numerous invitations and visited Posts and Reunions in many portions of the Department, mingling with loyal Comrades, all of which he has greatly enjoyed. He hopes the Order will be benefited thereby. I was warmly welcomed everywhere, and for all the kindness and courtesies so loyally and fraternally extended I am deeply grateful.

I visited the State Soldiers' Home several times during the year past, and twice met there with the Trustees and a number of the members of the Grand Army Committee appointed to look after its interests. Commandant Stormont and Adjutant Kehler are efficient officers, who, with their able corps of assistants, are doing all that can be done for the improvement and welfare of the Home and the comfort of its inmates under the watchful care of the Trustees, with the means provided.

At a meeting of said Committee last February at the Home Secretary Malloy, of the Committee, was directed to prepare an article for the newspapers, reflecting the views and sentiments of the said Committee after a careful inspection. I quote from said article a portion, which I and the Committee approve and indorse: "If the people rightly understood the situation, there would be no hesitation on the part of County Councils to make necessary appropriations for the erection of cottages, nor of the Legislature in making provision for the Home, such as may be needed. The Home has not sufficient accommodations to meet the demands upon it. There are a hundred or more veterans who are now applicants and have been accepted, as the officers informed us, but who cannot be received at the Home because there is no place to shelter them. Out of the ninety-two counties of this State only thirty-three have erected cottages. Let it not be said:

"The soldier asked for bread,
But they waited until he was dead
And gave him a stone instead,
Sixty and one feet high."

"A good cottage can be built for from $1,500 to $2,000, and every county can afford such an expenditure as that. The Home is a credit to the State, and, fine as it is, it ought to be made still better. Every worthy Indiana soldier and his wife or widow who needs its protection and comforts should be able to gain access to it. The Home is not a burden to the State. The cost for each veteran in the Home is only $150 per annum, $100 of which is paid by the National Government, so that, among the three—the National Government, the State and the county—there ought easily to be made ample provisions for all the needs of Indiana's Civil War veterans and other veteran soldiery. Many of the survivors of the Civil War, through age, disease or misfortune, have become non-self-supporting, and the alternative is presented to them of going to the poorhouse or to the Soldiers' Home. The expense of maintaining them in the poorhouse is much greater than it would be in the Soldiers' Home. Therefore, as a measure of economy, the several counties would far better make provisions for indigent veterans in the Soldiers' Home, where they rightly belong, and where honor and gratitude demand their admission, than to disgrace the veteran, the county, the State and the Nation by his assignment to the more common and much-despised poorhouse."

THE SOLDIERS' AND SAILORS' ORPHANS' HOME.

This institution is a great credit to the State. Every member of the Visiting Committee of this Department, together with your Commander, the Assistant Adjutant General and many others, attended the commencement exercises at the Home near Knightstown in June, 1901. The number of children in the Home was 630, of whom 367 were boys and 263 girls. Eighteen pupils graduated. The weather was very warm, but the occasion was a delightful one. Your Commander was privileged to present the badges to the graduating class, but owing to a severe sore throat the audience generally was prevented from hearing his address to the class.

The Home is a beautiful place, and all the buildings and surroundings are clean, healthful and comfortable. It is a model home for children. The Superintendent, officers and teachers are respected and beloved by the children, who are taught good manners, music and morals, instructed in an excellent school in the common school branches and trained in useful occupations so as to be fitted when they graduate to go out into the world and make their own living. Prof. Graham is an excellent Superintendent, and too much cannot be said in praise of the Home and its management. Nearly every county in the State has children partaking of the benefits of this Home and enjoying its privileges. Every citizen of the State ought to visit and inspect the Home, at least once. Indiana is to be congratulated upon having such an institution within its borders.

PENSIONS.

The pension laws are in the main fair and liberal, but they do not sufficiently discriminate between the veterans of long service and the short-term men. Complaints are mostly of the long delay in disposing of claims and of the construction placed on the pension laws by the Commissioner of Pensions, and the very unjust, illiberal and obnoxious rules, orders and regulations established by the Commissioner for the adjudication of pension claims. Applicants are compelled to substantiate their claims beyond a reasonable doubt—a most unfair and outrageous requirement! Congress is not to blame for this, but the Commissioner of Pensions is. By earnest and persistent effort our Grand Army Pension Committee has at last succeeded in having a new Commissioner appointed, instead of H. Clay Evans, and we are duly grateful to them and to President Roosevelt that we are to have the Pension Office placed under a new and, we hope, a more just and liberal management in accordance with the spirit and intent of pension legislation.

THE WOMEN'S RELIEF CORPS.

I bespeak the love, honor, assistance and respect of our Order for the Women's Relief Corps, our noble, true, unselfish and patriotic auxiliary. The loyal women of our country stood firmly by and earnestly supported the Union cause during the four years' struggle, and their devotion to the boys who wore the blue has not diminished or grown dim. They are carrying out in good faith the injunction of the immortal Lincoln, "to live on to finish the work we are in, to bind up the Nation's wounds and to care for him who has borne the battle and for his widow and orphans!"

As a man cannot legally and properly have but one wife at a time, so the Grand Army of the Republic can have but one recognized auxiliary as a ladies' organization. There is room for all loyal, good and patriotic women to work for the interests and care for the veterans, but it is to be greatly regretted that at some times and places there are unnecessary and disagreeable rivalries, jealousies and ill feeling between the organizations of the Ladies of the G. A. R. and the Women's Relief Corps, and, unfortunately, some of our Posts and Comrades are thereby drawn into trouble. It is now the settled policy of the Grand Army of the Republic on all public occasions to prefer the Women's Relief Corps to the Ladies of the G. A. R. The two organizations should be merged into one and labor together loyally. The Grand Army will not tolerate any humiliation of its auxiliary by Posts in this Department on such occasions as public parades, joint installations or during Memorial Day exercises.

I enjoin Comrades to all be and act like gentlemen in their association with all ladies and ladies' organizations, and so encourage harmony among ourselves, our Posts and all patriotic organizations. It is the duty of all Posts to especially treat the Women's Relief Corps with the utmost courtesy, but that does not mean that other organizations should not be treated with respect and courtesy.

The organization of the Sons of Veterans and its auxiliary, the Ladies' Aid Society, are to be encouraged and commended. If they faithfully carry out the spirit and teachings of their Orders, the Grand Army of the Republic will be greatly benefited and we shall rejoice in their prosperity and welcome their aid and assistance as the veterans grow old and look upon them as our heirs and legitimate successors.

The officers, the staff and Council of Administration of this Department met the Citizens' Executive Committee of the city of Anderson at that place in November last to confer as to arrangements for and time of holding our Department Encampment in 1902. The Anderson Citizens' Executive Committee were all heard first, as the proper courtesy suggested, as the Encampment had been voted to be held there, and said Committee suggested that the dedication of the Monument in May, 1902, at Indianapolis, so near to Anderson, about the same time, would, they feared and believed, seriously interfere with making the holding of the Department Encampment at Anderson a success, in attendance and otherwise, and for that reason they favored changing the place of holding the Encampment from Anderson to Indianapolis this year if Anderson could get it in 1903. After listening to the remarks, opinions and suggestions of said Committee representing the people of Anderson, six of the seven Committeemen being present, and, so far as manifested and expressed, all being in accord, and no antagonism being shown by any one, and such opinions and suggestions coming first from said Committee, the Department officials, wishing to act harmoniously with said Committee and the people of Anderson, were constrained to defer to their wishes and agree to such change of place. Accordingly Mayor Bookwalter, of Indianapolis, on learning of such action by the people of Anderson, invited the Department to hold its Encampment at the capital city in 1902, and the officers of the Department accepted the invitation. I believe the change was advisable, and I recommend the coming Encampment to fix Anderson as the place of holding the Encampment in 1903, if the people of Anderson still desire it to be so.

The merging of the offices of Assistant Adjutant-General and Assistant Quartermaster-General in this Department into one is in the interests of economy and does not impair the efficiency with which such duties are performed, and I therefore recommend that the said arrangement be continued.

The Department is in good financial condition and Comrades are nobly keeping up the organization by attending our Posts and Encampments and paying their dues.

For detailed information as to membership and financial standing I refer you to the Report of the Assistant Adjutant-General and Assistant Quartermaster-General, which are printed and published with this address.

The Thirty-fifth National Encampment convened in the city of Cleveland, Ohio, in September, 1901. The attendance was large and the weather pleasant, and it was in every way a success, except that its proceedings were marred and shadowed by the untimely death of our beloved Comrade, President McKinley, which caused a short session and the leaving of the transaction of most of the Encampment business in the hands of the National Council of Administration to be finished by them. I am pleased to state that the parade started promptly on time, for the first time in years; its length of march was reasonably short, no vexatious delays occurred and it was finished about 12 o'clock m., which pleased everybody and wearied no one. It was a model program, satisfactorily performed.

Our Comrades are to be congratulated that our Encampment and the dedication of the State Soldiers' and Sailors' Monument occur at the same time and place; that low rates are fixed by the railroads, and all facilities provided to cause a great attendance and enjoyment by the Comrades. We may see and once more march with our dear old flags and greet our Comrades from all parts of the State.

We are very proud of our great Monument, which was planned, supervised and erected especially to commemorate the great War of the Rebellion and the soldiers and sailors who participated in the same and to honor the cause for which they fought. By some unknown agency or influence, and without proper consideration, the last Legislature of Indiana enacted a law (Acts 1901, page 557, et seq.) establishing a Board of Control of said Monument, and, instead of providing that said Board should consist of three soldiers or sailors who served in the Union army in the War of the Rebellion, it enacts that said Board of Control shall consist of three soldiers or sailors, citizens of Indiana, all of whom have been soldiers or sailors either in the War with Mexico, or in the Union army in the War of the Rebellion, or in the Spanish-American War. Thus the soldiers of the War of the Rebellion, for whom the Monument was built, may have no representative on that Board of Control, while they should have all three members thereof while enough of them are living and capable of filling such positions. The Governor has the power to appoint and remove any or all of them. I call attention to this law as wrong and inconsistent and out of harmony with the plan and purpose for which the Monument was erected and not in accord with the same.

The Grand Army of the Republic should do all in its power to teach and encourage patriotism, and the flag should float over every school-house while school is in session and be in every church. Patriotic exercises should be held regularly in our schools, and only such school histories should be used in schools as contain a true and fair account of the causes and conduct of the War for the Union and treat its Generals and leaders in an honorable way, so as to teach our children to love and honor our Government and to know that we were right and the rebellion wrong. No other school histories should be tolerated in our schools to poison, mislead and prejudice the minds of the children against the Government.

My thanks are due and are hereby tendered to the veterans of this Department for my election as your Commander and for the sympathy given and courtesy with which I have been treated everywhere by all Comrades, which I greatly appreciate. I especially return thanks to the officers of the Department and the members of my staff for their cheerful aid and assistance, for all of which I am grateful.

I am under especial obligations to Comrade R. M. Smock, my intelligent and efficient Assistant Adjutant-General. His services are almost indispensable in conducting the affairs of the Department, especially to a Commander who does not reside at Indianapolis.

Permit me, in conclusion, to say let us continue to take an active interest in our Order and in the affairs of the Government, as we have ever done, to live on to finish the work we are in, assisting and cheering our Comrades, always being cheerful, so as to make life and all our associations pleasant, that the close of our lives may be roseate as a glorious sunset.

Respectfully submitted in F., C. and L.,

MILTON GARRIGUS,
Department Commander.

When the Department Commander had completed the reading of his address, Senior Vice-Department Commander Rodney Strain referred it to the following comrades as a committee:

Alexander M. Scott, Post 273, Ladoga; James A. Price, Post 65, Frankfort; John C. Gordon, Post 132, Argos; Joseph S. Conlogue, Post 69, Kendallville; Charles H. Myerhoff, Post 27, Evansville.

THE RENSSELAER CASE.

Department Commander Garrigus having resumed the chair the Assistant Adjutant General read the following special order of the Department Commander respecting Rensselaer Post No. 84 :

HEADQUARTERS DEPARTMENT OF INDIANA,
GRAND ARMY OF THE REPUBLIC,
INDIANAPOLIS, IND., May 13, 1902.

SPECIAL ORDER
No. 3.

At a meeting of the Council of Administration, held at Department Headquarters, Monday evening, May 12, 1902, it was unanimously recommended that the Department Commander annul the Charter of Rensselaer Post No. 84, Department of Indiana, Grand Army of the Republic. In pursuance of said recommendation it is therefore ordered that the Charter of said Post be annulled, and the said James A. Burnham, Commander of said Rensselaer Post 84, forthwith will forward all of the property of the Department, including Charter, Rituals, books of record and Post papers, to Department Headquarters, as required by the Rules and Regulations.

By command of

MILTON GARRIGUS,
Department Commander.

R. M. SMOCK,
Assistant Adjutant-General.

R. M. SMOCK,
Recorder of Council.

SENIOR VICE-DEPARTMENT COMMANDER'S REPORT.

Department Commander Garrigus having resumed the chair called upon Senior Vice-Department Commander Strain to present his report; which he then read as follows:

LOGANSFORT, IND., May 13, 1902.

R. M. Smock, Assistant Adjutant-General, Indianapolis, Ind.:

DEAR SIR AND COMRADE—In submitting herewith my report of stewardship for the year ending with the session of the Twenty-third Annual Encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic, Department of Indiana, I take pleasure in expressing to the Comrades of the Department my profound gratitude for the honor conferred on me at the meeting held in Logansport a year ago. To be permitted to have the honor of official position in any capacity in the Grand Army of the Republic is one which may well fill the full measure of any soldier's ambition.

The duties and responsibilities of the office for the year have not been laborious or exacting, but such as they were have been a pleasure to perform.

During the year I have taken advantage of every opportunity offered to advance the interests of the organization, and not without a reasonable degree of success.

Comrades have now attained the age when Post meetings have largely lost their attractions, and, after a while, when their interest has gone, many drop their membership. As the organization has no resources to draw from to maintain its membership and perpetuate itself, the problem of how to keep alive the interest is one which the Grand Army of the Republic will have to face in the near future.

Declining years and consequent infirmities are making sad inroads on the strength and time of the Comrades. Attendance on Post meetings, Regimental and Company Reunions, once so popular, is on the decline as the years pass by.

It is true a grateful and patriotic people have a deep and abiding interest in the soldier of the Civil War and an appreciation of the services and sacrifices made by him.

The magnificent monument erected by the people of the State, and which is soon to be dedicated to the memory of the soldiers and sailors, is one of the many substantial evidences of their interest. The structure is one to which the people of the State and as well the Nation can point with pride.

To the Commander and officers of the Department I wish to extend thanks for the many courtesies shown me during the official year.

Yours in F., C. and L.,

RODNEY STRAIN,
Senior Vice-Commander.

JUNIOR VICE-DEPARTMENT COMMANDER'S REPORT.

Junior Vice-Department Commander Charles W. Brown read his report, as follows:

INDIANAPOLIS, May 13, 1902.

R. M. Smock, Assistant Adjutant-General:

DEAR SIR AND COMRADE—My unanimous election to the office of Junior Vice-Department Commander a year ago I regard as the greatest honor that could come to me. Above all, it was an assurance that the Grand Army of the Republic is the one organization which ignores the prejudice of race and regards as equally worthy all those who rendered the country service, however humble, in the hour of its greatest need. I have been received with the consideration due that honorable position by every Post which I have visited. I have attended the meetings of the Department officers and participated in all their deliberations, from each of whom I have received all the courtesies of Comradeship. I take this occasion to thank all of them for their kindness, and particularly Department Commander Garrigus and Assistant Adjutant-General Smock. The longer I live the deeper is my love for the Grand Army of the Republic and my appreciation of the work which it has done for every man who holds an honorable discharge. So long as I live it will be my purpose to do all in my power to promote the interests of an organization which is true to its principles of "Fraternity, Charity and Loyalty."

Again thanking the Encampment and the Order for the honor conferred upon me,

I am yours in F., C. and L.,

CHARLES W. BROWN,

Junior Vice-Department Commander.

MEDICAL DIRECTOR'S REPORT.

Comrade Warren R. King made the following report as Medical Director:

Reports were received of the number of inmates and deaths in soldier institutions in this State for the year ending December 31, 1901, as follows:

The report from Captain Justus H. Chapman, Governor of the National Military Home in Indiana, shows the number of members December 31, 1901, 2,447; number of deaths from January 1, 1901, to December 31, 1901, 132.

From G. R. Stormont, Commandant of the State Soldiers' Home at Lafayette: Total membership of this Home December 31, 1901, 433 men and 299 women; the number who died during the year was 31 men and 17 women. Among the number of men was a soldier of the Spanish-American war.

The report of A. H. Graham, Superintendent of the Soldiers' and Sailors' Orphans' Home at Knightstown, was as follows: There were present in the Home on December 31, 1901, boys 364, girls 256, total 620. This Home has not had a death of pupil or employe since May 4, 1900—a year and nine months. The Superintendent says: "I know of no other institution where they have as large an enrollment that has such a low death record." In my report to the Surgeon-General-in-Chief I requested that he make special mention of Superintendent Graham's report in his report to the National Encampment.

I exceedingly regret that my report is so far short of what it should be. I have sent every Post Commander in the Department a postal card, asking him to see that the Surgeon make out his report and send it to me, yet after all that I have done I have received but about one-half the reports that should have been sent to me. I suggest that some plan be adopted to bring up this part of the work in the future.

It is with regret that I am obliged to report that there are thirteen of our Comrades in poorhouses of this State. I would earnestly request and appeal to the Posts in counties where any of our Comrades are so situated that they take steps to have them removed to either the State or National Home.

Thanking one and all for kindness shown me during my term of office, and hoping that this report will be received and approved, I respectfully submit the same in F., C. and L.,

WARREN R. KING,
Medical Director.

Since January, when the report closes, one new Post has been organized, two reorganized and applications are on file for the reorganization of three others.

I have issued during the year eight General Orders, two Special Orders and thirty-eight Dispensations. Many Posts of the Department have shown much interest in the work during the past year. You will observe from this report that a number of Posts have surrendered their Charters and disbanded. I believe that if a personal effort had been made by the members some of them might have existed for years yet. But lack of interest and indifference has been responsible. Others had a very small membership, and for that reason they concluded to give up and place their membership in larger Posts.

To you, Commander Garrigus, I wish to express my appreciation of your confidence and good will. It has been my aim and purpose to serve you and the Department in a way that would enhance the interest of the Order. If I have in a degree succeeded, I shall feel amply repaid for the effort.

To the other Department Officers and the Comrades of the Department I acknowledge my indebtedness for their kindness during the past year.

I trust that this Department may continue to keep up the interest in this great organization of ours for many years to come.

Respectfully submitted in F., C. and L.,

R. M. SMOCK,

Assistant Adjutant-General.

The financial affairs of the Department are in excellent condition, although the receipts for the Charter fees, sale of supplies and per capita tax were $196.69 less than the previous year, and the amount paid to National Headquarters for per capita tax was $55.16 more than for the preceding year, yet the total expenses for the year closed were $205.23 less than the year 1900.

I have no recommendations to make, other than to say that I believe a continuance of the present business methods will be for the best interests of the Department. Again expressing my thanks to the Commander and all Comrades of the Department for their kind and courteous consideration during the past year.

Respectfully submitted in F., C. and L.,

R. M. SMOCK,

Assistant Quartermaster-General.

REPORT OF AUDITING COMMITTEE.

INDIANAPOLIS, IND., May 13, 1902.

To the Department Commander and Comrades:

Your committee appointed to audit the books of Comrade Smock, the Assistant Adjutant and Assistant Quartermaster-General, beg to report that we have performed the duty assigned to us by a thorough examination of all the books, receipts and disbursements and found them, with all proper vouchers, in excellent order, and we also verified the amount of money on hand and in the bank. It is gratifying to be able to report that, although the receipts for this year were less than the preceding year, the amount on hand exceeds that of last year by $388.37, showing a balance on hand of $3,104.89.

We are of the opinion that the offices of the Assistant Adjutant-General and Assistant Quartermaster-General should be performed by one Comrade, and that the present condition of affairs should be continued.

Respectfully submitted in F., C. and L.,

WARREN R. KING,

W. B. HARRIS,

F. E. SWIFT,

Auditing Committee.

CHIEF MUSTERING OFFICER'S REPORT.

Comrade John L. Kessler submitted the following report as Chief Mustering Officer :

SEYMOUR, IND., May 13, 1902.

R. M. Smock, Assistant Adjutant-General:

DEAR SIR AND COMRADE—In obedience to General Order, I have the honor to submit through you to the Commander and Department Encampment a brief report of my official duties during the past year.

Having been honored by the Department Commander with the appointment of Chief Mustering Officer, and after accepting the same, I have held myself ready at all times to perform to the best of my ability such duties as were required of me and to obey all orders from Headquarters. My duties, however, have not been arduous, as the advanced ages of our Comrades here, as elsewhere, makes the organization of new Posts almost an impossible thing, and my work in this line has been extremely light.

With Department Commander Garrigus and Assistant Adjutant-General Smock, I had the pleasure of attending a Reunion held at Brownstown with the Gordon Tanner Post No. 159, on August 22, 1901. We had a most enjoyable time, and I have reason to believe that this visit was profitable to the Department.

At the same time a Women's Relief Corps was organized. The encouraging speeches made by Commander Garrigus and ably assisted by Assistant Adjutant-General Smock were just what was needed, and did good work for the Department.

On the 22d of January, 1902, I installed the officers of the Gordon Tanner Post No. 159, at Brownstown, and in connection with the Women's Relief Corps a very pleasant and profitable time was enjoyed by all; much enthusiasm was manifested among the Comrades throughout.

I would like to recommend that the Department Officers, as often as possible, take part in Installations, Camp-fires and Reunions. Their doing so enthuses and stimulates the members to better work. As multiplied years creep upon our Comrades they need all the encouragement that can be given them, and that they may not forget the three great and grand principles, Fraternity, Charity and Loyalty, taught by the Grand Army of the Republic, as it means something.

My official correspondence with Headquarters has been through the office of Assistant Adjutant-General Smock, who has ever been obliging and courteous, and who is thoroughly versed in the affairs of the Department.

In conclusion, I desire to express my sincere thanks to the Department Officers for their kind treatment at all times during our official relations, and I shall ever remember with pleasure the many Comrades of the Grand Army with whom this year's work has given me the pleasure of meeting, and my prayer is, that when our mustering days are all over here below, the ranks will be an unbroken column in the Grand Reunion above.

Respectfully submitted in F., C. and L.,

JOHN L. KESSLER,
Chief Mustering Officer.

JUDGE ADVOCATE'S REPORT.

Past Department Commander Dodge submitted the report of the Judge Advocate, as follows:

R. M. Smock, Assistant Adjutant-General:

DEAR SIR AND COMRADE—I beg leave to submit the following report of the conduct of the office of Judge Advocate during my incumbency in the same. Comrade Orville T. Chamberlain was appointed Judge Advocate and served a portion of the year, when he resigned by reason of his removal from the State. Up to that time he had rendered one opinion, on a question submitted by H. M. Lamb, of Post No. 28, which question referred to the legality and propriety of Posts of the Grand Army of the Republic attending the funerals of deceased Comrades or honorably discharged soldiers, when the Comrade is not a member of the Grand Army of the Republic. Comrade Chamberlain held that the Post, as such, could not legally attend the funeral of anyone except Comrades of the Grand Army of the Republic who were in good standing at the time of their death.

Since my appointment I have rendered opinions as follows:

No. 1. Question by Post No. 5, of Greensburg: "Is Peter Vincent, of Co. F, Ninth Missouri State Militia Cavalry, eligible to membership in the Grand Army of the Republic, he having an honorable discharge from the military service of the United States?" Answer—He is.

No. 2. Question by Post No. 185, Clarks Hill, as to the disposition of real estate held by a Post when it disbands. Held, that the Post should, by resolution, authorize the Commander and Adjutant to deed the real estate to some one as trustee, for the benefit of the members, naming them, in good standing at the time the Post disbanded, and such members would be entitled to hold the property as tenants in common or to have it sold and divide the proceeds, share and share alike.

No. 3. Question by Robert Blackburn, of Post No. 63, as to the ruling of the Post Commander, where a Comrade is in arrears for dues, he has permitted said Comrade to vote at the annual election of officers. Held, that such action of the Post Commander was illegal, but the same was not brought within the jurisdiction of the Department by appeal.

No. 4. Question by David C. Herr, Adjutant of Post No. 106, as to the ruling of the Post Commander, that after a Comrade had received a transfer card he no longer was permitted to take a part in the business of the Post. Held, that the Post Commander properly ruled; that the Comrade was not in good standing, in the sense to entitle him to vote, and said ruling was binding upon both the Post and John Fitzwilliams until annulled or set aside by a vote of the Post at a regular meeting.

No. 5. Question by Post No. 83 as to the eligibility of a person to membership in the Grand Army of the Republic who had twice enlisted, had deserted from his second enlistment and made application for membership on his discharge from his first enlistment, concealing the fact of his desertion. Held, that he was not entitled to membership, and that charges should be preferred and the party court-martialed for practicing fraud upon the Post.

No. 6. Question by the Commander of Boone Post No. 202: "Is it proper for a Post of the Grand Army of the Republic to recommend the granting of pensions to minute men?" Held, that it would be in violation of the fundamental principles of the Order to do so, and to take such action would subject the Post to discipline.

No. 7. Question by Post No. 189: "Is a Post of the Grand Army of the Republic liable to the Department for per capita tax upon a member whose dues have been remitted by the Post?" Held, that it is.

No. 8. Question by Post No. 386: "Can a member of a Post in another Department become an honorary member of a Post of the Grand Army of the Republic in this Department, pay his dues here, and at the same time retain his membership in his former Post?" Held, that he cannot. He can only become a member of the Grand Army in the manner prescribed by the Rules and Regulations, and cannot be subject to the jurisdiction of more than one Post of the Grand Army of the Republic.

No. 9. Question by Post No. 56 as to the legality of reconsidering a vote of the Post, when the Comrade who has made the motion did not vote in the affirmative. Held, that while such action is not illegal, yet it is not within parliamentary usage and should not be permitted.

No. 10. Question by Post No. 16 as to the legality of admitting a Comrade to membership after his transfer card has expired by limitation of law without an application, reference of the same to a committee and a report of the committee on the same. Held, that such action is illegal and in violation of the Rules and Regulations, and when permitted by any Post of the Grand Army of the Republic the Post subjects itself to be disciplined by the Department.

The above is a synopsis of the opinions rendered, which opinions and the cases to which they refer are on file in the office of the Assistant Adjutant-General for the inspection of the Comrades of the Department at any time they desire.

I desire to call the attention of the Department to the fact that there is a decided lack of discipline in the Department, growing out of the carelessness of the officers of the Posts in acquainting themselves with the Rules and Regulations. There are many things permitted that are irregular, and the countenancing of irregularities invariably leads to a violation of the Rules and Regulations and results in breaking down discipline entirely. It should be the aim and especially the purpose of every Post Commander in this Department to see that the Rules and Regulations are strictly enforced in his Post. If this is not done I apprehend that the Grand Army of the Republic will become disorganized at a much earlier date than it otherwise would.

While the opinions of the Judge Advocate are binding upon the Department until appealed from, I desire to remind the Comrades of the Department that they have a right to appeal from these opinions whenever they feel aggrieved, and they should exercise this right upon all proper occasions, as the Judge Advocate should not bind the Department by any opinion carelessly rendered.

Respectfully submitted in F., C. and L.,
JAMES S. DODGE,
Judge Advocate.

STATE SOLDIERS' HOME.

When the report of the State Soldiers' Home Committee was called for, Past Department Commander James R. Carnahan took the floor. He stated at the outset that he had no written report, and then proceeded to notice the statement in one of the reports that thirteen veterans were in poor houses in the State. "If that is the case," he said with considerable warmth, "it is the fault of Grand Army men knowing the fact, or of the county officials, or both. Whenever the Trustees have heard of such a case they have proceeded at once to get them into the Home. If, in the cases reported, the names shall be given to the Trustees, they will have them taken to the Home without delay." The Comrade then proceeded to give a review of the organization of the State Soldiers' Home. Every member of the Board of Control is a veteran of long service and is in complete sympathy with the design of the institution. He then proceeded to explain the management, showing the efficiency of every department. He spoke of the food, giving in detail the bills of fare for days in the week. He spoke of the saving it was to counties to have their veterans who might be compelled to go to the poor-house maintained at the Home in cottages built by such counties.

SOLDIERS' AND SAILORS' ORPHANS' HOME.

Comrade Benjamin Starr presented the report of the Board of Visitors to the Soldiers' and Sailors' Orphans' Home, as follows :

To the Department Commander :

The Board of Visitors to the Indiana Soldiers' and Sailors' Orphans' Home, located at Knightstown, consisting of Sylvan B. Morris, Shelbyville; Henry C. McMakin, Fort Wayne; Carey McPherson and Hiram Plummer, Indianapolis; Benjamin Starr, Richmond; Benjamin B. Campbell, Anderson; Henry H. Wood, Lafayette; Dennis F. Willey, Charleston, met at the Home and organized by appointing Benjamin Starr Chairman and Benjamin B. Campbell Secretary.

It is very gratifying, indeed, to all that your committee can report that the Home is so ably managed, perfect confidence and respect existing between all employes in every department and the most kindly feeling among the pupils one toward another and to their guardians. Peace and happiness prevails throughout the Home.

At the last session of our Legislature appropriations were made for water works, water closets, manual training outfit, wagon shed and tool house. These are all completed excepting the water works, a part of which is two deep water wells connected with a steel tank on a base 75 feet high, which will not only afford excellent fire protection, but, better still, will furnish good, pure water for drinking and all culinary purposes in abundance. This will be completed within thirty days.

Your committee at their last meeting at the Home met with the Trustees, and after full inspection and discussion resolved to join with the Trustees in their request to our next Legislature for a gymnasium for the girls, the building of a coal-house, as natural gas cannot be depended upon, for when needed the most we have the least of it, a new front fence, an increased amount for repairs, as the buildings are older and require more to maintain them, new furnishing in some departments, and an increased amount for maintenance because of the advance in cost of all commodities. We ask that all Comrades remember the Home and its wants when speaking to your Senators and Representatives and urge them to be generous to this institution, where they are caring for the wards of the State, making of them self-supporting men and women, competent to fulfill all the duties of citizenship.

We regret to say that in January last one of the double cottages was badly damaged by fire, rendering it unfit for occupancy and causing much inconvenience and expense to the Home, even beyond the item of repairs. The cottage has now been rebuilt and refurbished and is again occupied by two divisions as formerly.

Superintendent Graham furnishes us the following statistics for the past year:

Following our usual custom, your committee attended the commencement exercises in June, 1901, and presented to each of the eleven boys and six girls graduated a beautiful badge in the name of this Department. This is a beautiful custom; the pupils preserve these badges carefully, and I have seen them worn and exhibited with great pride years after the recipients had left the Home.

Your committee cannot close this report without again acknowledging the ability shown by Professor A. H. Graham, the Superintendent, and his good wife, the Matron, in administering to the wants of the nearly 800 children who have been in their charge during the past year, and while we regret that the Grim Destroyer should ever enter the fold, yet we are proud of the record that there has been but one death in this great family within the last two years.

We again urge the Comrades to acquaint themselves with the advantages and opportunities afforded at this Home, and by their kindly assistance see that every soldier's orphan who is in need is invited to accept its generous hospitality.

Respectfully submitted in F., C. and L.,

BENJAMIN STARR,

Chairman.

PLACE OF THE NEXT ENCAMPMENT.

The special assignment for the last hour of the session was the fixing of the place for holding the Encampment of 1903. On the call of districts no response was made until the Eighth district was reached when Comrade Van Pelt, Commandér of Major May Post No. 244, Anderson, asked that the matter might be postponed until the next session, to the end that an understanding might be reached between the Anderson Commercial Club committee which had telegraphed an invitation, and the representatives of the Post which had voted not to invite the Encampment because it had not received sufficient encouragement to undertake the work of entertaining the Encampment. The rules were suspended and the matter was laid over on motion of Comrade Van Pelt.

THANKS TO THE RAILROADS.

Comrade Benjamin G. Shinn, Post 227, Hartford City, spoke of the consideration shown by the railroad managers in according the Encampment the only cent-a-mile fare of the season, and moved that the Assistant Adjutant-General be instructed to express to the railroad managers the thanks of the Encampment for their courtesy. The resolution was unanimously adopted.

Past Department Commanders Dodge and Stormont made stirring addresses in which they urged the Comrades who belonged to Indiana regiments to assist in making the act of taking the old battle flags from the State House to the Monument on Thursday the great event it should be. Both addresses were received with hearty demonstrations of approval.

Past Commander-in-Chief Walker and Comrade William H. Armstrong, of the National Executive Committee, came in near the close of the meeting escorting Adjutant-General Silas H. Towler. He was introduced and addressed the Encampment briefly. He spoke of the condition of the organization, generally, and said that in no State was the organization in a higher state of efficiency than in Indiana.

Several resolutions were received, read and referred to the Committee on Resolutions.

At 5:10 o'clock, the business of the session having been completed, an adjournment was taken until 9 o'clock Wednesday morning.

SECOND DAY'S SESSION.

WEDNESDAY, May 14, 1902.

Department Commander Garrigus called the Encampment to order at 9 o'clock. Prayer was offered by Past Chaplain-in-Chief D. R. Lucas.

REPORT ON DEPARTMENT COMMANDER'S ADDRESS.

Comrade A. M. Scott, Post 273, presented the following report of the Committee on Commander's Address:

To the Twenty-third Annual Encampment, Department of Indiana, Grand Army of the Republic:

We, your committee, to whom was referred the Department Commander's annual report, respectfully submit the following:

We cordially endorse the report as a whole, and especially endorse that part of his report referring to the State Soldiers' Home and its needs. We are also proud of the State Soldiers' Orphans' Home and the noble work that institution is doing for the orphans of our dead Comrades. We also specially commend his report on the Soldiers' Monument and its future management, that it should be under the guardianship of the old veterans so long as they are able to care for it.

We commend the retiring Commander for his earnest zeal and work in looking after the interests of the Grand Army of the Republic during his administration.

Respectfully submitted in F., C. and L.,

A. M. SCOTT,
JAMES A. PRICE,
J. C. GORDON,

CHAS. H. MYERHOFF,
JOSEPH S. CONLOGUE,

Committee.

The committee submitted a resolution providing for the appointment of a committee by the Senior Vice-Department Commander to procure and present a badge to Department Commander Garrigus. That officer named Assistant Adjutant-General R. M. Smock and Past Department Commanders H. M. Caylor and H. B. Shively as that committee.

The writer desires to express his thanks to the county superintendents of the State for their most gracious treatment, and especially to Hon. Frank L. Jones for his kindness in arranging for a hearing, and to Assistant Adjutant-General R. M. Smock for his valuable suggestion and assistance in the matter.

I also desire to apologize to the other members of the committee for what may appear to them a degree of neglect, as after accepting the position of Chairman the shortness of time and pressure of business made it quite impossible to arrange for a meeting of the committee.

Respectfully submitted,

THOS. J. LINDLEY, Chairman,

REPORT OF THE COUNCIL OF ADMINISTRATION.

The Council of Administration convened at Room No. 25, State House, in the city of Indianapolis, at 8 o'clock P. M., Monday, May 12, 1902, in pursuance to notice given in General Orders. Present: Milton Garrigus, Department Commander; Rodney Strain, Senior Vice-Department Commander; Charles W. Brown, Junior Vice-Department Commander; Warren R. King, Medical Director; B. F. Shepherd, Department Chaplain; Richard M. Smock, Assistant Adjutant-General and Assistant Quartermaster-General; James S. Dodge, Judge Advocate; R. A. Schoolcraft, Department Inspector; John L. Kessler, Chief Mustering Officer, and John F. Hammell, Morton C. Rankin, William B. Harris, James D. Braden and Henry A. Root, members of the Council of Administration.

Commander Garrigus stated that the first business to come before the Council of Administration was a matter in regard to Rensselaer Post No. 84, Rensselaer, and requested the Judge Advocate to make a statement for the information of the Council. After doing so he requested the Assistant Adjutant-General to read Special Order No. 1, also Resolutions Nos. 1, 2 and 3 and Special Order No. 2, which was done, and is as follows:

"HEADQUARTERS DEPARTMENT OF INDIANA,
"GRAND ARMY OF THE REPUBLIC,
"OFFICE OF ASSISTANT ADJUTANT-GENERAL,
"ROOM 25, STATE HOUSE,
"INDIANAPOLIS, IND., December 11, 1901.

"SPECIAL ORDER,
"No. 1.

"To the Officers and Comrades of Rensselaer Post No. 84, Department of Indiana, Grand Army of the Republic:

"You are hereby advised:

"First. That the resolution adopted at the meeting of Rensselaer Post No. 84, Department of Indiana, Grand Army of the Republic, held July 19, 1901, and addressed to the President of the Woman's Relief Corps, is upon a subject and in reference to the matter in which your Post has no jurisdiction to pass resolutions or take any other action, excepting to prefer a request in accordance with the Rules and Regulations of the Woman's Relief Corps, Department of Indiana, with which your resolution above referred to shows that you are acquainted.

"Second. You are further advised that the spirit and tone of the resolution above referred to and passed by your Post on July 19, 1901, and communicated to the President of the Woman's Relief Corps, Department of Indiana, on August 14, 1901, are ungentlemanly and arrogant in tone, and assume to dictate to the Woman's Relief Corps, Department of Indiana, its rights and duties, and are in violation of the Rules and Regulations of the Grand Army of the Republic and contrary to the spirit of the said organization and its relationship to the Woman's Relief Corps. And, further, that the said resolution is in the form of charges against the Rensselaer Woman's Relief Corps No. 39, and being spread upon the records and minutes of your Post takes the form of a record which you have no right to make.

"Third. You are further advised that a letter bearing date, Rensselaer, Ind., September 28, 1901, addressed to Mary E. Swain, Department President of Indiana Woman's Relief Corps, and signed by order of Post 84, Department of Indiana, Grand Army of the Republic, David H. Youman, Post Commander, and J. M. Wasson, Adjutant, is dictatorial in its character and insulting in its spirit, and is wholly unworthy of any Post of the Grand Army of the Republic and unbecoming gentlemen and soldiers.

"Fourth. You are further advised that the conduct of the officers and Comrades of your Post upon the occasion of a visit of your Department Commander and two of his officers on his staff to the headquarters of your Post on the evening of November 29, 1901, was rude and ungentlemanly and unbecoming gentlemen and soldiers and partook strongly of insubordination and cannot be passed by the Commander of the Department without reprimand.

"Therefore you are herewith ordered and directed by the Commander of the Department of Indiana, Grand Army of the Republic, to formulate and pass and spread the same of record upon the minutes of the regular meeting of Rensselaer Post No. 84, Department of Indiana, Grand Army of the Republic, a resolution nullifying and setting aside the resolution of July 19, 1901, and to transmit certified copies of the same to these Headquarters, one copy for this office and one copy to be forwarded to the Headquarters of the Woman's Relief Corps of the Department of Indiana.

"You are also further ordered and directed to formulate and spread of record a resolution of apology to Mary E. Swain, Department President of the Woman's Relief Corps, Department of Indiana, withdrawing and apologizing for all of the contents of your letter of September 28, 1901, and to transmit certified copies of the same to these Headquarters, one copy to be retained in this office and one copy to be transmitted to Mary E. Swain, Department President of the Woman's Relief Corps, Department of Indiana, your action in reference to said matter.

"You are also commanded and directed to formulate and pass a resolution of apology to the Commander of the Department of Indiana, Grand Army of the Republic, and the officers of his staff, who visited your Post on the evening of November 29, 1901, for the unkind and ungentlemanly conduct of your Post and its membership, and particularly of its acting Officer of the Day during said meeting, and particularly of the statement of Comrade Marshall, the acting Officer of the Day, that the Post and its officers refused to recognize the right of the Department Commander of the Department of Indiana, Grand Army of the Republic, to make any investigation of any kind or character in reference to the differences existing between Rensselaer Post No. 84, Department of Indiana, Grand Army of the Republic, and the Rensselaer Woman's Relief Corps No. 39, Department of Indiana, which language and conduct of the said Marshall, acting Officer of the Day, was approved by the membership of the Post present at that time, and to forward to these Headquarters your action in the same matter.

"You are further ordered and directed to complete your action in reference to all of the above matters and forward the same as hereinbefore directed on or before your last regular meeting in January, 1902.

"You are further advised that a prompt, frank and fraternal compliance with this Special Order will avoid the necessity of the issuing of any further Special or General Orders in reference to the above matters.

"By command of

"MILTON GARRIGUS,

Department Commander.

"R. M. SMOCK,

"Assistant Adjutant-General."

"RESOLUTION NO. 1.

"WHEREAS, The Commander of the Department of Indiana, Grand Army of the Republic, by Special Order No. 1, dated December 11, 1901, has ordered and directed this Post to formulate, pass and spread upon the minutes of the regular meeting of the Post a resolution nullifying and setting aside the resolution of July 19, 1901, and to transmit certified copies of the same to Department Headquarters; therefore, be it

"Resolved, That the said resolution of July 19, 1901, be and the same is hereby set aside and declared to be null and void, and that certified copies hereof be forwarded to Department Headquarters, as required by said Special Order.

"We certify the above and foregoing to be a true and complete copy of a resolution passed at the regular meeting of Post No. 84, Department of Indiana, G. A. R., on the evening of January 31, 1902, as the same appears of record in the minutes of said meeting.

"Witness our hands and the seal of said Post here-[SEAL.] unto attached this 6th day of February, 1902.

"JAMES A. BURNHAM, P. C.

"JOHN M. WASSON, Adjutant."

"RESOLUTION NO. 2.

"WHEREAS, By Special Order No. 1, dated December 11, 1901, the Commander of the Department of Indiana, Grand Army of the Republic, has ordered and directed this Post to formulate and spread of record a resolution of apology to Mary E. Swain, Department President of the Woman's Relief Corps, Department of Indiana, withdrawing and apologizing for all of the contents of its letter of September 28, 1901, and to transmit certified copies of the same to Department Headquarters; therefore, be it

Resolved, That in compliance with said Order this Post do withdraw and apologize for and does hereby withdraw and apologize for all of the contents of said letter of September 28, 1901, and that certified copies hereof be forwarded to Department Headquarters, as required by said Order.

"We certify the above and foregoing to be a true and complete copy of a resolution passed at the regular meeting of Post No. 84, Department of Indiana, G. A. R., on the evening of January 31, 1902, as the same appears of record in the minutes of said meeting.

"Witness our hands and the seal of said Post here-[SEAL.] unto attached this 6th day of February, 1902.

"JAMES A. BURNHAM, P. C.

"RESOLUTION NO. 3.

"WHEREAS, The Commander of the Department of Indiana, Grand Army of the Republic, Milton Garrigus, whom the officers and members of this Post highly respect and for whom they cherish the kindest feelings, has by Special Order No. 1, dated December 11, 1901, commanded and directed this Post to formulate and pass a resolution of apology to the Commander of the Department of Indiana, Grand Army of the Republic, and the officers of his staff, who visited the Post on the evening of November 29, 1901, for unkind and ungentlemanly conduct of the Post and its membership, and particularly of its acting Officer of the Day, during said meeting, and particularly the statement of Comrade Marshall that the Post and its officers refused to recognize the right of the Department Commander to make any investigation of any kind or character in reference to the difference existing between this Post and its auxiliary, W. R. C. No. 39, which language and conduct of the said Marshall, acting Officer of the Day, was approved by the membership present at the time, and,

"WHEREAS, We frankly admit that a feeling existed in the membership that, while not intending to be rude, caused a seeming rudeness of members, and that Comrade Marshall clearly exceeded the proprieties, which, though the members did not at heart approve, they, to avoid division and contention in the Post, did not demonstrate the disapproval that they felt; therefore, be it

"Resolved, That this Post do and does hereby tender an apology to the Commander of the Department of Indiana, Grand Army of the Republic, and the officers of his staff, who visited the Post on the evening of November 29, 1901, for the conduct mentioned in said Special Order No. 1, and that a copy hereof be forwarded to Department Headquarters, as required by said Special Order.

"We certify the above and foregoing to be a true and complete copy of a resolution passed at the regular meeting of Post No. 84, Department of Indiana, G. A. R., on the evening of January 31, 1902, as the same appears of record in the minutes of said meeting.

"Witness our hands and the seal of said Post here-
[SEAL.] unto attached this 6th day of February, 1902.

"SPECIAL ORDER NO. 2.

"HEADQUARTERS DEPARTMENT OF INDIANA,
"GRAND ARMY OF THE REPUBLIC,
"INDIANAPOLIS, IND., March 22, 1902.

"SPECIAL ORDER,
"No. 2.

"To the Commander, Officers and Members of Rensselaer Post No. 84, Department of Indiana, Grand Army of the Republic:

"Having failed to comply with the Special Order issued by the Department Commander and dated December 11, 1901, you are hereby ordered to appear before the Department Council of Administration at the Headquarters of the Department, Room 25, State House, Indianapolis, Indiana, on Monday evening, May 12, at 8 o'clock p. m., and then and there show cause, if any you can, why your Charter should not be annulled and revoked.

"By command of

"MILTON GARRIGUS,

"Department Commander.

"R. M. SMOCK,

"Assistant Adjutant-General."

Comrade James S. Dodge, Judge Advocate, then moved that the action of the Department Commander in issuing Special Orders Nos. 1 and 2 be approved, which motion was seconded and unanimously adopted.

Comrade William B. Harris then moved that the officers and members of Post No. 84, who were in waiting, be admitted, which motion was adopted, and the officers and other members of Rensselaer Post No. 84 then came before the Council of Administration and by permission Comrade E. P. Hammond, of Post No. 2, presented the matter in behalf of said Rensselaer Post No. 84. After a full discussion of the questions involved, the officers and members of Post No. 84 were asked to retire. The matter was then taken up by the Council of Administration and Comrade James S. Dodge, Judge Advocate, moved that it is the direction of the Council of Administration that the Department Commander be directed to annul the Charter of Rensselaer Post No. 84, which motion was seconded by Comrade Rodney Strain, Senior Vice-Department Commander. The subject-matter then being before the Council of Administration, it was fully and freely discussed by Comrades James S. Dodge, Rodney Strain, John F. Hammell, William B. Harris, Henry A. Root, Warren R. King, John L. Kessler and R. M. Smock. Comrade John L. Kessler then moved to amend by laying the whole question over until to-morrow night. There being no second to the amendment, the original question was then put and upon the calling of the roll the vote was unanimous in favor of the motion made by Comrade Dodge. Thereupon the Department Commander issued Special Order No. 3, as follows:

"HEADQUARTERS DEPARTMENT OF INDIANA,
"GRAND ARMY OF THE REPUBLIC,
"INDIANAPOLIS, IND., May 13, 1902.

"SPECIAL ORDER,
"No. 3.

"At a meeting of the Council of Administration, held at Department Headquarters Monday evening, May 12, 1902, it was unanimously recommended that the Department Commander annul the Charter of Rensselaer Post No. 84, Department of Indiana, Grand Army of the Republic. In pursuance of said recommendation it is therefore ordered that the Charter of said Post be annulled, and the said James A. Burnham, Commander of said Rensselaer Post No. 84, forthwith forward all the property of the Department, including Charter, Rituals, books of record and Post papers, to Department Headquarters, as required by the Rules and Regulations.

"By command of

"MILTON GARRIGUS,

"Department Commander.

"Recorder of Council."

The regular business of the Council was taken up. The committee appointed to audit the books and accounts of the Assistant Adjutant-General and Assistant Quartermaster-General submitted the following report, which was read and adopted:

[Inserted at the conclusion of the Report of the Assistant Quartermaster General.]

On motion of Comrade Smock the per capita tax was fixed the same as last year—twenty cents per annum, payable ten cents with each semi-annual report—upon all members in good standing.

The Assistant Adjutant-General was authorized to employ Comrade Z. A. Smith to report the proceedings of the Encampment and prepare the same for the printer, and to pay Comrade Smith for such services the sum of $40.

It was ordered, on motion of Comrade Rodney Strain, that the bond of the Assistant Quartermaster-General be fixed at $5,000 and that he be authorized to procure and pay for security bond. It was further ordered that the compensation of the Assistant Adjutant-General and Assistant Quartermaster-General be fixed at $1,200 per annum, and that he be authorized to employ a stenographer at a salary of $400 per annum.

On motion of Comrade Dodge, the salary of the Judge Advocate for the ensuing year was fixed at $50. It was also ordered that no salary be paid the Department Inspector.

On motion of the Assistant Adjutant-General, the sum of $300, or so much of that amount as may be necessary, be set apart for the use of the Department Commander to defray the expenses of himself and other-Department officers in visiting Posts and Reunions during the year.

On motion of Comrade Harris, a member of the Council of Administration, it was ordered that the Assistant Quartermaster-General pay the actual expenses of the members of the Council of Administration until Thursday evening, May 15, 1902.

The Assistant Adjutant-General reported that the Executive Committee having in charge the arrangements for the dedication of the Monument had given to the Department 205 tickets of admission to the stand, to be distributed to the disabled veterans of the State. On motion of Comrade Dodge, Past Department Commander Albert O. Marsh was requested to present the matter to the Encampment and request each Congressional District to select one member to act as a committee in the distribution of said tickets.

On motion of Comrade Dodge, a vote of thanks was unanimously tendered to the Department Commander and the Assistant Adjutant-General for the efficient manner in which they had administered the affairs of the Department for the past year.

Council then adjourned.

R. M. Smock,
Recorder.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTIONS.

Past Department Commander James S. Dodge, Chairman of the Committee on Resolutions, presented one by one the resolutions referred to the committee.

On the resolution of J. H. Danseur Post No. 104, Lagrange, asking that the name of Comrade Thomas H. Sefton be restored to the roll of Past Post Commanders, on the ground that he has resumed his membership after his resignation, the committee recommended that the prayer of the petitioners be not granted, on the ground that when the Comrade received an honorable discharge and withdrew from the Grand Army of the Republic his honors as a Past Post Commander ceased.

The report was adopted.

Comrade Beverly W. Sullivan, Commander of Post No. 369, presented the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Twenty-third Annual Encampment Department of Indiana Grand Army of the Republic hereby respectfully requests the Governor of the State to urge, in his message to the next General Assembly, the appropriation of a sufficient sum of money to be expended for the proper preservation and display of Indiana's battle flags.

The Committee recommended that the resolution do not pass. The Encampment adopted the recommendation of the Committee.

The following preamble and resolutions directed to the Honorable Committee on Pensions, was reported back to the Encampment: "We concur in the within resolutions:"

INDIANA STATE SOLDIERS' HOME.

WHEREAS, The Invalid Pension Bill, proposing to pay the veterans of the Civil War twelve ($12) dollars per month, with an addition of one cent a day for each day of service, lately introduced into Congress, is now in the hands of the Federal Invalid Pension Committee.

WHEREAS, The surviving soldiers of the great war, regarding this bill as the most equitable of any yet brought forward, and feeling that the time has come for action, and that all measures intended for their benefit should be vigorously pressed; therefore,

Resolved, That the undersigned committee, in behalf of the veterans of the Indiana State Soldiers' Home, ask the Committee on Pensions of the Department of Indiana, G. A. R., be instructed to request the Senators and Representatives of Indiana to take proper measures to remove this bill from the hands of the committee and act upon it according to the rules of Congress; and that the Delegates of the Department of Indiana, G. A. R., to the National Encampment in September be instructed to present this matter that the Encampment may take such action that will lead to the consideration of this bill by Congress.

(Signed.)

WILLIAM REDDING,
M. J. PATTON,
J. H. SAWYER,

Committee.

The paper not indicating that it came from a Post of the Grand Army, a doubt was expressed as to the propriety of taking action thereon, but Past Department Commander Stormont declaring that the signers of the paper were members of the Grand Army Post at the Soldier's Home, it was taken under consideration. Comrade Lucas did not think the endorsement was as emphatic as it should be. He thought that the time had come when the pensions of many veterans should be increased, and it was due to them that the Encampment should express itself in no uncertain voice. Past Department Commander Dodge replied that all the committee thought it advisable to do was to endorse the sentiment of the paper. He did not know that such a bill was pending in Congress, nor could any member of the committee declare certainly about it. No one could assert that the "Federal Invalid Pension Committee" was holding up such a bill. In fact, the vagueness of these charges made it impossible for the committee to recommend more than a concurrence in the sentiment which the paper contained. He thought that the Encampment could go no further. After further discussion the report of the committee was adopted by a very large majority.

The next resolution presented by the committee was as follows:

WHEREAS, Certain citizens of the United States are now criticizing the conduct of our comrades in arms who are defending the American flag and American institutions in the Philippine Islands; and,

WHEREAS, Such conduct brings fresh to our memory like criticisms made by the Copperheads of 1860 to 1865; and,

WHEREAS, The veterans of the War for the Union abhor and despise all citizens of the United States who refuse to support our Government during war, and cannot see wherein the Copperheads of 1898 to 1902 are less venomous than their ancestors; therefore, be it

Resolved, That the survivors of the War for the Union heartily approve the conduct of the United States in the war with Spain and the insurrection in the Philippine Islands, and that we hold in scorn and contempt all citizens of the United States who see fit to brand our soldiers and their conduct as cruel and inhuman, and hereby call upon the administration to arrest all such persons and send them outside our lines, where they may consort in perfect freedom with their friends, the enemies of the best Government in the world.

Past Department Commander James T. Johnston, when the resolutions had been read, inquired of the committee if it had been presented and read in the Encampment as the rules required. Chairman Dodge replied that it had not, but had been handed to the committee after yesterday's adjournment. Comrade Johnston then raised the point of order that the resolution was not properly before the Encampment. The Department Commander sustained the point of Comrade Johnston. Thereupon the signer of the resolution asked that it be presented under the rule which could be done by a two-thirds vote of the Encampment. On the question of accepting the resolution a two-thirds' vote was secured, and the committee reported favorably on the resolution. Comrade Johnston opposed the resolution, saying that it might be charged against it that it had a political bias; that the language in which it was presented was needlessly harsh, and that the fact that the President was ordering the court martial of some officers in the Philippines for cruelty to the natives should lead the Encampment to pause before making such an emphatic endorsement of the conduct of our army in the islands. Comrade Will Cumback, Post No. 5, favored the adoption of the resolution, but when his attention was called to the last paragraph he suggested that it be struck out. The committee thereupon amended the resolution so as to read as follows:

WHEREAS, Certain citizens of the United States are now criticising the conduct of our comrades in arms who are defending the American flag and American institutions in the Philippine Islands; and,

WHEREAS, Such conduct brings fresh to our memory like criticisms made by the Copperheads of 1860 to 1865; and,

WHEREAS, The veterans of the War for the Union abhor and despise all citizens of the United States who refuse to support our Government during war, and cannot see wherein the Copperheads of 1898 to 1902 are less venomous than their ancestors; therefore, be it

Resolved, That the survivors of the War for the Union heartily approve the conduct of the United States in the war with Spain and the insurrection in the Philippine Islands, and that we hold in scorn and contempt all citizens of the United States who see fit to brand our soldiers and their conduct as cruel and inhuman.

The discussion was continued with great earnestness. Comrade J. A. Maxwell, Post No. 3, protested against such unnecessary resolutions being offered in the Encampment. Comrade C. J. Murphy, Post No. 27, took the same ground. Comrade A. R. Tucker, Post No. 133, who presented the resolution, defended it in an earnest speech, and related instances of great cruelty by the Filipino insurgents. Comrade Johnston again opposed the resolution, while Chairman Dodge, of the committee favored it. Comrade Smiley N. Chambers, Post No. 17, objected to the language in which the resolution was couched. He said there was little difference of opinion in the Encampment on the subject, but he felt that the sentiment should be expressed in dignified language. He moved that the resolution be referred back to the committee with instructions to report the same in a new draft and in milder terms. The Encampment so voted. As the committee retired the chairman requested Comrade Chambers to meet the committee and assist it in presenting such a resolution as he thought should be adopted. Comrade Chambers did so, but after some deliberation the committee reported back the same resolution without any change. Remarks were made on both sides by several comrades. Finally, Comrade David F. Allen, Post No. 65, arose and said: "I was in the Philippines two years, and I know what our soldiers there have to face, and I am here to say that if we are going to keep an army in those islands we must stand by it." After this expression the resolution was adopted with only a few dissenting votes.

The committee reported the following resolution in reference to the Council of Administration, in which the Encampment concurred:

WHEREAS, The proceedings of the Department Encampments of Indiana G. A. R. from 1866 to 1871, inclusive, have never been published or preserved in the archives of the Department; and,

WHEREAS, General R. S. Foster is thoroughly conversant with the history of our organization during the period and is in possession of much of the data which will enable the Department to preserve a record of the Encampments from 1866 to 1871; now, therefore, be it Resolved, That the incoming Department Commander appoint a committee of three Comrades to collect and formulate the proceedings of each Encampment of the Department of Indiana, G. A. R., from 1866 to 1871, inclusive, with a view to having the same published in journal form if the Department shall so order, the said committee to report at the next annual Encampment.

NOTICE OF APPEAL.

Past Department Commander Carnahan, on behalf of Comrade E. P. Hammond, Post No. 3, counsel for the former Rensselaer Post No. 84, whose charter was revoked by the Department Commander by direction of the Council of Administration, for failure to comply with special order No. 2, gave notice that an appeal would be taken to the National Encampment.

SONS OF VETERANS.

The Committee of the Indiana Division of the Sons of Veterans, bearing the greetings of that organization, were announced, and were escorted to the platform by the Officer of the Day, and introduced to Commander Garrigus. The committee consisted of the following members: Geo. W. Krietenstein, Division Commander of the Sons of Veterans, Frank Martin and Newton J. McGuire, Past Division Commanders, and David N. Sherrick. Mr. Frank Martin Spoke for the committee as follows:

Commander Garrigus and Members of the Grand Army of the Republic:

We have been delegated by the Commander of the Indiana Division of the Sons of Veterans to extend to you, in Encampment assembled, greetings. As the representatives of an order formed wholly from your sons, we bring a message of love. We give you assurances of devotion to the institutions you love and bid you our Godspeed in your work to-day.

It is a pleasure, beyond measure of expression, to be permitted to appear before this representative body of the men who are the remnant of the best army known to history. With the fullest meaning of the word, we call you "Father." Dead, indeed, must be that one of the young of earth to-day who can thoughtfully survey the pages of history, look well upon the pictures of its heroes, behold the soldiers of 1861-65 in their full stature in the hall of the everlasting, and, realizing his father to be among them, not be exalted and ennobled. Wonderful deeds, marvelous accomplishments, eternal fame all conspire to make his an undying inheritance!

Your sons claim none of your honor, would not live by your work, will not be mere puppets, clinging to your mantle of greatness. Rather would they be worthy of your steel. They would cultivate the seeds that you have planted, water the flowers that you have nurtured and carried to bloom, push to completion the house you have begun, grasp the flag as it drops from your hands, take up the battle as you fall, bring to its complete fullness all that you have divined. Stirred by the blood within them, inspired by records you have given them, cheered by your strangely pathetic and loving devotion to your country and her honor, they would become your fittest representatives and inheritors, your defenders, your worthy sons!

To this end they are organized. Following well in your footsteps, they have founded an order upon your principles, have enshrined its altar with the flag you gave them, and have made your deeds their incentive to noble and valiant lives. For their objects they have loyalty to country, the defense of its flag and institutions, the aid and support of the Grand Army of the Republic and its members. Their highest ambition is to aid you and be worthy of your love; their chiefest and fondest hope is that when your course is run, and your Order, by the decrees of time, is at an end, that you may find their Order so worthy and meritorious that you will be constrained, and gladly, too, to commission it to take up the work as you leave it.

Give it, if you please, sirs, your encouragement and aid. Draw these, your sons, to your side; whisper in their ears your words of cheer, advise them from out of the fullness of your wisdom, soften them with your love, commission them to help you, help them thus to build well and nobly. Theirs is no sinister ambition, theirs no unworthy purpose. They would not transgress your rights, would not rob you of your just privileges or dues, would not invade the sacred precincts of your comradeship. They are of the present, but they build for the future. Their work begins now in making your ways pleasant, in lightening your burdens, in cheering your declining days. But in the future, when lights are out, when darkness almost covers, when other hands than yours must do, then, oh, then, they see the hour of work, they hear their call to duty. Out of their love for you, in gratitude for the blessings you have conferred, in the spirit of true sons, they build, let us hope, for all time.

And now, Comrades—may we not call you such?—we bid you good-bye for this time. Recognizing in you the best of God's noblemen, the noblest of history's heroes, the select of the earth, we thank God that He has blessed us with your blood. We rejoice that we have heard from your lips the story of life's heroism. We swell with pride when we remember that we have been given your historic names. We will long remember this morning's blessed privilege, and our children and children's children will know of you as we see you around this sacred altar, this bright May morning of God's era.

Our prayer is that your days may be lengthened; that life's sun may shine for you yet many years; that your last days may be your richest and happiest ones. May your eyes close at last upon the most prosperous of nations, at peace with all the world, the Nation among all her sisters—your invaluable gift to the future. [Applause.]

Department Commander Garrigus thanked the committee on behalf of the Encampment, and in a few fitting words told them of the deep interest which the Grand Army has in their organization and their work, which would become more and more important as the years passed and the ranks of the Grand Army were thinned. The committee then retired.

At this point a recess was taken until 2 o'clock P. M., at which hour the Encampment re-convened.

ELECTION OF REPRESENTATIVES.

The election of Representatives to the National Encampment being next in order, a call of districts was made for nominations for Representative-at-Large.

Past Department Commander James R. Carnahan put Comrade Winfield Taylor Durbin, of Post No. 244, Anderson, in nomination for Representative-at-Large. Several seconds being made, and no other name being presented the rules were suspended and the Assistant Adjutant-General was directed to cast the vote of the Encampment for Comrade Durbin, which he did, and he was declared elected. The name of Comrade Will Cumback, of Post No. 5, was put in nomination for Alternate-at-Large, and he was chosen by acclamation under a suspension of the rules. The respective districts having reported their representatives and alternates to the National Encampment, on motion the rules were suspended and the Assistant Adjutant-General was instructed to cast the unanimous vote of the Encampment for the comrades named, which he did, and they were declared elected.

John T. Smith received.....	55
John W. Buck received.....	58
Eugene D. Daniels received.....	167
Isaiah P. Watts received.....	352

Comrade Isaiah P. Watts, Post 60, was declared elected.

Medical Director Warren R. King being the only Comrade put in nomination for Medical Director, on motion the rules were suspended and the Assistant Adjutant-General was instructed to cast the unanimous vote of the Encampment for him, which was done and he was declared elected.

* Not eligible to election, having been dropped by his Post.

Comrades B. H. Robinson, Post 86, and Daniel H. McAbee, Post 78, were put in nomination for Junior Vice-Department Commander. A ballot was taken with the following result:

Whole number of ballots.....	521
Necessary to a choice.....	266
B. H. Robinson received.....	246
Daniel H. McAbee received.....	275

Comrade Daniel H. McAbee having received a majority of the votes cast was declared elected.

Comrades Isaiah B. McDonald, Post 181, and John W. Scott, Post 281, were put in nomination for Senior Vice-Department Commander. The ballot resulted as follows:

Whole number of votes cast.....	682
Necessary to a choice.....	342
John W. Scott received.....	338
Isaiah B. McDonald received.....	344

Comrade Isaiah B. McDonald having received a majority of the votes cast was declared elected.

When the election of Department Commander was reached Comrade William A. Ketcham, Post 17, addressed the Encampment as follows:

Department Commander:

For the first time in the history of the Indiana Encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic, but one Comrade is now spoken of for the important and honorable position of Department Commander. This is not because other Comrades who are qualified for the position would not like it or be candidates for it, but because every Comrade recognizes the peculiar fitness of one man who has until this year persistently refused to be a candidate. He will now accept the honor. I therefore put in nomination for the office of Department Commander Benjamin Starr, Post 55, Richmond, and move the suspension of the rules that he may be elected by acclamation.

The remarks of Comrade Ketcham were received with shouts of applause. The motion received seconds in all parts of the hall. When the applause had subsided Department Commander Garrigus put the motion and it was unanimously carried, and he was declared elected Department Commander.

Comrade Starr being called for thanked the Encampment for the honor conferred.

NEXT ENCAMPMENT.

It was, upon motion, voted to refer the matter of the place for holding the next Encampment to the Council of Administration with power to fix the time and place.

INSTALLATION OF OFFICERS.

The only remaining business before the Encampment was the installation of officers. Past Department Commander James R. Carnahan was announced as Installing Officer and Past Department Commander David N. Foster as Officer of the Day.

The officers above elected were duly installed.

Department Commander Starr announced Comrade Richard M. Smock as Assistant Adjutant-General and Assistant Quartermaster-General, who was duly installed as such.

The installation over, Department Commander Starr made a few remarks in which he urged renewed zeal in the work of the Grand Army, and called upon Chaplain Watts to pronounce the benediction, which he did.

The Department Commander then at 4:45 P. M., declared the Twenty-third Encampment adjourned without day.

RICHARD M. SMOCK,
Assistant Adjutant-General.

GENERAL ORDERS.

HEADQUARTERS DEPARTMENT OF INDIANA,
GRAND ARMY OF THE REPUBLIC,
KOKOMO, IND., May 17, 1901.

 George Callahan, Post No. 307, Sullivan.
 Henry C. Gemmill, Post No. 560, Markle.

VII. Post Commanders will forward at once the name of a Comrade for appointment as an Aide upon the staff of the Department Commander. As the purpose of these appointments is to aid Post and Department Officers in the work, your Commander would recommend that no name be sent in until the Comrade has been consulted and signified his willingness to accept the appointment if made, and pledges his efforts in the interest of his Post and the Order. The Commander would be pleased to have an active, energetic Aide in each Post.

VIII. Blanks for the semi-annual reports of Adjutants and Quartermasters will be sent to all Post Commanders, concurrent with this order. Post Commanders are required to see that these reports are properly made out and forwarded with the per capita tax (ten cents for each member in good standing) by the first day of July, 1901, to R. M. Smock, Assistant Adjutant-General. Let each Post act promptly, so that no delay will occur in the report to National Headquarters.

IX. With this order will be found blanks upon which Post Chaplains will make their report of Memorial Day exercises. Make full and complete reports and forward without delay to Comrade B. F. Shepherd, Department Chaplain, Pleasantville, Indiana.

X. The report of the Department Chaplain made to the Encampment at Logansport shows that many Veterans' graves are unmarked. As the Government will furnish headstones without expense, Post officers are again urged to take this matter up, so that no Veteran shall sleep in an unmarked grave. Blanks will be furnished by the Assistant Adjutant-General upon application.

XI. The National Encampment will hold its Thirty-fifth Annual Session in the city of Cleveland, Ohio, September 9 to 14, 1901. The Headquarters of this Department will be established at the Hotel Hollenden. Application has been made for free quarters for those wishing such accommodations. All applications should be made to Col. Hyar, Chairman of Committee on Free Quarters, who will make the assignments to the buildings set apart for this Department. Additional information will be given in future orders.

XII. It is the desire of the Commander to attend as many Veterans' Reunions, Camp Fires and Post Meetings as he can during the summer and fall months. If the officers of such Posts or associations who desire his attendance will notify the Assistant Adjutant-General of the dates of their meetings, he will take the matter up with the Commander and endeavor to arrange for his attendance. He suggests, however, that no meetings of this character be fixed for the second week of September, during the National Encampment.

XIII. In former General Orders attention was called to the fact that the proceedings of the National Encampment were ready for distribution, and that upon receipt of eleven cents in postage copies of the journal would be mailed to the Posts. Very few responded. Kindly attend to this without delay and place in your Post room this interesting volume.

XIV. Some weeks ago a circular was sent out by a committee appointed to solicit funds for the relief of the widow of W. H. H. Terrell. This circular was prepared after the General Orders were in the hands of the printer, and therefore no mention was made of it at that time. The Department Commander heartily endorses this worthy object and commends it to the Comrades for their earnest consideration.

XV. Attention of Post officers is called to the Rules and Regulations, edition of 1899, on pages 27 and 28, in regard to the reinstatement of suspended and dropped members. A suspended member can only be reinstated by the Post that suspended him, if the Post is still in existence. If it has been disbanded, such suspended member must apply to the Assistant Adjutant-General for a transfer card. The section in regard to dropped members should be carefully studied and strictly complied with, so that no conflict will occur between Posts in regard to this matter.

By command of

MILTON GARRIGUS,
Department Commander.

R. M. SMOCK,
Assistant Adjutant-General.

HEADQUARTERS DEPARTMENT OF INDIANA,

" 33, Lee L. Martz.	" 186, James M. Barlow.
" 40, Harvey T. Hite.	" 475, James B. Shaw.

The Commander would be pleased to have these Comrades accept the appointment and notify the Assistant Adjutant-General, who, upon receipt of such notice, will issue commissions.

II. The Thirty-fifth Session of the National Encampment will convene in "Euclid Avenue Opera House," Cleveland, Ohio, Thursday, September 12, 1901, at 10 o'clock A. M. All delegates, Past Department Commanders and officers entitled to seats in the Encampment are urged to be in attendance and remain throughout the sessions.

III. The Headquarters of this Department will be located at the Hotel Hollenden, Room No. 108, on the first floor, in charge of Sol A. Pennington, Color Bearer. All Comrades are cordially invited to call.

IV. After a careful consideration of the subject, it has been decided not to open registers as heretofore. Past experience has proven that the results do not justify the expense.

V. The Committee on Free Quarters have made the following assignments to this Department: Rockwell school, corner Rockwell and Bond streets; St. John's school, corner Superior and Erie streets; Lozier's Hall, corner Erie and Chestnut streets, and St. Clair school, on St. Clair street, near North Perry. The first three of these are very central and within two squares of the hotel where National and Department Headquarters are located. By arrangement with the Committee on Free Quarters, all assignments will be made by the Department. So much of Paragraph XI, General Orders No. 2, dated June 4, 1901, as directed Posts to apply to Colonel James Hyar for free quarters is hereby revoked, and all applications should be made to R. M. Smock, Assistant Adjutant-General, at Indianapolis, at once, stating how many Comrades desire free quarters, and, if possible, what railroad route they will go. Free quarters are only furnished for veterans and bands accompanying them. No women can be assigned to such quarters. Comrades occupying such quarters will provide themselves with blankets and towels.

Applications for free quarters have been made by the following Posts:

James H. Emmett Post No. 6, Wabash.
Nelson Trussler Post No. 60, Winchester.
Williams Post No. 78, Muncie.
U. S. Grant Post No. 72, Washington.
Kennesaw Post No. 47, Independence.
Basil B. Decker Post No. 334, French Lick.
John Murray Post No. 124, Pierceton.
E. T. Wood Post No. 350, Ridgeville.
John P. Porter Post No. 83, Geneva.
Pap Thomas Post No. 5, Greensburg.
John A. Logan Post No. 3, Lafayette.
Lafayette Gordon Post No. 132, Argos.
J. B. Cartwright Post No. 358, Pennville.
Sol Meredith Post No. 55, Richmond.
General Lawton Post No. 590, Fort Wayne.
Sion S. Bass Post No. 40, Fort Wayne.
General Canby Post No. 2, Brazil.
Gen. John A. Logan Post No. 199, North Manchester.
Howell Post No. 90, Goshen.
Nelson Post No. 69, Kendallville.
William Smith Post No. 103, Sheridan.

VI. Delegates, Alternates and Past Department Commanders will meet at Department Headquarters, Room No. 108, Hotel Hollenden, Tuesday September 10th, at 5:30 o'clock, for the transaction of such business pertaining to the Encampment as may be necessary and to receive their badges. Where Delegates are not present, and the Alternate is, the badge will be given to the Alternate.

VII. The annual parade will take place on Wednesday, September 11th. General Orders from National Headquarters says, "and will be less than two miles in length, on the best of streets. Formation will take place at 9:30 o'clock, and the start will be made promptly at 10 o'clock, standard time." The Commander requests all who can to join in the parade, and in uniform, if possible.

It is suggested that the Comrades of different Posts, in the same county, go as a battalion. The place of formation will be announced from Headquarters at the hotel, and from the school houses where free quarters are located. This Department will be in charge of Comrade James F. Fee, Senior Aide-de-Camp and Chief of Staff.

VIII. The railroad rates are one cent per mile each way from all points in the State of Indiana, short line distances, good for continuous passage from September 8th to 12th, inclusive, going on date the ticket is stamped by selling agent, and will be good to return not later than midnight of September 15th, with privilege of extension to October 8th on deposit of ticket with joint agent at Cleveland not later than 12 o'clock noon on September 15th and payment of fifty cents.

IX. The Department Commander, President of the Woman's Relief Corps and members of their official staffs will go by special train over the Cleveland Division of the "Big Four" Railway Company, Monday, September 9th, leaving Indianapolis at 10:50 A. M., stopping at Anderson, Farmland, Muncie, Winchester and Union City, and connecting at Anderson with the trains of the Michigan Division, over which the Orphans' Home Band will arrive in time to join the special train, which is scheduled to arrive at Erie Station, Cleveland, at 6:20 P. M. The Comrades will leave the train at this point. No stops will be made for passengers after leaving Union City.

X. All Comrades and their friends are cordially invited to accompany the Department Commander and the President of the Woman's Relief Corps on this train.

XI. Aides-de-Camp upon the staff of the Department Commander are requested to report at Department Headquarters upon arrival in Cleveland for such duty as may be assigned them.

XII. Frequent calls are made by transient persons, claiming to be veterans, and asking for assistance. Investigation leads your Commander to the conclusion that a very large per cent. of these are travelers over the country, going from one place to another at the expense of the members of the Grand Army of the Republic, without any object in view other than to be traveling. It is the duty of the Order to render such assistance as it can to all worthy veterans, but it is not under any obligation to help those who are not endeavoring to help themselves and who may be justly classed as "dead beats." Your Commander would therefore advise the Comrades to withhold relief from all such persons.

XIII. Comrade Warren R. King, Medical Director, will be at Department Headquarters during the Encampment and will render any medical aid that may be required of him by the Comrades.

XIV. Department Headquarters at Indianapolis will be closed during the National Encampment.

XV. With this order will be found General Order No. 6 from National Headquarters.

By command of

MILTON GARRIGUS,
Department Commander.

R. M. SMOCK,
Assistant Adjutant-General.

HEADQUARTERS DEPARTMENT OF INDIANA,
GRAND ARMY OF THE REPUBLIC,
OFFICE OF ASSISTANT ADJUTANT-GENERAL,
ROOM 25, STATE HOUSE,
INDIANAPOLIS, IND., October 14, 1901.

GENERAL ORDERS,
No. 4.

I. Our beloved Comrade, William McKinley, President of the United States, has fallen by the hand of an assassin. He died at Buffalo, New York, September 14, 1901, while he was in the midst of an illustrious career of usefulness and fame. No other man was ever so universally mourned. All good and loyal people join and sympathize with us in our great sorrow. He was a manly man—a great statesman, a brave soldier, a sincere patriot, a true Comrade, a consistent Christian, a devoted and loving husband. He was a model citizen in all the relations of life, loyal and true to every good principle. His life is an inspiration. He lived at a period when his abilities and opportunities enabled him to accomplish the highest advancement for his country and to bless by his leadership the great Nation of which he was the honored Chief Magistrate. His virtues, intelligence and patriotism have secured for him a lasting place in the affections of his countrymen. He has bequeathed to us a precious heritage in the white light of his splendid example.

The Grand Army of the Republic stands like a stone wall for the speedy enactment and vigorous enforcement of statutes that shall prevent the abuse of free speech and a free press, which spread treason, anarchy and dissension and cause such atrocious crimes to be committed in our land. "Our flag is the embodiment of ideas good and grand and true. Its defense the one lesson of patriotism; treason to its cause is the one unpardonable sin." Now that our great Comrade has gone on before, let our ranks be closed up and united in the accomplishment of our mission. We anticipate with bounding hearts how we shall come to meet our lamented hero in the last Reunion, with flowers fresh as Eden, with celestial music and silken standards bannered with peace and laureled with fadeless renown, under the walls of a city not made with hands.

In accordance with instructions from National Headquarters, Post Headquarters and colors will be appropriately draped, and all Post officers, when on duty on public occasions, will wear the usual badge of mourning for sixty days from the date of his death.

II. The Thirty-fifth National Encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic, held in Cleveland, Ohio, was largely attended by the Comrades of this Department. Your Commander desires to return to the Comrades his sincere thanks for their presence and help in making such a good showing for the great Department of Indiana, led by that splendid band from the Indiana Soldiers' and Sailors' Orphans' Home, and with banners and flags our Department challenged the admiration of the thousands who witnessed the parade.

III. The Rules and Regulations provide that the annual inspection of Posts shall be made before the last day of December.

Upon the receipt of this order Post Commanders will detail a suitable Comrade to make such inspection, making his report upon the enclosed blank, and forward the same to Rufus A. Schoolcraft, Department Inspector, North Manchester, Indiana. Post Commanders are requested to urge promptness in this matter, as no installation can legally be had until the Post has been inspected.

IV. With this order will be found General Orders No. 7, and one from National Headquarters.

By command of

MILTON GARRIGUS,
Department Commander.

R. M. SMOCK,
Assistant Adjutant-General.

HEADQUARTERS DEPARTMENT OF INDIANA,
GRAND ARMY OF THE REPUBLIC,
OFFICE OF ASSISTANT ADJUTANT-GENERAL,
ROOM 25, STATE HOUSE,
INDIANAPOLIS, IND., November 22, 1901.

GENERAL ORDERS,
No. 5.

I. Blanks for the semi-annual report of the Adjutant and Quartermaster for the six months ending December 31, 1901, have been sent to all Post Commanders. It is important that these reports be made promptly and at the end of the term. Post officers are required by the Rules and Regulations to make and forward the same with the per capita tax (ten cents for each member in good standing) to the Assistant Adjutant-General.

II. The annual election of Post officers will occur at the first regular meeting in December. Your Commander would urge that in the selection of officers those be chosen who will take an interest in the welfare of the Post and the Order.

III. Each Post will elect one Representative for every fifty members and one for a fraction of more than half of that number, based upon the membership reported in good standing June 30, 1901. Also a like number of Alternates. Posts having a membership of less than fifty are entitled to one Representative and one Alternate.

IV. Post Adjutants will, immediately after the election, fill out the certificates, transmit one copy to Department Headquarters and retain the other. See that all names are written in full and correctly spelled, thus avoiding errors in the roll-call.

V. Posts are not entitled to representation in the Department or National Encampments until they have made all reports due from them and paid their per capita tax.

VI. With this order will be found blanks for the annual mortuary report. It is the duty of the Post Adjutant to make this report, giving name in full of all members who were in good standing and have died during the year 1901, including the age, rank, company, regiment and date of death. See that this report is complete before it is forwarded.

VII. Blanks have been forwarded for Post Surgeons' reports. This report should cover the entire year and should be made by the Post Surgeon; if he is absent, then by the Adjutant, and forwarded, when completed, to Warren R. King, Medical Director, Greenfield, Ind.

VIII. Installation of Post officers will occur at the first regular meeting in January, 1902; or at a special meeting called for that purpose. It is recommended that the installation services be public, and held jointly with the Woman's Relief Corps. Let every effort be put forth to make this meeting one of interest and benefit to the Order. If the meeting be a public one, "No part of the opening or closing services shall be used."

IX. Post Commanders-elect are authorized to select the installing officer, who should be a Department officer or a Past Post Commander in good standing. It is suggested that where convenient, select one of the Department officers. If requested, a special order will be issued by the Assistant Adjutant-General, detailing the Comrade selected.

X. No installation can be legally held until the Post has been inspected and the semi-annual reports and per capita tax forwarded to Department Headquarters. The installing officer will inquire whether the Post has been inspected, and if it has not he will defer the installation and inspect the Post, after which he will proceed with the installation. Post Quartermasters are required to give bond. This must be done before they can be installed.

XI. Post Commanders are requested to look after the inspections and see that all reports are promptly made. Last year many Posts failed to make this report.

XII. Posts desiring supplies of any kind, service books or Quartermasters' bonds, should make requisition at once, so that they may have them in time for the installation.

XIII. Attention is again called to the large number of unmarked veterans' graves. Let every Post take this matter up and make application to the Government for headstones. Blanks can be procured at Department Headquarters.

XIV. Report of the Chickamauga Commission will be forwarded to Post Commanders at an early date, by express, at their expense. This volume is the property of the Post and is intended for the Post library.

XV. Circular letter No. 1, from National Headquarters, dated October 18, 1901, calls attention to the organization of the "McKinley National Memorial Association," created for the purpose of erecting and maintaining at Canton, Ohio, a suitable memorial to our beloved Comrade, William McKinley, and asking that Posts and individuals contribute for the purpose. Each contributor will in due time receive from the National Association a suitable memento. It is not desired that large contributions should be made, but it is sincerely hoped that all will give something, either as a Post or as individuals, as an expression of our love for our martyred Comrade and to emphasize our loyalty to American institutions and an abhorrence of that spirit of lawlessness which inspired the assault upon his life. Any one desiring to do so is directed to send the contribution to Addison C. Harris, President, or Frank L. Jones, Secretary, Indianapolis, Indiana.

The committee appointed to solicit funds for the erection of a monument to our late Comrade, Benjamin Harrison, have asked for contributions from Posts of this Department. Comrade Harrison was an Indiana soldier who served with distinction during the Civil War and afterwards as President of the United States. All donations should be sent to Evans Woollen, Commercial Club Building, Indianapolis, Indiana.

XVI. Attention is called to the enclosed circular from the committee having in charge the arrangements for the carrying of the regimental and battery flags in the parade during the dedication of the Indiana Soldiers' and Sailors' Monument in May, 1902. All Comrades are requested to aid the committee in procuring the information desired.

XVII. On account of removal from the State, Orville T. Chamberlain has tendered his resignation as Judge Advocate, and James S. Dodge, of Post No. 37, Elkhart, has been appointed to fill out the unexpired term. He will be obeyed and respected accordingly.

By command of

MILTON GARRIGUS,
Department Commander.

R. M. SMOCK,

Assistant Adjutant-General.

HEADQUARTERS DEPARTMENT OF INDIANA,
GRAND ARMY OF THE REPUBLIC,
OFFICE OF ASSISTANT ADJUTANT-GENERAL,
ROOM 25, STATE HOUSE,
INDIANAPOLIS, IND., December 23, 1901.

GENERAL ORDERS,
No. 6.

I. With this order is transmitted the National and Department countersigns. They will be promulgated by the Post Commander to all Comrades in good standing at the first regular meeting in January, 1902, and will be in force thereafter.

II. Post Commanders are urged to see that all reports due from the Post are promptly made. Many Posts are now delinquent in a portion of their reports. Be prompt so that no delay may occur in making reports to National Headquarters.

III. At a meeting of the Executive Committee of the National Council of Administration, recently held in Chicago, it was decided to hold the next National Encampment in Washington City.

IV. The Citizens' Executive Committee of the City of Anderson having notified Department Headquarters that they had decided not to entertain the Department Encampment in that city during the year 1902, and an invitation having been received from the Hon. Charles A. Bookwalter, Mayor, to hold said Encampment in Indianapolis, this invitation has been accepted, and the next Department Encampment will be held in the City of Indianapolis during the dedication of the Indiana Soldiers' and Sailors' Monument. Additional information will be given in future orders.

V. General Orders No. 3, from National Headquarters, is transmitted herewith.

By command of

MILTON GARRIGUS,
Department Commander.

R. M. SMOCK,
Assistant Adjutant-General.

HEADQUARTERS DEPARTMENT OF INDIANA,
GRAND ARMY OF THE REPUBLIC,
OFFICE OF ASSISTANT ADJUTANT-GENERAL,
ROOM 25, STATE HOUSE,
INDIANAPOLIS, IND., April 23, 1902.

GENERAL ORDERS,
No. 7.

I. The Twenty-third Annual Encampment of the Department of Indiana, Grand Army of the Republic, will convene in Tomlinson Hall in the City of Indianapolis, Tuesday, May 13, 1902, at 2 o'clock p. m. All persons entitled to seats in the Encampment are expected to be in attendance at that hour.

II. The Encampment will be governed, so far as applicable, by the rules of the National Encampment. The Council of Administration will present the order of business, and in order to avoid delay all resolutions must be reduced to writing, signed by the party and presented to the Encampment on the first day.

III. Headquarters during the Encampment will be established at the English Hotel.

IV. The Committee on Credentials will consist of R. M. Smock, Assistant Adjutant-General, and the following Comrades: Rodney Strain, Charles W. Brown, B. F. Shepherd, John F. Hammell, Morton C. Rankin, James D. Braden and Sol A. Pennington. They will report to the Assistant Adjutant-General at Department Headquarters, Room 25, State House, Tuesday, May 13th, at 8 o'clock A. M., and remain in session until the convening of the Encampment. Delegates are requested and urged to report to this committee upon their arrival and secure their badges.

V. The Council of Administration will meet at Room 25, State House, Monday evening, May 12, 1902, at 8 o'clock, for the transaction of regular and special business, and it is expected that every member will be present, as matters of unusual interest will be presented for their consideration.

VI. Delegates must apply in person for their badges. No Alternate will receive a badge unless the Delegate is absent. Proxies will not be recognized. Past Post Commanders cannot be represented by Alternates.

VII. Comrade Charles W. Wheat, of George H. Chapman Post No. 209, has been detailed as Officer of the Day, and Comrade David N. Huey, of Post No. 165, as Officer of the Guard, to serve during the Encampment. They will be obeyed and respected accordingly. The Officer of the Day will report to R. M. Smock, Assistant Adjutant-General, at Department Headquarters, Tuesday morning, May 13th, for instructions. A sufficient number of guards will be detailed from the local Posts to serve during the Encampment. They will report to the Officer of the Day Tuesday, May 13, 1902, at 12:30, at Tomlinson Hall, in uniform with arms.

VIII. The annual parade will take place on Thursday, May 15, 1902, and will be made in connection with, and a part of, the afternoon exercises in the dedication of the Monument. The Department will form on North Capitol avenue, right resting on Washington street, deploying northward, at 2 o'clock sharp, and will be composed of the Posts of the Department, taking their places according to their number, except the veterans of the State Soldiers' Home; they will be given the right of the column. Comrade James F. Fee, Senior Aide-de-Camp and Chief of Staff, will have charge of the column during the parade, assisted by Comrades Lafayette Larsh, Garrett H. Shover and Albert A. Jones; he will be obeyed and respected accordingly. The formation will be by platoons of eight. The march will be less than a mile long, and all members of the Grand Army of the Republic are requested to take part. The vesper services will take place upon the arrival of the Grand Army of the Republic at the Monument, in which all are requested to join.

IX. Camp fires will be held Thursday evening at Tomlinson Hall and English's Opera House. Interesting programs have been prepared and all are cordially invited to attend.

X. The Posts of Indianapolis have organized a committee for the purpose of assisting Comrades in securing accommodations during the Encampment, with F. E. Swift as chairman and D. H. Olive secretary. All Comrades desiring accommodations will write to the secretary, care U. S. Pension Office, Indianapolis, Ind. It would be advisable for all persons attending the Encampment to arrange for accommodations before they arrive here. This can be done by corresponding with this committee or with personal friends living here.

XI. The Central Passenger Association has authorized a rate of one cent per mile each way, short line distances from all points in the State of Indiana, and over all railroad lines, tickets good going on May 12th, 13th and 14th, also for trains arriving at Indianapolis before 12 o'clock noon on Thursday, May 15th, and returning up to and including May 17th. All Comrades throughout the Department contemplating attending the Encampment are requested to call upon their local ticket agents in the early part of May and learn whether excursion tickets have been provided. If no such provision has been made, inform this office immediately.

XII. A limited number of copies of the proceedings of the Thirty-fifth National Encampment have been received. Posts desiring copies can secure them by sending the necessary postage, eleven cents.

XIII. The following Department Officers will prepare written reports and have them ready to submit to the Encampment:

Senior Vice-Department Commander.
Junior Vice-Department Commander.
Medical Director.
Chaplain.
Inspector.
Judge Advocate.
Chief Mustering Officer.

XIV. For the information of the Comrades, the membership, as shown by the last report, is given of the ten largest Posts in the Department, as follows:

George H. Thomas Post No. 17, Indianapolis....	409
Auten Post No. 8, South Bend.....	195
Farragut Post No. 27, Evansville.....	191
Williams Post No. 78, Muncie.....	183

XV. Junior Vice-Department Commander Charles W. Brown announces that the Colored Comrades' Woman's Relief Corps and their friends will give a reception and camp fire on Wednesday evening, May 14th, at 8 o'clock, at Bethel A. M. E. Church, corner Vermont and Toledo streets. Music, songs, addresses and recitations will constitute the evening's entertainment, and all Comrades and their friends will be made welcome.

XVI. The dedication of the Indiana Soldiers' and Sailors' Monument will take place Thursday, May 15, 1902, at 10 o'clock. The program, as prepared by the Executive Committee, is an interesting one, and all Comrades are requested to attend. The ritualistic services in the dedication will be conducted by the Grand Army of the Republic.

XVII. The proceedings, finding and sentence of Post Court-Martial in the case of William McClintick, of Tippecanoe Post No. 51, is approved, and the said William McClintick is hereby dishonorably discharged from the Grand Army of the Republic.

XVIII. General Orders Nos. 4 and 5 from National Headquarters are transmitted herewith.

GENERAL ORDERS,
No. 8.

I. Memorial Day, with its cherished and hallowed duties, memories and associations, draws near apace. It is, and should be, a sacred day to all the loyal people of this great country. A host of heroes periled or lost their lives that our country might remain intact on the map of the world until its mission would be accomplished. That liberty should have an abiding place on the earth, they, with the million guns of the Republic, shot to death the heresies of slavery, State sovereignty, treason and secession. A people's character is molded by what it admires and praises. The family or nation that tenderly cares for its dead and beautifies their tombs with flowers exhibits to the world an object lesson of memory, love and veneration.

The Jews for many centuries have religiously observed their Passover with recital and thanksgiving, in remembrance of their great national peril and deliverance. Memorial Day is our Passover! It is the remembrance of a time which as long as this Nation shall live will remain its most momentous crisis. Our heroes, under God, saved our Nation from ruin and gave us a free and happy land, unpolluted by the foot of a despot or a slave. The Union soldiers made the great fight, not for themselves alone, but for every man, woman and child who dwells in this country or who shall ever dwell in it. Every citizen shares alike in the rich fruits of their blood and valor. Therefore, every individual, as a sacred and patriotic duty, should heartily join in the observance of our Memorial Days and thus honor the dead who died for us and the cause for which they fought. Decorate their every grave with the flowers of spring and the Stars and Stripes under which they marched and fought, as a testimonial from the loyal living to the cherished dead.

The veterans of 1861 can be present only a few more times on Memorial Days, for death is fast overtaking them. Arrange for the Woman's Relief Corps, our patriotic auxiliary, the Sons of Veterans, the Ladies' Aid Society, and all the children to have a prominent part in the exercises of the day, that they may learn and teach lessons of patriotism with earnestness and enthusiasm.

II. In accordance with established custom, every Post should attend Divine Service in a body on the Sunday preceding Memorial Day and especially invite their auxiliary, the Woman's Relief Corps, to join them.

III. President Lincoln's Gettysburg address is transmitted herewith, and Post Commanders are directed to cause the same to be read in connection with Memorial Day exercises, and as a part thereof, as provided by the Thirtieth National Encampment.
